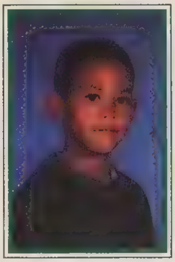
OAK HARBOR, WA
NAVY NFO



Hi My name is Bingo. Welcome to Alpha! Call him Jeeps, Monkey, Bluejean, Newgene, Screwgene, Hugene, Soup, but don't call him late for practice. Have you done your homework yet? Snores like a chainsaw, Jeeps turn over! Random palm pilot alarms. 3 minutes until 5 minutes to formation! Be wary of the black snake. It's weird, the picture of me in my rack and you not there. The Wall. Beemer fixed 3 years and $3 million later. Be careful scraping the windshield, you might not get back on the yard! Helping a mail truck, helping the Saab lady, getting dirty, getting subway, then getting stuck! So, I hear ya like to push a little deck? Ah, Rockville. 2345: Justin trying to sleep, yelling at Ian, Ian dropping rifles and yelling at Justin, and Eugene dancing around the room with techno blaring. Look guys, if you're gunna break the rules, you might want to do it more quietly. IM push ups. NG vs EWBIV. No, no, it's a too sexy! But I must! So what is the negative effects? It smells like axe in here! It's about that time eh chaps? Right-O. I'm le tired. Hey ya.

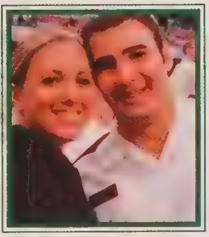
FREDERICKSBURG, TX
SURFACE WARFARE



Living across the hall plebe year, "Sir they told us it was a liner to espo", from Mom, Bob and Ingrid's, Ocean City and Doc's house, breakfast burritos, "I want it NOW", "Nooo, ok yes". "Im an angel fallen from heaven". NY to Texas, Getting hit in the face with the tree branch, learning football, LSU vs. OK, Speedracer, "but its worth $50,000" towards my BMW, Spanish God,taking care of me when I was sick, pobracito, Teddy & Linda… .NEA From TX, to WV, to OC, to Mexico to 4 years at this wonderful place - you have grown to be one of the few people I know will ALWAYS be there for me. I love you for the girl I know you are...the passionate, athletic, beautiful Texas cowgirl who follows her heart. –JRC Who would have thought that studying more chemistry would bring us closer together? You were my savior, though you almost killed me twice driving through red lights (once in front of a fire truck)- BHG Everything life has thrown at us along the way… we have your scrapbook to help us remember it all! But it's the little things like knowing what each other is like at 0530 in the morning that really make our friendship so special. Thanks for being who you are, and helping me to figure out who I am– LAS My favorite roommate, oh wait. My swo buddy, braider, make up artist. You opened my eyes to an exciting life, taught me what cosmo couldn't, and took care of me more than you will know. Amigas por siempre-SNF First roommate, how can I ever thank you for putting up with me. I don't know how you put up with all of this New York around you. - JMR

Andrew Thomas Carter

Endicott, NY
USMC Ground

"The mission of the United States Naval Academy is to develop midshipmen morally, mentally and physically and to imbue them with the highest ideals of duty, honor and loyalty in order to provide graduates who are dedicated to a career of naval service and have potential for future development in mind and character to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship and government."

Ryan Lee Craft

Shelby, OH
Navy Pilot

Thinking your cool because: you're older, drive a Trans-am, have a private pilots license, an aero major….on and on and on. Good times at the Jaime's beach house. 144 was the big number for that night. "What was that??? I don't know but here it goes again." The black Trans-am never being good enough. Silver Trans-am, only other car driven less than the Bronco (Except it is always parked at a close spot). Good times drinking Tequila in Veracruz. Always having places to go, but never letting us know where. All of the girls you IM but nobody has ever seen them. If anyone is going to be living a secret life, it's going to be you. Here is to the good times drinking Spaten Optimator at Rams Head. Here is to flying for the rest of your life. --- MBS How did you ever make it through this place? You had by far the hardest major in the world. I mean what other major makes you play four hours of flight simulator on PS2 everyday, 8 hours a day during finals. You do work hard at everything, homework, cars, women that you can't have. Just remember the movie "Unfaithful" and everything will be all right. How much money did we spend at Ram's Head? Don't you worry, we'll be forever immortalized at that bar with our own mug. Was $585 worth the price? I think yes. Now we can toast! Cheers to surviving the USNA! Cheers to flying! --- JMM

Collier Craig Crouch

Houston, TX
Navy Pilot

Few people are known as "The World Connoisseur." Collier came to the Naval Academy with his mind set on service selecting aviation. He did everything he needed to do, and then some. Collier was never one to stay idle or to stray away from a challenge. He kept himself busy with acolyte work, Lucky Bag Editor, and countless other activities. He chose to major in chemistry, one of the hardest majors at the academy becuase he thought it would challenge him and it was the only B he made plebe year . Collier did not set small goals, but he is on track to making most if not all of them come true. Collier's one of those people who will drop anything they are doing to help someone else out. I could always count on him for help even if I knew he did not have the time. He made mistakes, but learned from every one of them. He made a few enemies, but anyone who didn't get to know the real Collier really missed out. Good luck in the Fleet, I'm sure I'll see you out there. - JJ

JAMES CORBIN DAVIS

OREM, UT
USMC GROUND

"Ahhhh yeeeuh give it to your boy!!!!" JC was a late but welcome addition to the crew, spending two years in Italy on his mission. He's the first Mormon we ever met, but if they're all like him, then Utah can't be so bad. A legendary intramural warrior: this man had skills unlike anything Jan Dainard had ever seen. The most competitive person I know, he's good at everything he does, except fishing. And driving down streets in Las Vegas. Attracting women is no problem for this man: his dance moves could make you dizzy, but keeping 'em around proves a bit tougher. He holds records in Italy and America for 'number of women dated—once.' Even though he makes us look bad, he is the best roommate and friend a guy could ask for. He won the respect and admiration of his new classmates through his quiet demeanor and selfless attitude. A warrior on the field and a gentleman off of it, his good nature (and his dance moves) make him a welcome addition in any social setting. There's not many men in the world that we would want our sons to emulate, and JC's at tops the list. JAH JJL NEA.

SEAN RICHARD DOUGHERTY

DREXEL HILL, PA
NAVY PILOT

Shamus O'Shanti from—uh, Munster? Tree Room Co-Founder, Viking at heart. Bouncer at bars from Virginia to Seattle. Get up, get up, get up it's 7:30! Speak into my horn. Please keep your monkey anatomy and shaving cream cans to yourself. Newscasters, high schoolers, elementary school teachers, rugby players, bachelorettes, Englishwomen— Shamus and his wig have dated them all. Okay, maybe just kissed (but not necessarily only one at a time). No hotel? Find a Tepee. Tappin the resources at Immaculata. No, she's my schmoopie. Your schmoopie? Okay, she's our ex-girlfriend. You don't want her? Just pawn her off on Jon. Pull the trigger Sean—or just call everyone in your phonebook, it's only 2:30 a.m. Professional skier who can hit old ladies with deadly accuracy. Here, hold on to this pump. I like bagels, cream cheese, buttered popcorn and cool whip. I'm such a bad feminist. It tastes minty? DRY! He bit my stomach! Edward 40 hands, won by forfeit. Happy Times Cab: I dropped a turbo in this mother. Tree Room Forever. HRRRRGH!

IAN ANDREW DRULLARD

CHESHIRE, CT
SPECIAL WARFARE

~~[he's]~~ like pulling a string from a sweater…Take one Tazmanian Devil, add six pounds too much sugar, one geodesic dome, a touch of Cheshire class, and a little Southington 'hood, remove the governors on the volume, and throw in one Trident = WHAT!!? Ga-boom ga-buh (and a whole mess of random sputters) pointless yet catchy too. Yes you can make apples out of a ton 'o stuff. CC and inventor of the double combo-billet, This is Admin…This is 1st Lt. "I would never darkside…" woops…Hi my name is Ian, I know everything about every cartoon ever made...ever. Save the her…a bit too buoyant, emergency blow!..There goes that car with the rocking chair...again The Aegis X-1, Big Top Ian, Ian's Big Adventure, driving back in a hurry…don't wanna miss blue and gold with Ritterman…hmm

Shaina Nicole Flores

Colorado Spring, CO
Surface Warfare

Locked on little Napster, Ms. Flores puts out effort! S. J. scribbled everywhere. Papa Johns? Fetal position, Mmm..sugar free jelly beans. Crocheting and Mega Millions, not so much. Nap time, spilling 100 quarters. Brown/blond/ chocolate cherry/short/long but hair EVERYWHERE. Karen, enough said. Platinum recording artist in the shower. Pack rat-never, unique organization-definitely. Kashi under the desk? Making history in Nashville, I'll never forger the fun and the pain and I cannot thank you enough for helping me find the missing piece in my life-JMR. Through high hair contests and being complete opposites, you were my first friend here. Love you, Becs. To SWO MAMAism, craftiness, oogling over Enrique, Bible Study and OCF-God Bless-MW. The Introduction: Hi. My name is Shaina. You guys need any help? HA! Did we ever! My "no fun Christian girl" who dances on bars with me. I have learned so many things from you that I will always cherish –learn to braid your own hair!-LC. Your faith has been an encouragement in my life. I pray that we look to God for the rest of our lives. I will always love you…click-KJ. Hebrews 12:11, to all who supported me, thank you.

Rebecca Haley Gould

Newhall, CA
USMC Ground

Gould's coming...I just heard her clear her throat. Either that, or your cracking ankle, but I suggest you stay away from any covert operation. Begging for rides at the Harbour center, mmmmmm...Whole Foods. Room treat, Joe Marines, Midstore again. Juanita, Patty, Lisa. Oorah, Yut and Semper Fi Payback is a medevac. Printing started...all of the memories have kept me laughing and have forged a bond that cannot be broken. Luv ya! JMR Well, I think that our friendship is pretty amazing considering we met doing what you love and what I hate…the Marines! But we made a good time of it, and I will never forget checking each other for ticks, or room talks, or our equal yet opposite obsessions (you-fitness, me-school). I will miss you Mrs. Bishop!~Di Always remember that there is not enough Love Spell in the world, bleach and ammonia will never mix well together, and that any problem can be solved by piling onto a rack. Our room was the best place to laugh, cry, vent, and live. Joe Marines forever (and a little swo). SNF To the whitest Cali girl the world has ever known, I know because you took me there. Thanks for coming back to the tree that day, God knows I wouldn't have made it through that day or the following years if you hadn't been there waiting on me. I will always remember the funest, yes I said FUNEST, room EVER. Me sleeping on you desk, Shaina and her somewhat random Christian admirers, and you refusing to use IM unless you were on my computer. Good luck with that whole Marine thing HOORAH! ~JRC

Matthew Joseph Hahn

Baltimore, MD
Nuclear Surface Warfare

Matty J. Super genius…32's about right…I then I moan throwup. Out Cold meets Blue Juice meets Prefontaine. Adam vs. the computer. Dust is becoming unruly. Pete. Sumo wrestling at CONDOM. She kicked your butt! Pit stops at quiet waters… every quarter mile. The time Willy got froze at the naval station. Oh, I'm going EZ today. Sure. King of the Wall. Socially ept. I want a boyfriend too. She's very talkative in a non-interesting sort of way. Brigade Swim Bike Run Champions of the World. Blue Crush… sooooo hot. That was a lot of pull-ups. So we ate 4 pizzas and all the junk food in the house? Hey Matt! What? D'you loik…bread? Sleeps with a fan. The most obnoxious alarm on the planet. Race ya to the shower! Charlie "the printer". Who goes surfing in January? Wrestling the Sasqwatz and Benvenga at the same time! Do you like to play soccer? I like to play soccer. Oh by the way, instead of going out this weekend, you're hosting a troop. Thanks for volunteering. Mountain bikes to gate watch. Ha! You got an F on Ebay. Watch out for those medians, they sneak up on you. Hey Matt, you busy? WOW. Headphones = good investment. I choose you Pikachu! Chicken alarm.

Andrew Gustav Hemminger

Annapolis, MD
Surface Warfare

When looking back at the Naval Academy career of Andrew Hemminger, we must first understand his perspective. He is the only four year "V" in the institution's history. Therefore, "when a mannn loves a womannnn, he can't keep his mind on nuthin else, turns his back on his best friends"......anyway, don't worry about me, I will risk my life while you call the police.....tattoos at midnight during YP's....getting thrown out of Preakness...waiting up at night in San Diego so we didn't get beat too bad...spending the night on the hotel floor...don't worry you're not going bald.....new years 2002 in the jeep....cowboys in Dallas..... you're a great photographer...car bombs...Boston homeless bar, "gotta hit it soft, like a......"....don't fall asleep in the car.... "you can't push a rope". Ha ha ha!...Oh my God we are dorks."... "Ladies, who ordered the front flip?" ... "I'll fly over that wall..." Plankowner...

James Albert House

Winston Salem, NC
Navy Pilot

THAT"S WHAT DADDY LIKES!!" We always knew when Jim was pleased with himself. Almost heaven, WV...or is it NC? Or TN? Well there's no telling where in the South you'll find Jim, but you know he'll be wearin' his topsiders and dressed like a frat boy—no one around here quite has his style "'Jim: How'd you spell your name again?' Her: 'Kat...K-A-T' Jim: Oh, um, see I thought it was with a C.'" So he's a pilot? No a naval aviator. Whatever he is, I know he makes a great wingman, and he won't let you forget that he's "in the U.S. Military [mean face]!" If you saw him run through downtown Annapolis in 70's clothing to get a CD so his roommate could propose, you'd know what I mean. If there ever was a laid back midshipman it was him. Whether it's in Daytona on SB or in the river he's always fun to be around. You'll never hear someone speak poorly of him, and he never speaks poorly of others. A true "dude." Jim is a friend's best friend. Best listener and the quickest wit around. Gotta love him. His favorite verse is Phil 4:13. The best part about Jim, he always took that strength and passed it on. With that being said..Jim can we spoon now??? JJL, JCD, IJV, NEA.

Jedadiah Jamerson

San Antonio, TX
Submarines

Jed is the type of guy that you always go to when you want something good to happen. He has seen a lot of adversity, but it still holds true that he is the luckiest guy that you will ever meet. He has challenged himself to become a better person every minute of his life and he has never given up on his dreams. The Naval Academy has been good for him, it brought him from a boy to a man, and it taught him to dream farther than he had ever though. He inspires all whom he is around and has a genuine care for the well-being of others. Whenever I need a piece of luck to brighten my day I will know where to look. Love ya man, CCC. Dude, plebe rifle, incessant IM's from me youngster year, weapons detail was ridiculous; what are you doing this weekend? Studying??? no way, dude; back a little late from xmas leave?; Blizzard weekend...I remember enough to know what happened; HFS festival and Long Islands; thanks for taking pics on my 21st; Houston Bowl..'nuff said; love ya, dude and you know it... C.C.

JONATHAN KIM

TAMPA, FL
USMC GROUND

Jon – Picking up chicks in Orlando clubs, parties at UF, want to eat at Papparazi's? You turned off the alarms?! Drinking in NYC, Surfing, yeah I'll try it. Hardcore trainer, PT stud, best friend, you got it all Johnny K. It took you long enough to make the right choice! Once a Marine, always a Marine. See you in TBS bro.

JOHN JOSHUA LOWERY

WINGATE, NC
NAVY NFO

"Hey Romeo…lets go fishin' at Tuckahoe!" Funny how "wettin' a line" together can form a friendship stronger than brothers. We've shown our fair share of Balto/DC residents "a couple real hillbillies", that much is for sure. The Fast Freddy started it all, and God knows that ship could form a bond between anyone. Don't let those "Red Eye's" get to you Josh, a NFO--er, naval flight officer--needs his vision. You best watch out when those boys from Dixie walk into a bar, cause no Yank is buying this place out! Play "Freebird" man! He's a laugh and a confidante…a friend to the core, Josh always cowboyed up. There'll be no regrets, no worries and such, for cowboys like us…Josh is the definition of southern, not in that bad way that makes you cringe, but in the way that makes you feel welcome and at home wherever and whenever. Not to mention he does have that really flashy gold fishing hook on his hat. Top class if you ask me. That there's funny…

ADAM STUART MILLER

FAIRMONT, WV
SURFACE WARFARE

The hula dancing, stuffed animal decapitating, roommate maiming, elite warrior of the sea. From Screen Door Man to all the stuff in Whistler that I can't repeat here. So what if tomorrow is boxer brief Friday, he'll throw it out the window anyway. Best guy to have at your side when you like to pick fights in bars -- but the worst if you want to pick up chicks cause he's usually the funniest dancer in the club. Dude, you going Corps? "Sorry I can't come to the phone right now. I'm ringing in the new year with my buddies in Houston!" Sleep in the shower much? Rain camping in the Jeep with only a cooler to survive. Super IM pimp machine. Do they wear shoes in West Virginia? A consummate partier always. "Did you see that - I beat him at darts!"; Adam, he's a cripple. Oh wow, you're how old? "She dressed up like a school teacher, with a pencil in her hair and everything!" Destroyer of Plebes. Go to the Midstore, NOW. What's that in the snow, it looks kinda like a big…. After school happy rack time. PTing on the fantail of the YP, now to South Boston!! "Arnold" will be changing scenery from the mountains of WV, while SWOing it up in tropical Hawaii hoping to see many Asian beauties!! "Hey Charlie and Nick, let's take the duty van for a night on the town with the jimmy legs!" Will do anything to help a young (but still older) bachelorette in need. He drinks like a fish and PT's like a beast!!! Adam, you can be my wingman any time!!!

KYLE CHRISTOPHER MOORE

CAMARILLO, CA
NAVY PILOT

Kyle Moore… Tree Room Co-founder… likes bugs and pizza and has the metabolism of a hummingbird. If you need anything from him, stop by early cause he's in bed by 8. Avid athlete who loves racquetball, swimming, lifting and golf. If you've got something he doesn't, he'll get it. Then sell it three months later. Girls love him, even after regurgitation. Snowboarder for life… it's SO much more fun than skiing. Screw you guys, I'm on the mountain by 4:30 AM. The second one to take seconds… who needs permission anyway? It's a littlecold, and a littlewet. You can hear him and his system coming from a mile away, watch out for that fresh wax job. Wherever he might be, his heart is still in Cali cause he probably just checked the weather there five minutes ago. You did WHAT to my Gatorade bottle?? "There are no corn dogs in New York" but he's the number one fan of Jane's grilled cheese, In-And-Out Burger, and all other food/candy except for seafood. Always watching Aicha, PeanutbutterJellytime, Gonads and Strife, or GI Joe Public Service Announcements. Highlight of his life - watching Top Gun after receiving Navy Pilot and while receiving a warm…….oh just watch the movie. WOO WOO! Going to marry Kate Bosworth someday. Oh yeah, he's never getting married. All he needs is a helo, his toothbrush and a few cases of Red Fusion. Ring-da-da-ding-ding-ding!

JUSTIN MICHAEL MURGIA

GILBERTSVILLE, PA
NAVY NFO

The Mangrovian flailing feeble memory Greek. More time invested in gaming than some people live. Were we in the same company? Racking out in under your desk. Ocean City, NJ is basically where it started. The drive by fry. The worst white boy basketball skills ever seen. The hook up tent in the woods. The Hornet hop, you still owe me! The enlisted girls in Tijuana. Along comes the High School friend/gf. Fat Tuesday in DTA. Mudding behind the stadium. Ton of green spent on crabs. Darnest TV I have ever seen. "It wasn't me, I would have never made it to the sink." She will always be my co-sponsor mom. "What, you guys never blew your nose in your shirt before?" If it's liquid and on the table, he will spill it. Room 1127 and 3062 it's at. The Mangrove Equation: Money Spent = 3 * Money Made. Gotta go, its Jana time. Congrats Justin, Navy Air is the only way to go. – RLC Living on 3-3. Spilling everything plebe summer. Late night mangrove psychoanalysis. Electrolysis. Going out with Tine. Cleaning up your mess. Living on 3-1. Complaining about DMB. Stealing my Tequila. Cleaning up your mess. Fixing my computer. Chilling at Uncle Bobs and Ingrid's. Living on 1-1. Inviting Jana to your 21st B-day party… Cleaning up your mess. Spring break in Veracruz. Cleaning up your mess. Living on 3-0. Partying at Jana's for the weekend. She cleans your mess. 6th street for new years. You are finally toilet trained. Going Naval Aviation, we have the rest of our lives! – MBS

NICHOLAS BAXTER PERKINS

KINGWOOD, TX
USMC GROUND

I'm a freakin' well oiled machine right here!! Anyone seen the bathroom? Oh the wall next to the TV, thanks. If I don't get CC, I will KILL YOU. If I don't get Marine Corps, I will KILL YOU. "Hey gunny I think I cut myself" or my hula dancin roommate slashed my finger trying to skewer a decapitated stuffed duck. YUT! I set the standard with political correctness – openness to others always! Sir, I think 20 beers in 2 hours is a tad too much of the right spirit. Many nights have been spent in DTA with this Hard Charger. I'll just sleep here in Jane's yard. I emptied my guts on the Metro!! 5 guys, 144 beers, 8 hours....any questsions?? You want who in your squad…… awwww yeeaaaah!! Your name is Scarlet, eh? Who needs their number, I don't want to TALK to them!! Just take a stroll down West Street at 0230. Many exciting encounters with lots of lovely ladies have proven that the force is strong in this one. Why yes, my older hot bachelorette, I'll help you complete your goals. After scuba diving, let's take a trip in the duty van!! Bring Charlie for his personality and you call the jimmy legs!! Just going back to the yard, sir!! Graciously opening his home to many poor, ailing Mids during the cold winter months for beer, an exciting bowl game, and an awesome New Year celebration. Nick is true friend. Give'em HELL Devil Dog!

Christopher James Pittman

Woodbridge, VA
Navy NFO

Do you have any clue how much of a stud this guy is? Chris sure knows it when he flexes in the mirror five times a day. Another of my roommates who made the all time restriction record of 120 days. Maybe he'll learn to stop letting Matt be such a bad influence on him or he wouldn't have had to leave us with only one semester to go. Wait, I thought roommates were supposed to write these…I guess we'll make an exception as Chris will always be our roommate, even when he doesn't live in our room. Sometimes I'm glad he's gone, I don't have to deal with an obnoxious drunk like on his 21st birthday (j/k). Wait, that was my fault! The look Chris's mother gave Matt and I when we delivered their now 21 y/o son stumbling drunk for their road trip to Atlantic City will be burned into my memory. Especially the second time after he vomited in their van and we had to clean him up…again. Good times at the Rams Head and every other bar Chris got his woman drinks at. I must admit, they did taste good, but not as good as Helles! Chris will be the best pilot that ever got assigned NFO this Navy has seen. The only Mid I know to do well in classes by playing Everquest…maybe Poli Sci and killing imaginary creatures have something in common? Bringin it straight to ya from the days of 1105. You know its all about common sense…so why don't we have any? I mean all you gotta do is line it up…just like in real basketball. Bad boys to the end! I wouldn't have gotten this far without you dragging me along. Twins? Tropical vacations in Bancroft Hall, Chinese dinners (you know the name), memorable "dates" with old friends (you finally repaid me for that one!). You were never afraid to let the girly drinks flow.

No guys, you go ahead, I don't have any money to spend on YOU. On the weekend? Oh I'll be taking the woman to dinner, movies, drinks……the works. Hey I'm 21, let's get the duty van, bring some civies…..hell even invite the jimmy legs!! Jimmy legs: "What're you boys doin in there?" Charlie: "Just getting dressed, sir." Could be 0100 or 1300, He's probably racking out for the night, stop by tomorrow!! Naval Law with Nick. So what do they have in Nebraska? Groundhogs. Have you seen Charlie? I haven't seen him all semester. Blues on the Bay, drunk jazz with Andy. "Mr. Platt, get that inflection out of your voice!!" The instigator. Southern girls are and will always be the cutest. What can you tell me about these "soft shoulder boards" I keep hearing about? Kettlebells Comrade? Judo know if I gotta gun! You have second off? No? How about a trip down to the Midstore? "I've got a new scheme to make my millions, interested?" You shut-up, Math is cool! Excuse me, could you be more politically correct, I'm offended. Gotta love those bachelorettes up at Galway Bay… milkshake please? Seeing the light, Charlie has left the warm glow of nuclear rods for the cool breeze of the blue sky.

These past 4 years of lockdown have been memorable to say the least, and I couldn't have made it through here without all of you guys. Carter, thanks for being a great roommate and friend. Despite the popular myth that you play video games all day, everyday, I think I know better than anyone that you really do have character and depth. We had some great talks about everything imaginable…Higgins boats, "the man", sarge, strongbad, women, The Big Lebowski, etc. Thanks for the laughs and best of luck in the Corps. Kyle, we had some great times from the start and I consider you one of my best friends. Plebe year would've been extremely boring if we didn't find random ways to make things funny. Thanks for everything and we'll see ya in Pcola. And to all of my friends here in 1st Co. who are too numerous to mention with too many memories to recall, we made it! Through the hard times, the good times, the scandalous times, and all the times in between, we have arrived, it's finally OUR time. Best of luck to all of you! See you on the outside!

The master of bagging out of stuff…we salute you. Garas breaking the bubble. "I'll have a Sprite too." "Ryan, get your face out of the poison ivy." Blake. I'm getting in your rack… "I'm going to kill you real!" "Today is B-Y-O-M day. That spells 'byom.' It rhymes with 'I moan.'" Fragging your own teammates…"Fire in the hole!" If you're going to throw up, you might as well do it on someone else's bed. Dive buddies. I've never seen so much liquid come out of a human being (happy birthday). "We were talking to each other…it's telekinetic!" "Hey what's that in my con-locker…You win!" "You go to a school north of the Mason-Dixon line. . . . Isn't it?" "I burned a hole in my corframs." "Christ, that was terrible!" Habusake. I can't believe they actually gave this guy stripes. Sure was quiet first semester. Smelled better too. Diagnosis? You've been with her for seven years and you aren't married yet??? The defiling of West Point…success! That thing that won't die. "One day you guys will wake up on an operating table and see my face." You know, you're probably going to have the first confirmed kill out of all of us. Good luck, Doc! –JBT & AMW

My LI friend who made laughter apart of these past four years. Stop swiffering, we have to hide Barbie. Amish market, country music marathon, long runs just to talk about life, EE boats, the wrecking crew of badminton. Can I open the package? Sacred room poem. Sharing clothes and even parents for a weekend. Open window, polar bears, gravity, pink hair-sorry about that. Close the soda, no more company emails. Ring dance=new dresses. Can I do a routine? NKOTB tape. Fights…never. Yelling…just for fun. Great. By my side for these years and on my big day, I thank you. Enough "Shaina and Jen" moments for a lifetime, I cannot wait to see what God has in store for you, Matt 7:7—SNF(J). To compulsive five a.m. workouts and three outers in a row, Lime Tostitos and Guacamole Doritos, Whole Foods salads and hoping someone will give us a ride while the doors in front of Staples opens and closes, Leatherneck and dip, room treats, obsessive cleaning. Life is full of little pleasures and you have provided so many of them. I will always love you.—Bec. My roommate, does anyone question her? No, that's just Jen. Plebe summer - interesting eating habits, her rat, Mr. Kenny and Kay. We survived it all - and now who will give me Swedish fish and twizzlers??-LC.

The Mexican momma's boy. lets live in Mother B for four years. Went from clueless, to SWOtivated, to finally Navy Pilot, who would have guessed? Hess's squad with Strubs, did you ever know anything? All calls for months with Blackmon-Combs. Chief Slaughterbach, "PC's?? You want a man size ship!" "A real man just reaches in there and flips it." Near brawl in King Hall. Drive by fry. Restriction, First time out of the USA. Drinking from the Vodka bottle. More hot cousins than a friend could ever hope for. Always got the "private" side of the room. Watt's caught ya. Who left the surprise in the sink? Loud guitars and African drum pounding. Congrats Manolo, Navy Air is the only way to go. – RLC The first time we met had to be the time we were staring at each other face to face sweating our cajones off doing pushups while getting screamed at by Mr. Adams. Economics was a good call, you get to sleep 12 hours a day. It was good times though. Remember Chavez and the hotel party when all the other guys bailed so we were left to entertain all the women. Thanks for the insight south of the Border, siestas and the food were incredible. –JMM To the guy who started my never-ending trend of nicknames (James, Jaim… the list goes on). To the guy who went from pulling me through muddy obstacle courses, to lightly grasping my hand for Ring Dance Pics. To the guy who became my best friend and my biggest competition. It's funny how sometimes I feel like I have known you forever, and others as though my life didn't start until I met you…Here's to diet coke and chex mix in the middle of the night, b-ball games to relieve stress, and YOU being the smart one. A big thanks to my parents for all there support, you're really great. To all the friends I've made here, it's been real for sure. I'm glad I met each of you so keep in touch and I'm sure we'll hook up at some point in the upcoming years, especially when I need to borrow money (just playing). And don't forget those kids that aren't with our group anymore…Doc, Dude, Shades, Corona, Vogel, (Not Winklewoman)…They're apart of who we are as much as the rest of us. To all my Boys from home, you're the reason I do any of this, total inspiration till the end, so give me about five more years and we will ride again… harder than ever.

Sure, Potato Country. Vogel and I breaking Heaphy in over Plebe Summer. Never forget Shaedler, Vogel, and Sanchez. Jaime Leverence – that's a first. Fitz and Recon, roommates and friends. Fitz and the mouse. Two more semesters of John and Eric. Aero sucked, but it's the best major. Varsity Aero that is. None of that space stuff. Wind Tunnels, enough said. Ben – friend and confidant. Beau – YP's for life. The Lion King on Broadway. Eugene – I'll never forget the stuff we got him to do in NYC. P-3's blow. Got back together with high school flame – 10 JUL 04; she's the One for me. I love you Emily Christine!! 3.8 GPA career high followed by a 3.0 career low. Firsties at last, couldn't come fast enough, won't leave soon enough. Unlimited weekends! Oh wait… nevermind. K14 (Kirschenheiter) and I in a huge room. Winning football season!! Commander and Chief's Trophy!! Last brigade PRT ever. Paul gets married, who'd have though e'd be the first of the four!?! Service Selection – Snow angels in SDB's. Service Assignment – Beer and an August 6th flight school date. Last semester. One thing ends, but real life begins. I won't mind leaving this place, but I'm glad that I came. Many more memories left for drinking stories with friends. So many friends; a true bond above and beyond differing personalities. I'd do anything for you all. Its be a rough ride, but its been a thrill.

Running is a way of life, but watch out for speckles…… It's cold…. Geo Metros are cool! How do you get quarters stuck in your jacket? Incoming flashlight! Chevy's is pretty far away, got a cigar? Movie theater leftovers. Midnight knitting. Mobius strip! Killington… hell no. Staying up 2 days straight from Hollywood to Vegas. Crazy Horse, no wonder they call him Crazy! Eating kalbi and rice in the room. Rolling around drunk in the club, throwing up on the Turnpike on the way to the Army Navy FB game. Popping wheelies in Baltimore. Did a rhino stomp on your finger?! I invested my career starter loan into having fun. Goofy jigs in Peter's room, making fun of JK with Jimmy, 4-wheelin at the stadium. Working on the huffy today? Or should we strip at date auctions in GW? Either way, 2 hr drive to Ocean City tomorrow. Let's buy more surfboards than we can afford and drink somewhere. Italian restaurants on M street, and shady DC nightclubs, no half breeds here. NYC was too much fun, especially with alarms that don't go off (or someone turning them off). Either way, what a great time. We ride together, we die together. Marines for life. Otto- We gotta get in shape for real now….riiiight. Thanks for sharing some of the better times we've spent at the academy with me. You've got a good spirit and are one of the few people around here that can be concerned with other people before yourself. Don't forget that.

Run run Ginger Bread Man!!! Eric is the kind of guy you cannot walk through the hall with without stopping to talk to someone he knows. Most of the time it is a lady friend of his, but you can't hate a player. The Marines are lucky to have this motivated Hoorah that constantly serenades the room with cadences when he is in the shower. He is a great guy though, after you get past the massive pictures of himself running that reside on his desk. There is never a dull moment with Eric around (especially when he has had tequila); whether it is ordering Ooglie Googlies at Chevy's, constant phone calls from his mom, OFBM ISO one WG, and constantly being assassinated by a finger gun as he enters the room like a SWAT team. For years I've had my doubts about you, but deep down inside I know you're batting for the home team. "I'm like Allen Iverson, Doug is like Vince Carter and Clay is like Larry Bird. Well who does that make me?... Charlie Ward. Its stuff like that, that'll ensure the name CGR lasts a life time. This convo doesn`t go outside this car right?" Remember--there's 8 lanes to life and life is a game of seconds, just like track. See you patrolling the skies. Screaming late at nite….skillbuilder….you know you're going crazy when….the letter you wrote that still holds its own special place. We've been through it all, but somehow only the best times stand out. Like nites in Cancun and crazy grapefruit diets and foam parties. And conversations for hours about everything and anything. Trips to the shore (with and without Faith)….and to get "snacks"….and how you always seem to know just when to call me out. Thanks for being the reason I made it through and the reason I get out of bed when I don't want to. What a crazy and interesting four years it's been Lil. We have definitely gone through a lot together. Through all of our laughs, tears and "roommate tiffs" you have always been there when I needed you the most. We have so much to look back on and laugh at – "The B-2 Spirit Sir?," our crazy and delirious nights in Cancun, our "you know you're going crazy when..." lists, parties at the shore house, "Lily, what are you doing?!?!?" You hated me over plebe summer, but that's alright, I would have hated me too, always yelling at you and telling you what to do. You, Jen and I have some awesome memories, we really do. I love how we always seem to act tougher when we're together and laugh hardest at each other's jokes. You always give the best advice and I'm always wondering how you just seem to know certain things. I can't wait for Mayport Lil, the fun times haven't even started yet.

Three words: Work out, sleep, foooooood. Marcymonster from Vermi…Why is Gonzo sleeping in my rack?"…The band of brothers one room, 4 years. Love Muscles, the MAN, Bench press Marcy, Erg Master, Gunner, Hips, Brain Trust. Just give this guy a mirror and he'll be entertained for hours. Any excuse to take his shirt off.. Who wants to go salvage diving in Georgetown? How about Philly? Sits in the corner at parties, then lets the game flock to him. Amazing. The only guy to park his car illegally for an entire year without getting a ticket. The Jeager with a temper problem. Man of few words but a force to be reckoned with, can carry on an entire conversation in grunts. Guess you can major in crew after all. The "standard" for 4 years. Record Breaker that feels the need for speed, definitely has the biggest back on the team, just ask him to measure it…Competitive...His loyalty was always to the brotherhood, if he wasn't working out, you could prolly find him dead somewhere. ## ANDREW LAWLER STRAESSLE

ATLANTA, GA
USMC PILOT

To the best of times, to the worst of times. You have made your family proud and continued the USNA family tradition, even taking a semester off as an exchange student at the climbing wall your senior year. What a wild 4 years it has been. It's amazing how one thing can happen and it takes 2 years and an M-16 to get over it. "How is it that you never have any homework?" You know I only use you for your brain. By the way, "Can you help me with MAPLE?" Weapons class alone was an experience. Aside from all that, you have taken to re-introducing H girls to the Academy. Something I've never understood, "How do you know every girl on the yard and still come out empty handed?" If you can't get a good girl, get a W, S, or H girl. To the brotherhood of the black shirts of Glee Club tours and the countless adventures we've had. "What the… did you fall asleep again?" "Yeah, thank God for rumble strips!" The fun continued, from Houston to Bourbon St. and on to Rio. And don't forget, that $300 was your fault! You are many things to many people. You are always there when needed, always a true friend, the one I can tell anything to, the voice of reason, the one who always keeps me grounded, and the one everyone can count on. Friends forever – DGJ, JCP, MWM, JML, & JMH

Jimmy Jin Suk Suh- Did a lot of growing up and learning about myself through the four years. I learned that the most important things in my life are my family and friends. Jason: Always there to remind me to take a break and live life a little. Many good memories through the 3 ½ years of BMB. James and JK: Without you boys life as a mid would've been too much and too serious. Marcus: the one that got me looking good and ready for Costa Rica. Reactor Corps! Beating up Otto in his own room, picking on Jon K, sleeping in late over Army-Navy, running red lights in NYC, surfing Maryland and Costa, Los Angeles BBQ's, holding belt buckles on highways, do you wanna die?!, Acccceeee! Let's do some mountain-climbers in the garage, I hit 145 what's your max? Thanks for making these past 4 years memorable and fun Jimmy, K-boyz for life. Now, off to take care of business!

Right now I'm smiling, Taking advantage of this moment Cause there might not be another soon Holding on to memories like roller coaster handle bars tightly cause I'm slightly off my rocker--But to you I may appear to be your average Joe But little do you know that even Joe got problems that he gots to joust with Floating in this game of life
Despite how out of place you may feel In this race oh you just can't quit
Ain't that a - that being heat I'm on the beat like cops Only cultivate the stable dirt when I place my drops
No concentrating knocking other people out the box Why?--Cause in a sense
See we all be kind of fly Just can't be scared to spread your wings Head to better things
Maybe the mockingbird and nightingale they want to sing--keeping this thing alive
To the table's what we bring We like hailstorms and blizzards in the middle of the spring

Kristopher Erik von Krueger-

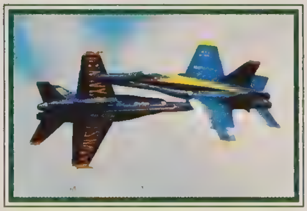
St. Petersburg, FL
Navy Pilot



Ever since I can remember, I had wanted to attend the Naval Academy. Both of my parents were retired Naval Air traffic controllers. While I traveled the country and the world with my parents as we moved from duty station to duty station (Iceland, Lemoore, Alameda, Corpus Christy, Pensacola, Key West). I was home schooled with my two brothers Aaron( Army Enlisted) and Kurtis (Enlisted Navy Nuke). At the age of 17, I attended military prep school in St. Petersburg Fl, at Admiral Farragut Academy. After two short years there, I came to the Naval Academy in the Summer of 2001, as a member of the class of 2004. During my four years by the bay, I have evolved personally and professionally so that I would not recognize the person I was before I came here. I have developed a deeper love for the ocean and sailing than I could have ever dreamed. My best memories and most trying times at the academy will be forever embodied on the countless hours I spent offshore sailing during the summer. The struggles I have endured in my life while at the academy have brought me to the brink of self destruction and back again more times than I can count. I am a more capable person, warrior, and American than I could have ever been with out the Naval Academy in my life. For this, I will be eternally grateful.

Donyale Paul West

Houston, TX
Surface Warfare

Welcome to the lifestyle of Donyale West. How would his peers describe him? Roommate 1: That Donyale always beat me in Madden, he had that special touch with the A button, but I made up for my low self-esteem by stealing his fake girlfriend and making her mine. We had great time with bathroom wild-mans our last 2 years... He wouldn't say our bathrooms are the best though, instead he would say the mall family bathrooms are the best. Always remember not Donyale North or Donyale South or even Donyale East but Donyale West. Roommate 2: At first I didn't respect Donyale because he took our extra closet when he moved in but I realized he can be of help to me. He can blackify me and teach me how to pick up hot chicks, so I decided to give him a chance. It worked! I now play rap and R&B and know the ebonics, but somewhere down the line it messed up. We whitified him! Self Reflection: I'M HOT!! Hot or Not says so 9.1 baby!!! My Annie!! 23 to 29 to 3.

Navy NFO

Four years together by the bay
Where Severn joins the tide,
Then by Service called away
We're scattered far and wide;
But still when two or three shall meet
And old tales be retold
From low to highest in the fleet
We'll pledge the Blue and Gold.

Adios 4th Company – it's been real. I'm sure I'll see you guys around… You can find me with a new last name, Desrochers. Here we go, off into Never Never Land...

Hey, where's JBax? oh he's sitting on the ground again. Guys my hand really hurts, what happened last night? Here's to roadtrips. Pour it up!!! Your warmest cheapest Vodka that is. "A sense of urgency? Man I'm from Houston." Waking up in that dorm room in Pittsburgh and saying, "I'm bout zeroed out up here." No Justin, I know it's bright and sparkly, but it's not food. Standards? who needs 'em, definitely not this guy! She still hasn't called back? Whatever, let's go ransack some other girl's place. If only you could major in NCAA Football and SSX Tricky. Mike Jones who?...Mike Jones. A sense of direction right like that of a dizzy wombat with a blindfold on. Funny how he could find his way to the bar during a blizzard in the middle of January though. And the cold, FORGET IT! Leaning out of the sunroof to pour anti-freeze on the windshield on the way to Vermont when it was -14 outside was not fun apparently. "Yo, are they serious with this choppin' stuff? They want me to yell WHAT when I square a corner!?" Here's to being the best of friends even though we couldn't even live on the same side of the room plebe year. The Wreckin' Crew strikes again with many more to come. --TK

Plebe year, 8 room inspectors on day 1, catching rats under the racks, Le's office, "Yeah, you're probably right", found out that Matt + caffeine = not a good idea, Army week and the laser in T-Court.... Youngster year, "Why didn't I pick English?", the last Bancroft Birthday Parties, The Juntunen!!!!. "There's gotta be somebody who needs some killin'", boxes and bayonets, "Make the machine do the work", free nightly entertainment courtesy of Goat Court, "How do you know about the machine?" …Second class, trip to the JSF, racks in the snow and snowballs in the hall during Army Week, the alarm clock incident, pro quiz "fun", getting the eyes zapped, flying with the Blue Angels (you lucky…)…Finally Firsties, "Sound Adjutant's Call!", Le's office returns (with kayaks this time), officially a naval aviator, the light at the end of the tunnel looks much brighter. -MBB

No, man, we didn't see what happened. Why don't you just go ahead and jump over that fence and run off the misery. No regrets. Speaking of no regrets, those eyes look freaky in a picture - sure glad the Navy was able to fix something for once. Now if they could only teach you to keep your tongue in you mouth. Learn to throw, and find your girl to meet all 8 criteria. -NY I've heard of sleeping with one eye open, but two? Call me when you find the perfect mountain; until then, lucky 13 and the pretty orange ones will have to do. Is it my turn for a secret or yours? I guess it doesn't matter as long as you're wonderful, I'm fine, and a phone happens to be around at 3am! -JL From jumping like an ape, to huddling wrapped up in the corner, if only all the girls chasing after you could see what I have seen. Fought TOOTH and nail on the Ultimate field. Shakespeare in Love? Where's my drugs? Can you patch the hole in my back? The last inhabitant of 6029? From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea. First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean; We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun; We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. They give me 350 words to make a lasting impression. I only need two: thank you. Although there were the notes I forgot to write, the envelopes I forgot to seal, and the stamps I forgot to lick, I still remember it all. I'm so lucky to have you all in my life. Bridgepot- you've always stood right beside me; your spirit reaches out and takes hold of whatever you do, be it the small kindnesses or the lifelong friendships. BHH- bottom line, the best hugger I know. BAH – thanks for mixing it up and putting up with me. Dad and Mama – everyone who has ever met you has told me how lucky I am. Thank you for a love so encompassing, and a love which makes me most independent. Katie and Cici- although we have all set out to scatter as far as possible from each other in every aspect of life, we always return to laugh at the same kitchen table. I am equally gracious for your wisdom… and that we will never share a bathroom again. To the teachers who are too many in number and too rarely recognized, thank you for nurturing my curiosity and driving me to explore rocks unturned, books unopened, and canvases unpainted. The Legacy Boys – rare have I found so much warmth in a room, thanks for sharing the password. 3rd Squad taught me there is a time and a place for cheerful determination and it's not at 0515. My woos – you inspire, you challenge, and you ruck. And most of all, to my biggest fan, I will try every day to love as hard as you have loved: without question, without reason, without limits.

I guess we were roommates all 4 years even though you spent plebe year in the Brigade Legal Office. It was great having you and your girlfriend as roommates over the past four years. I still have a sneaking suspicion that the real reason Amelia would call 50 times a day was to just talk to me. I mean how could you possibly be here when you just walked out the door of her room? But then again you are "Above Average." Oh, and thanks for teaching me to lock the door…even if I never listened. Here's to "hitting a bulk head outside my hatch" and the flying mice on 6-0. Well, at least keeping your self out of trouble, after all, "there's only so much I can do to keep the room clean, Sir." Sorry about the time that you fell out of bed, cracked your old head, and I heard you moan but just rolled right over. Watch out for those hanger racks (thanks for taking that one for the team) and tent pools in the fleet. OMA…I don't care if you call it flat…it's still old. Old man Pete! To keeping the fire in your heart and soul where no one could snuff it or warp into what they wanted it to be. To not allowing any wall or rule to really contain you. "Then pale and worn, he kept his deck, and peered through darkness. Ah, that night of all dark nights! And then a speck -- a light! a light! at last a light!
It grew, a starlit flag unfurled! It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.
He gained a world; he gave that world its grandest lesson: 'On! Sail on!'"

Matt Holladay, best knows at USNA and around Annapolis as Doc, is from Montgomery, AL. He was a motivated young student with dreams of being a navy pilot. Naturally, it wasn't long after he got to the academy that his motivation waned and he became just another mid trying to make it to graduation. Doc never did study much, and sleeping came much more easily anyways. He can usually be found drinking a Coke and is often said to have problems with too much blood in his coke-stream. He enjoys playing racquetball and golf, and does so whenever he can. While at the academy he studied Computer Science, and has decided that means that he can pass tests, but doesn't really know anything useful. Doc service selected navy pilot, and is looking forward to Corpus Christi for primary training. His social life has been condemned to marriage on Sep 4th to the wonderful and beautiful Kylie Rice. A more than fair trade.

Thanks to my parents and family for all their support these past couple years and especially my fiancée, Sunnie, who dealt with me on a regular basis and helped me through some of the roughest times I have seen. I couldn't have made it without you. Now with out further adieu some commentary by my roommates…First day of plebe summer, "hope this Salvia kid is cool." "Hey quit yelling we're all on the same team here aren't we?" Plebe year Orlando, our lungs may never be the same. "Salvia always thinks he's right." Tampa Bay "This tastes a little strong man." Nice car. Hey Justin wanna hang out?...no I'm going to Pennsylvania…shocking. "Umm…I think you owe me 3 cents from last year." New York Spring Break, man those paintball's hurt. ROBOT!!!! "No man I'm Italian…how do you spell spaghetti?" Pleasure Island improv, quick on the phones. Rough nights and still shooting straight. SECNAV 1st place rifle 1st place pistol

Ace Boon Coon... WE STARTED, TOGETHER…..WE'RE GOING TO FINISH, TOGETHER! By the grace of the Lord! Its always comforting to know that your roommate during the school year my also be your roommate during summer school because you'll are retaking the same class. It has been a long and rough road, but I wouldn't have wanted to travel it with anyone else. Thanks for always being there whether you wanted to or not. Love ya Bull, Sin, Andy… The theme from day one was laughs in our room. Whether you were being caught with your pants down by BBC or holding a bottle for Eric, sixth wing was interesting. Get a good alarm clock because you may have the record for missed class. Congrats Rooooomie. Andy, The BIG SIN, or perhaps the SIN before the fall. If you were to ask my parents that is. Whatever, cause we have come a long way from rubbing butts in our tiny room at NAPS and you not listening to my ramblings about Jesus. But, I won't hold it against you for kicking me out for a year…after all, you did hold my pee bottle for me…and throwing darts at each other was always good fun. Well, I've been destined since 99 to annoy you wherever you go, so I'm sure that I'll be seein ya on the boat on my way to the gulf. I'll see ya in the fleet bro, and pass that Cope man…just pass that Cope.

UGUR YETKIN

TURKEY
TURKISH NAVY - SURFACE WARFARE

When young Ugur Yetkin got off the boat from Turkey he couldn't speak a word of English, but he had aspirations of greatness in the land of opportunity. Unfortunately for him, he stood in the wrong line and wound up in Alumni Hall on I-day 2000. Since that fateful day, Ugur has been making the best of his life as USNA. He became a computer scientist (which means he passed a lot of tests, but doesn't really KNOW anything). He tried a variety of sports including tennis and racquetball, and he tried to educate the "stupid Americans" on the finer points of European handball. In his free time, Ugur enjoys dancing the tango, salsa, and giving briefs on the Middle East and Turkey (with a capital T, otherwise he'll yell at you and say "it's my country, not an animal"). Ugur has service selected "Turkish Navy" and, for the fine American education he received, he owes his government 20 years of service. He will tell you it is not enough. Ugur will return to Turkey with 4 years of free education, many great memories, and even a few new friends.

Ah, Ricky Foe, where to begin… Plebe summer began; you were the 12th monkey infecting the entire company and remained sick for nearly 12 weeks. You moved in with Noe, who you affectionately called "Lunchbox", second semester plebe year and the trouble began. Your Halloween costumes were legendary and generally in poor taste, you were hardcore enough to break your hand on some dude's face, learned that your left hand is much different that your right, and began your trips to Ithaca College Youngster year. You were conned into becoming training corporal, training sergeant, training officer, and plebe detail simply because "you looked angry", which eventually landed you in Major's office. Three times accused of cutest physics major in a bathing suit. In fact, I think you were offered a job modeling the new Quantum physics book in exotic locales while wearing little to nothing as your TAD. The mass of a photon shall be, now and forever more, known to be exactly 1.00000 Rickys. The best times were on our coke runs and in the room, our only safe haven within the Naval Academy's walls, where there were wrestling matches, soccer brawls, continual rants, and movie sessions to take our mind off the question which we asked each other daily…. Why didn't we just go ROTC?

The only people who see less sunlight are albino coal miners working from sunrise to sunset. The times have been good; the road trips to the Cuse and Army Navy games, the sporatic stints of running before PRT's, greasy Dahlgren pizza's and movies. Your past roommates have been numerous; to include those who think lacrosse gloves in the shower are good things, and the ones who believe that a computer screen emits enough ambient radiation to tan an Eskimo colony for a decade. You're such a ray of sunshine. Psyche! But you're an enlightened soul and a dream to dance with. -mb; Ta hen piaoliang. Wo ai ta. It was always easy to have fun with her, even though I hate fun. She always took care of me when I had too much to eat, which was everytime we went anywhere. I have never known a soul so full of love and ferocity… Even though I hate giraffes and puppy dogs and zoos, I love you. Li Jing Ting shi zuihao de nanhaizi! -Bai Min; You're crazy and I'm crazy and that works well for us I suppose. I've been a shit-head a lot (tape in the hair, etc. etc. etc.) and I probably don't deserve a friend like you. But! I am your favorite, as you once said (and I have that in writing, so there's denying it, hahaha). You know me well, probably too well, and yet you seem to still want to be around me, oddly enough. Anyways. Like Winnie the Pooh said, "we'll be friends until forever, you just wait and see." My femur is all yours when I'm gone-until then, I remain, very truly yours, --Tresr; He's right, you are just bloody nuts. 'we were just looking for a cruise box that someone left up here…' two trips to Colorado to see your adopted family, talks over coffee on the water front, and more beatings than most people could ever want in a lifetime. 'Charthouse… good food.' 'chicks dig it'. Its been a wild ride kid, don't change for anyone. love always, DAK

MARK AARON NOE

ATOKA, TN
SURFACE WARFARE

Ah Mark, I trust you with my life, just not with my money or my wife. We spent the better part of four years together, and we saw some good times mixed in the standard Academy drudgery. Youngster year was spent in physics class quoting old movies and ruining monitors in the lab with a magnet. Most of 2/C summer/year was spent BD in SHP as you came to terms with your new antisocial lifestyle. Firstie year was spent both in the Hunt's basement and walking through the perpetually terrible weather to your car at Hospital Point. When the final tally is taken it will show that we will have survived three soul crushingly bad movies, two apocalypses, two terrible sorority parties, one ghetto Virginia Beach HoJo, one particular commandant, one dead body, dozens of NCAA 2004 seasons, and countless eXtreme challenges.

All in all it was a pretty good run.

Beer… The man with the ideas. Whether it was ways to optimize the Corridor92 calculator game, network some YP's or build an electromagnetic railgun Beer is the man to talk to. The man with a keg of creative juices that are always on tap, a one minute conversation with him will most certainly yield results. Blowing things away with 9mm's and M-16s over the summer weren't nearly enough fun without playing Red Alert 2 until the wee hours of the morning during Weapons Detail, and listening to Slim Shady at the start of every day on our way to 'work'. Or driving 'a little over the limit' back to our respective homes with a little radar detector named Synthia in his souped-up set of wheels. The fun really started when The Cox roomed with Beer during the senior year and Beer purchased an X-Box and all GPA's automatically lowered. I never knew hockey could be so much fun… I also have never seen players get lit on fire after scoring a one-timer before… (NHL Hitz) "Clarity comes in the morning." Beer to The Cox, after failing to beat the last level of Halo on Legendary at 0300. (We beat it the next day after three attempts.) Finally, service selection. The nuke community got lucky this time, I expect Beer will have completed his designs on a fusion reactor in a few years. Just remember to bring your mini-voice recorder so you don't forget your ideas. -The Cox

Yhatzee! "This one time, at NAPS…" Mr. Honey Bear and Sea Trails Honey Bear. This is Midshipman Platoon Sergeant (Bus Commander, Protocol Officer, Platoon Commander, Squad Leader, Strongest mid Coach) Cortes. Let's sit together in Calculus so we can hold hands. But you got to love the Indian music, staying up all night playing video games and sleeping from 4 till 10 then starting all over again. The married women at the Wobley Barn were all about dancing. Thanks for introducing us to all the awesome movies. "Drew, what should I do?" So I figure if I sleep now and then study all night long I'll be good. This is the day from hell. Just two seconds. Just a ten minute nap. Quit spooning me. Thanks for single handedly improving the quality of our lives for the last four years. …Good luck in life, just don't let anyone "get you". –DH, JR, MB

What better way to remember than to get perspectives from polar opposites…I once told you this place made lifelong friends. You looked at me like I was crazy, and said you'd be glad to forget everyone here. While you are right about, well, almost everything, you're wrong about that. Whether you want me or not--you have me as a friend for life, so ha. I finally win. If you ever need a smile, call me up; I'm good for entertainment, at least. Here goes: blue ducks; Minky; the scary monkey; "But it's my favorite blanket." "I know."; Houston; Preakness; "But, I love this song!" "I know."; your damn blank message. If you ever get tired of 1,000 acres in the middle of nowhere, come find me by the beach. Thanks for knowing how to deal with a nut.---Sammy Dockers, if we never roomed together, we'd have been happier people. Ok, maybe not. We did find plenty of "intelligent" ways to pass the time (Water balloons at the lake?). Every Southern stereotype I had, you proved right (c'mon, loan = truck and guns). Mutual misery made us friends, but it's been worth it. A few memories: grilling; PBR; shooting; the third roommate; is it hot in here?; "This is Plt Sgt C, may I speak to the nearest plebe?" 0400-where is Sam and why is the shower running? I turned more Southern than you turned Yankee, and if I fail out of nuke school, I will hunt you down.-AOF & SP

From a young age you've had but one goal in life: to grow up and be a devildog just like your daddy. There were bumps and pitfalls along the way, but good friends make good Marines. You'll always have the support you need- right down the hall or just a phone call away. Movie nights, Stevinator, squadmates/roommates from the start, the crazy addition of Mary and Spring-until the crucifixion, conlocker convenience store, Beach Babes in FL, best navy running buddies, racing down the stairs, house runs and our hero Melissy. Anne, pseudo roommates, horror stories with burning skulls, waiting on leatherface, not understanding the complexities of the situation. I know that voice, solitaire races, it's just Elmo, sweeping roaches under doors. I love me some youngsters, I got two stripes, telling Drew EVERYTHING, "Ma'am, is it going to be a good day?" Frederick seems like a nice central location. In company, walks, drunk dialing, Creed concert, stone mountain, 4:30 in the morning, ice age, three words: four languages, midrates, dreams, Bahamas, "rockin the car and singing along," stuck in GA, American Idol, chateau, diamond stud earrings or a pony, finally letting you drive my car, didn't mind the traffic, the shirt, Mayer, Motis, Mercury, Max, a great year and 2 mos., a shaky 6 mos. can't change what happened before it. I'll never be the same. There is no way to cover everything. You've touched me in a way you may never fully understand. "I loved you, grey sweatpants, no makeup, so perfect. Our love was comfortable and so broken in." You can't hide beautiful. –MJM, ASH, KE, CM, QR

Maybe if you would just stop stalking girls for once. The 24-hour advice hotline. After one weekend: "Yes I have a girlfriend…Yes I'm in love…" Rum and Cokes, head in a trash can. Spending 4 years trying to figure out that crazy Columbian. A hopeless romantic, just too bored to care. The nexus of all female knowledge. "Special" stories. Long island iced teas, "I love me some youngsters", what street was that?, talks in the doorways, detail, psyco dude, two stripes, Frederick, jeep Cherokees, my confidante, the one guy who just gets it. From the first day you walked briskly onto the decks of 8-3, NordicTrack, we knew you were destined for greatness. Plebe summer we could always count on you to keep your bearing, well except for all the goofy times like when we had to straighten Mary's hair, bury the dead mouse, name our rifles (after dead pets?), and just classic room mate moments. Plebe year was filled with sunbathing in the gutter, making dance videos when we should have been studying, you keeping us fed with microwaved ziti, trying on clothes and taking pictures. Youngster year we had facials with Anne, three extra room mates (who had their own message box), your daily letters and flowers, hidden Easter eggs in the room, your first ring dance (ahem... Charlie) and countless other memories. Then you left us for second company, but you were always a Hott Sixxer at heart. Days filled with soccer, Charlie, and your crazy all nighters (have you slept at all in four years?). Finally our Firstie year and luckily you came back home to 5-0. Brigade Commander, we always knew it was coming, and our same crazy antics. Now onto the Marine Corps for you, where we know as always you are going to exceed everyone's expectations. But we will always miss your made up songs. Love you, Quinn! –JH and all the other roomies

Well, it's hard to believe we're about to finally escape this place. From our Copenhagen days to now, we've gone through a lot. I'll never forget our exploits with LCDR Steve, the late night grills, you out of place in TN, water balloons, houseboats and beer, waxing philosophical, Gary the Great, Army-Navy 2002, MIDN PLT SGT Cortés, Route 2, roadside stops, 26.2 miles (what were we thinking?), the bitterness and loathing, being ready to get out of here...

Here's to the next step and more assured fun times at NPS. Watch out Charleston; here comes some Group 3 idiots. If things get rough, just remember these two things: 1.) WESTPORT, CT
SURFACE WARFARE

After 4 years we are back to where we started; L,L,L&K. It began with "I'm trying to go to bed" and has finished with your 21st, ring dance, & service selection. See you in Hawaii -LCM Summer cruise, ours rocked. Went to the most beautiful places in the country with awesome girls (us!), the Daewoo, best country music ever, had fun riding the bus in the heat with weirdos. S&TC parties in our BOQ with chips and dip. Hip hop and step like champs, and best of all stayed friends. Counseling sessions over silly boys? Thank you for your friendship, I will cherish it... especially when I come visit you in Pearl you lucky girl!-DR Track, roomies, friends, captains, and more track (whose turn to go to the adjudication this time?) Charlie's Angels, jet skis and golf carts in NC and who can forget the advice from CC "drink alcohol it will kill the bacteria in your foot" Glad we were able to survive this place together. KJ LB you are an inspiration to me. I'm so thankful to have grown close with you during our short year together. Thanks for taking me under your wing and treating me like a sister. KA Mom and Courtney without you I wouldn't have made it. I love you and THANK YOU!

It has been an interesting four years. Late nights, elaborate pranks, wrestling, parties, weekend trips, the people, the teasing, the friends. Best Wishes to all. God Bless. "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and the power of His might. Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood opponents but against the rulers, the authorities, the cosmic powers of this dark world, and the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms." (Ephesians 6:10-12) "Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord you God will be with you wherever you go." ### SEAN MATTHEW DINCES

CORONA, CA
SURFACE WARFARE

Sean, aka "The Dince" came to USNA as an impressionable young man, subscribing to the picture of the Academy painted in the many brochures that adorned his house. These impressions were quickly dashed as we came to live in the lovely 6th wing, Bancroft's last real treasure. Here, Sean began to hone the sword of cynicism he would expertly wield for the next 4 years, making him a perpetual source of comic relief to the humdrum existence of those creatures known as Midshipmen. Always ready to surf the waves, or critique the technical fallacies in Blue Crush. After four years at this institution, he can boast his biggest accomplishment was teaching the residents of 7th company his middle name is not "meat."

Like everyone else, I can't believe it's over. I sure am glad it is though. The days seemed to take forever, but they added up quickly. Like all else at USNA, it just doesn't make sense. Tom Petty said it best, "It's time to move on, time to get going/ What lies ahead, I have no way of knowing/ But under my feet, baby, grass is growing/ It's time to move on, it's time to get going." Luckily we have guys like him to say things better than we can. The only things I'll miss are the dear friends and many random nights in DTA. From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea. First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean; We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze From dawn to setting sun; We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's scenes, they will find the streets are guarded

SALE TRICE LILLY IV

CARROLLTON, TX
SPECIAL OPERATIONS

Sale is an odd but in a loveable way. Though an overachieving work-a-holic in the purest sense, he is a remarkable fellow who exerts great effort and dedication. Sadly, this lifestyle has prevented Sale from discovering all of the joys DTA had to offer. He possesses a tremendous knowledge of politics and economics, but only a select crowd appreciates that conversation in a bar. He is a great athlete, fine wrestler, and more recently a half-decent swimmer. Few people know the real Sale, since he rarely goes out. Those of us who have actually gotten to know the lad, kind of like him. A good friend and drinking buddy, even if it is only in small quantities. Now young Sale will travel to England where he will learn all that one could ever want to know about the economy and liaise with the local population. When he returns to the United States and the Navy he will be choosing the difference between the red and green wire with the EOD. Remember, once he turns 35, to Vote Sale Lilly for U. S. President, "My Vote's for Sale!"

MICHAEL THOMAS LINDSEY

KATY, TX
SUBMARINES

So the heavens smiled, and there was Mike—who was also smiling. And that smile made its presence known all over the Annapolis stomping grounds and then some: shooting darts at Donlon's (and sometimes hitting the board), rocking out at the piano bars (Mike, six lovely ladies and a bucket of vodka), or over the bow of a sinking canoe on an icy lake. He served with distinction on every plane of battle: the unofficial graduate of the winter mini-BUD/S screener, engaging in mortal combat at midnight by the Lejeune Hall fountain (Mr. Lindsey, it's noon and you reek of alcohol—do we remember how we hurt our ankle?), and whooping up on some woop-arm in the 7th Company wardroom. Mike do detail? That's unpossible. And then there was the Yeti. However beyond the smile and the many outrageous, frequently drunken escapades that most will never see beyond, Mike, the late night roamer (All those who wander are not lost), will always be one of the greatest, most loyal friends. Honestly, out of over 4000 mids, I'm definitely the hottest. First off, let me list my intense physical attributes. I'm short, balding, and extremely pale. The top of my head curves into a dome-like aperture, and radiates sunlight very effectively. LOVER OF RAP MUSIC. These attributes are all sought-after, however, my greatest physical trait is the two extremely gigantic eyebrows. You may be wondering, "why are they so big." Well I'll tell you…I never get dirt or sand in my eyes. My brows are virtually indestructible and they are capable of repelling the majority of small to medium sized particles. NOONAN. They also create a unique shadowing affect, since it's the only place above the neck capable of hair-growth. They also have the capability of joining together, thereby doubling their strength. Girls love them… Guys want them…but only I got em!!!! I'm thankful that I attended the academy. MONTANA MAN. While here I was able to hone my singing, dancing, and acting skills which I'm sure will carry me far. BLACK DENIM JEANS. TIGHT! I know that a lot of people are jealous of my physical appearance, but that's not my fault. I've been given these gifts and I intend to use them.

(H)ack: the grand old man of 7th Company. It couldn't be cooler to be anybody else: sometimes a cowboy, sometimes a pirate, sometimes a "skateboard punk rocker" (imagine that), but always a good friend. Well, (H)ack was never partial to "the man," and they had their occasional bout—some much bigger than others. I guess we both owe RADM Sammy J. one? Strange things are afoot at the Circle K. There's been way too many near-death experiences: Jeff Apple at Nations, subsequent visits to the sketchy place, the debacle in Rochester, the spin-out in the ford escort, and parking the Trail Blazer illegally on Hospital Point. There are things you give up for love, there are things you give up for taps, but make no exception around South Park time. Well it was a long and arduous trek for the gunslinger—who was always far more aerodynamic on a snowboard than in a statics class. You're a man obsessed with all things piratical and anti-establishment, we need more like you because you're not brainwashed. S.T., M.L., D.L.

JONATHAN DANIEL SMITH

CHICAGO, IL
NAVY PILOT

What can we say about Jonathan? Not too much considering every time we looked for him he seemed to be on movement order. Seriously though, Jon always proved game for a good argument—he was truly a master debater...one of those people that could sell an ice machine to Eskimos. Out on the town, he was never without his most dependent debate partner, who goes by the name of Captain Morgan. We came to love that mess of clothes and rumpled paper around your desk, and watch in awe at your ability to crank out a ten-pager in the last minute (literally). While your future is that of a pilot, all of your real friends know that you are a SWO at heart.

The colossus power of Justin's friendship, laughter and commitment – "Justin ... you're so strong." Someone who touches everyone around him, whether that touch consists of a hard drop to the ground or the creation of a memory that will live with you forever. From Severn waters to the streets of DTA. Memories of long islands, innuendos even Freud didn't think of, mustard bottles, speed skating, loudest trigger-pull, long van rides, Gonads, Tripod, karaoke, Livin' on a Prayer, Hawaii and all its escapades, Asian red and definitely a "20" – "that Justin is so hot right now," Van, quite possibly the greatest girlfriend ever! The Wolf, the Strongest Man in College Sailing, red meat, unstoppable, "you need to catch up" drinking, eating, partying machine… a friend that will never be forgotten. GONADS! - BWA

Never did homework when you were suppose to, never slept when you were suppose to, and woke up to a fire alarm. Fox in Sox. D.C., the side of your car. One Tequila, Two Tequila, Floor…literally. DOWN PERISCOPE! From I-day to the USS Antietam, it has been and will be an amazing ride. Loving a roommate sometimes means holding them down, beating them, and telling them you love them at the same time. Justin! Get up Justin! Van is lucky to have you, and I am lucky to be called your friend - CLP, RAG, JNC

Thank you Mom and Dad for everything, I love you both!!! Adam and Van you are the best, love you guys – JBS/JTS

Robert Daniel Sparks

Hi Bob. Bob was truly the jack of all trades, coming to USNA as a football player, but finishing his career as a pole-vaulter. A social butterfly of a man, with the phone constantly ringing off of the hook, one never needed to worry about answering the phone in the room, it was always one of the masses looking for Bob. One of the most dependable people in the company, and one never had to search far for him, if he was not at his desk, he was right above it. And while Bob's shoes are always immaculate, kiwi was not the only type of wax to grace the presence of our sink. From hanging out on the weekdays to jokin' after school, Bob always made the day more exciting. And let's not forget that Bob would say what everyone else was thinking, regardless of the setting, like "I think your tattoo's on crooked."

"I...I just don't understand." The quintessential X-Box addict. Dave entered USNA with the highest ideals and impressions, many of which were destroyed over the following 4 years by Sean and the other miscreant cynics that lurk the halls. At USNA Dave has experienced a variety of 4 letter words not previously in his vocabulary and overcame the anxieties of online dating. We eagerly await for some young southern belle to pull him away from his game console, but until then we will watch Dave climb the heights of NCAA football fame. Dave was always a good friend, and an easy person to talk to, especially after he got subs and tried to talk to everyone, including his pen. "I got Stros." Always a man of hygiene, the only object to take more baths than him, was his car. Which brings us to the real love of his life, a man by the name of Bond, James Bond.

Seth Eric Tufvesson

Santa Barbara, CA
USMC Ground

Deep within Seth, a terrible battle wages on: schizophrenia. The evil demon spirit of Chesty Puller and a beatnik poet duel for possession of Seth's soul. Those of us who have met Seth know him as the highest and tightest, who occasionally slumps into a medium reg. We might mention his drunken pleas for air support against his roommates on a wire hanger, ricocheting the Cav off a few speeding cars while catching a few zzzs, or maybe something about an admiral's daughter, but no one works harder or does their job better. We might complain about his power naps at all times of the day, whether for two minutes or two hours. Always writing some book that he subsequently manages to delete, rocking out on his laptop, or to Chris' amazement waking up by the numbers. Who else would try to kill a roommate they love with an iron? Those of us who know Seth, can tell you how he always buys the first round, as long as it's Jack on the rocks, or how he brings you that unexpected bag of snacks when you're stuck in the hall over leave on restriction. We wouldn't trade him for all the Scandinavians of the icy northlands. We ruv you Seff. Remember what you're doing out there. We may have stopped you that night, but you've always been on the long walk to Quantico. M.L., J.S., D.L.

Languth's favorite writing buddy. Chris never took any shortcuts: he hacked through Mech. E., and he never ran through the "lava" on the Yard. Pull-ups in the Bahamas, didn't anyone ever tell you that's not cool? Where is Chris? Oh, he is at Kathryn's place. JOPA. She must be the happiest ugly girl I have ever seen! Did the crawl with us a couple times, though you stuck to your flyboy bars. Keep taking videos, and one day you may be famous, or someone's worst enemy ;) – JED Buys a stock and it doubles in a week! Bazooka: I love Ballet. BAAAJUK. Marching Tours together. Going to see Capt Parker together. Rooming together for two years. We were hard on roommates man. Did we have four that quit? "pimpsuit bajuk", "bazooka bajuka" Ballerina girlfriends are hot. Grenade! This means Marshmallow War! You are off the hook, too hot! Yeah, just gonna go for a quick workout: an outer and a couple hours in the weight room. "If I only had a brain." "Bajuk, talk to the wall!!" Gotta love Triviso and good ole Squad One!!

The writers of this profile have never met a girl not in love with Joey.....ever, though many have not realized it in time . To think that the culmination of his Academy experience would end with actual enthusiasm for a Surface Ship. When not placing hits on people's families in order to get them back for looking at him the wrong way or borrowing his sprinkler he enjoys arguing, talking, and arguing. The areas biggest proponent of Hatteras and all things kiting lead Navy Water Polo in goals, split-open lips, optical anesthesia injections and trash talking. The years have yielded marriage accusations, "heart to hearts", laughter, tears, and classic arguments about anything and everything. The 6'4" man of thunder truly stands head and shoulders above his peers. He began his odyssey through the hollowed halls of Bancroft a timid young buck with dreams of swimming for the US Olympic team. He departs, four years later, with little else on his mind other than "dancing" with girls and avoiding running the USS Boxer aground. How will I remember Terrence you ask… ..the severe case of ADHD, the "Big Bird", his affinity for blowing it with potential suitors, the lonely whiskers that grow on his chin, his disdain for the unknown, his fancy for the simple pleasures of the Jersey shore? No, I will remember Terrence as the kind of man who loves his family and his friends more than himself. From his two goofball uncles to Chris "Bilbo Baggins" Speicher, Terrence displays the kind of steadfast loyalty that is hard to find in this day and age. After four years of inseperability I question what you will do without my keen fashion sense or my ability to turn the President of SADD into a beer pong champion. The truth of the matter is that you will succeed in whatever endeavors you undertake in life. Your zest for living will guide you to a happy home with a beautiful wife and loving children. I will miss you old friend, and always remember there is a guy 300 feet beneath the Pacific who loves you like a brother.RAO

Definitely one of "Milwaukee's Best", Jeff will remain ever faithful to the Badgers, Brewers, Bucks, and Packers. In a room full of pessimists, he succeeded in upholding his unconditional love for the Academy and all things aviation. Charming, jovial, and a little bit wild, Jeff has been widely accepted as one of the friendliest and most fun loving guys in the class. Ever the ladies man and always with a beautiful girl, Jeff somehow even managed to find a couple cute dates inside the confines of the military service. When his homework or teaching blind kids to read didn't get in the way, Jeff never passed up the opportunity for a good time. He will be remembered for those walks from Gate 8, phone calls to Main-O, antics at Georgetown, wake boarding Plebe Year and those famous plaid pants. ### James Joseph Morris Jr.

Kingwood, TX
Navy Pilot

The wildest cowboy ever produced by the Chicago School system. Getting back to his Texan roots, Jimmy, his cowboy hat and pressed wranglers became inseparable. Unforgettable, whether because of his hulk-like strength proven as an All-American power lifter Plebe year or his impulsively outlandish sense of humor demonstrated by dancing in nothing but tennis shoes and a (stuffed) speedo with some lucky King Hall workers. He is a fine gentleman with a penchant for Ten High Whiskey and nothing but the finest country western albums. A little too good with the ladies, Jimmy can never seem to shake them once he's got them. Whether he is marching his company out on Worden Field or running naked around the room, Jimmy continually proves he is one in a million. We'll never forget the hours of ridiculous conversation, craziest sleeping habits, rooming with Oldenburg, the rockstar wig, that old jeep, Omohami, or Plebe summer (the first time or last time). The Naval Aviation community has no ideawhat is about to hit them. Best of luck Jimmy Joe!

A guy couldn't ask for a better friend. Thanks for helping me through probability. See you in Pensacola. "Mr. Nasseeef!" The greatest person who ever lived. Dirty Dirty man WOW Doug has two aspects which identify him from afar: his "bebop" and his large welcoming grin. I love dolphins, no, really, I do Most Unintentional Funny person known to man First words to your mom on our first plebe summer call home: "Guess what Mom?? I have green stuff coming out of my nose!!" None of us will EVER forget you!

Tyler James Ogden

Concord, MA
Navy Pilot

Alf! Crazy Ogden. Most cheerful happy go lucky guy and the ultimate goalie. Sorry we drank all your dad's beer. Vegas, baby! JOPA. Whaddya mean you're not 21 yet?? A master of the Las Vegas bouncer evasion technique. A true sex catalyst. Good thing you came in, I wasn't getting off his throat anytime soon. Whoever heard of a hotel with no stairs?? Hey, is that guy dead? No, he's just asleep. What's that chair there for?? Tyler will forever be the pirate of the Caribbean; his adventures with his friends in the Bahamas included many things, most notably his brush with the "Sea shells, sea shells- I've got ganja- sea shells" dealer on the beach. Possibly the nicest man on Earth. Two words: stupid tile. It should be standard issue around here.

Ryan Ashford Osgood

Leawood, KS
Submarines

The Oz. The (soon to be) wealthiest, most powerful metrosexual ever produced by the City of Fountains. Famous for his long dry spells, but more than that, breaking them in an astonishingly tremendous manner. His keen fashion sense and six-pack abs have only complimented his fine tennis skills in making him the envy of many men and the object of many females desire. Although almost notorious for his gruff mannerisms and straight-forward, "in your face" attitude, he has never stopped making his friends laugh at any poor chump that try cross him. Always the voice of reason in a room of pseudo-eccentrics, Ryan has a knack for remaining cool and collected no matter what the occasion. Even when washing cammies in the shower, or working on his computer late in the evenings as his roommates sleep, Ryan remains the epitome of what a true Men's Health, Maxim, and Stuff subscriber should be. From captain of the tennis team driving an Audi to captain of industry driving a fleet of Audis, we know we can always trust the Oz with our friendship and favor, or at least our money, because we know we won't be trusting him with our cousins.

Old Man Rittermann. Looks like he's here on an age waiver. Funniest upset person known to man. You made gripes an art form. Remind me never to argue with you. Mr. melodrama, Maryland Yankee, the best roommate a guy could ever hope to have. My type of humour. Hey, Steve! Just wirebrushin' ya. Hey, are you all done with the cheeseballs? Steve you should come visit in Vegas; what you can't cuz you are playing Star Wars? Fun trip to Concord even if all you wanted to do was see the historic sites. There is no Blair Witch in these woods I promise. Perhaps one day we will return to OC and retrieve our buried treasure of beer. Remember running? It's all in the shoes. I really do apologize for yelling at you for keeping me running in formation. I will NEVER sit outside at Rams' Head again. Ever. How do we get to West Street again? Drill = tutoring = stopping for food on the way back! I'll never forget what happens when you mix an acid with a base, bottoms up!

"The Ho"-All Holly, all the time. . . Always had the upperclass mentality, even as a plebe. Remember the ass brownies and the 'Captain' w/the youngsters. But the drink of choice for this TN girl could only be Jack, and boy could she drink it. She led by example as WUcom, teaching us that food at a navy softball game is just as important as the ball and that a meal was never complete w/o a pint of Ben & Jerry's. ## JAMES SCOTT VANNEST

FAIR OAKS RANCH, TX
SURFACE WARFARE

If you were stuck behind enemy lines with a can of sardines and a plastic spork, I still believe you'd make it it back, leaving a trail of destruction in your wake. - "No Scott, he wasn't trying to start a fight with you..just keep walking" - Soccer, graduation parties, rams head. - James, I mean Scott, who are you anyway? The most feared fieldball player of our time, not for his skill but for his fights. Don't think you can hide his liquor, he'll find it if it takes all night. - In his time at the academy, Badness has been the most competitive, the most hilarious, the most energetic, the most distinctly Texan, and the best friend I've had. - everything is bigger in Texas, the best roommate a guy could ever hope to have - Maybe he'll figure out his service assignment when he makes O-4 - My shoulder! At least we both got A's, and one of us learned the warrior ethos. I still say the North is better, and I always will, no matter how big your belt buckle is.

RAYMOND MARK WERNIG JR.

AKRON, OH
SURFACE WARFARE

Mark, "don't even think about looking at my sister," Wernig is definitely a "yes" man in any situation. A true product of the Jesuit school system Mark religiously sticks to Catholic girls, successfully completing the once inconceivable trifecta of Holy Cross, Boston College, and St. Mary's. What happened in four years to turn one of the Corps' most promising prospects into a die hard SWO? Could it be his affection for those girls in SDBs? Or might it be the intoxicating draw of Tijuana and the beautiful blondes of southern California? In our opinion it must be the circulating rumors of young officers' standard 12 o'clock tee time at the countless courses of sunny San Diego. Not technically a Navy legacy, no one has more regard for the traditions and history of the Academy than Mark, especially the brutality and humiliation doled out by 2/C detailers. (We had some great times there didn't we?) Always quick with a smile or a great story (only made greater by his wild imagination and penchant for all things grand), Mark is truly a class act. One of Ohio's finest; Mark will make us all proud and hopefully make us all millions at the same time. Best of luck on the high seas!

the dance with Ms. Frantz, the shocking experience in Montreal. We know how you love your blackberry merlot and those $90 blind dates. What can Brown do for you? How about a deal on the cell phone without voice mail, or a great deal on a broken printer, or even a bargain on a laptop with no software? Although the steal you got on the purple hypercolor truck from eBay tops 'em all. Drew, we had some good times running marathons even with half-dollar blisters. We're still waiting on that fart. Now Drew, don't forget to check your stocks. You had plenty of time during your 45 days on the line…15 thanks to Jason, "Its our time." Good thing Ward Hall didn't catch that scandalous correspondence with 459C. How many Red Bulls is that? We're glad we were able to take advantage of that D-qual and your ability to carry a tune on the harmonica. We learned how to speak Arkansanian. Ali Babba, even though I didn't like you at first, I couldn't have asked for a better friend to keep me straight for four years. Our addiction to Starbucks led us to drinking frappuccinos in sub-zero temperatures wearing garbage bags in Times Square, you drained threes against Army, were a lime-green blob on the slopes at Jackson Hole, and exhibited bravery in the face of a mysterious thrashing creature in the lagoon of a Florida Key. You're perhaps the most rational and grounded person I know, unless it comes to a pair of XL shorts and playing a random Sanchez defense (the two fingers come out). After '04 years, you've not only left me with serious addictions to Diet Coke and the Chariot, but you've been the best friend I could ever ask for.

I will always appreciate the encouragement, support, and love from both my childhood friends back in TEXAS and my life long friends here at the Academy. I could not be in this position if it wasn't for you all. Mom, Dad, and Amber, thank you for your unconditional love and support throughout these challenging years. To my friends back home, I thank you all for the phone calls, IM's, and the SPRING BREAK trips. To Kris and Anthony, we will always have skiing in New Mexico. Thank you all who took the time to study with me and kept me fighting as Systems had me in that head lock. To Micah and Mac, sorry for keeping my desk lamp on late for those three years, I know you both hated my long nights. To Trevor, Raj, and Adam "Danger" Powers, you guys will always be brothers to me, but why the Marine Corps? No, just kidding, I couldn't be prouder of you guys. Semper Fidelis!!!. SUBS to FO ..A red headed sub guy, a prior marine, and a high school girl at NAPS. The combination was perfect and the three amigos we became. After a wedding, philly cheese steaks, can I borrow your car? and a last ride to the coast and that pirate place, we graduated. Then it became who's turn it was to visit, another interesting wedding, the two gimps, engagements, and a better graduation. Five years of memories, fun, and laughter, I thank you—Shaina A prior submariner (no such thing, they are all darn good mariners), now coming to fly with those of us that are smart. Known this kid for 4 years now, and Grandpa lives up to his moniker. Whether it's the frequency of volume of his voice, or his mannerisms, he fits his nickname well. But even with all of the joking and kidding aside, which is all in good fun anyways, he is an amazing individual and an awesome friend. Couldn't ask for too much more, other than for him to quit yelling at me… -D Adam always was the ladies man, he pulled girls like africana, emaculata, midn-x, midn-y, coke fiend, and midn-homewrecker (actual names have been altered to protect the innocent) not to mention his harem back home. He did so well that occasionally he'd have some extra girls for those of us who weren't as skilled in the hunt…. occasionally I wouldn't blow it. I couldn't conclude Adams Bio without mentioning his coital mishaps (see dictionary), like the hitting, the vomiting, the man-show game, and that very disturbing night of "never have I ever". "there's a loser born everyday," "Why didn't you just get a butt tattooed on your arm?" "Mexico-up, Mexico-down," "Why's that cat throwing chips at me?!" and the ever popular explicative filled downtown-death threat, Seamus quickly emerged as the symbol of putting a good time over common sense. A product of the 80's he never forgot his roots. hair band rock through the early morning, "classic" Van Damme movies,Youngster year we saw him down a whole container of maple syrup in minutes and then saw the agony of sugar overkill for 24 hours. He had a typical Half Nelson the next day. As much a poet as a warrior. Big Tony, when asked what he wanted to order at the local waffle house responded, "Where are we? Waffle House? You inspired us all as AdjuTANT while making sure we all remembered that the plebes are now and always have been weak. From your quick raids on Rackistan to a semester at the Coast Guard Academy he's been a part of both the A and the B team. "The Coast Guard is a lot like the Navy, but we kill people." Yes, it is possible to haze over IM.. Watch out for that spicy brown mustard Case, it stings. "Noted…Disregarded." You hear them banjos? Hey, who's that new midshipman in the march on formation? Oh wait, that's not a mid, that's Casey's girlfriend. Go fry yourself. I'm sure if there's one thing Casey would want us to remember, it's this: "We killed more of y'all than y'all killed of us." Kip has to be about the only guy here who can play Max Payne, watch movies, solve rubix cubes, AND get a 4.0…all at the same time. A veteran of marching tours on the Terrazzo in CO, a master of the kazoo, and 10th company's first and only Admin World Champion, famous for admitting what all midshipmen truly feel : "I'm looking for the highest stripes-to-work ratio." "Don't you want some responsibility as a Firstie?" Jimmy:(Pauses…thinks…ponders…smiles…replies) "No. Not really." Of course, that stunt did reward him with quite the opposite position, but that did not dishearten him from trying for the high bar of platoon commander in the spring, with the campaign line "I'm not looking for responsibility here, as much as I just want to carry a sword." Denied of his dreams once more, but still in good spirits, Kip will join the SWO community in May with his heart set on two things: going diving, and tracking down fellow SWO Everson, for whom he is yet to profess his eternal love. It's been Fonz from day one here(sorry Mom guess they didn't like my first name). I distinctly remember saying to my plebe summer roommates that if I ever had to sit at regimental tables, stand restriction, see the Dep-Dant or the Dant I was going to quit… Well after doing all four and celebrating my 21st at a surprise restriction muster, it looks like I'm still here… go figures (N* for life).Viva Italia…Fonz, aren't you going to take your sweater off before you get in the shower? What's your sister's name again? Guess who called me? Fiery Italian. Twins (Arnold and Devito that is). How many tacos in how many Tuesdays? What day does the O'Club open? At least I know now what being married for 30 years will be like. Fonz, she's cheating on you. CB/PW (a.k.a. Cuddler) lets go to the Pub and have a word with Uncle Daniels. "Phila who… Phila what?" Converted Redneck. Wanted in the Republic of Texas. You're just a huge walking talking ball of hormones, always willing to give a second, third and fourth look at any girl. Pivot and step, pivot and step… Grandma is already in the rack… the South will rise again! Give it up for the white boy shuffle, countless naps after school, media chits while on 4/c privileges, and the smelliest two feet the good Lord ever bestowed upon the earth. Were you dressed by Ray Charles? Bob the man with no internal monologue. Cruisin' in the mid-stang, the water balloon enforced no-fly zone, playing video games with the Mexican mafia, clothes flying out the windows, incomprehensible southern babble, and a whole bunch of other stuff we dare not mention… The man who could but mostly didn't, may we never see Bob in a professional setting. Sumter, South Carolina: Population 17 (Cush can attest to that)… you were the ultimate culture shock to modern America. Here's a toast to indoor plumbing, non-striped shirts, female stripers, and just plain drama… on second thought there ain't a chance in hell the South will ever rise again. -Poon, Busta, Cush

Jared Allen. Promoted to the prestigious rank of Kernel sometime Youngster year, Jared's administrative skills saved us time and again, even if his people skills or utter lack thereof, achieved the opposite effect. If you ever asked him, you'd learn that California may be the best place on earth. In his mind Jared was constantly in California for four straight years, evident by his constant wearing of shorts, with long johns underneath in the winter. Oblivious to the cold, Jared was rocking out constantly. The Nav's worship band was the closest thing Jared ever had to a rock band, though he always played a wicked air guitar. Between the air guitar and pining for California, Jared also managed to occasionally keep Unit 3 on track using words like "expositional" and "inductive." The Kernel's focus helped us get to the DR twice and his rudimentary skills in español helped us survive the trip. Of course, he didn't think the trip up, that was…(See Gill)

BRANDON JACKSON COLVIN

ROCKWALL, TX
NAVY NFO

Where to begin with young Brandon? This man, a man known by many names, many faces, whether they be metallic, swollen or just plain angry. Known to the English speaking world as Duce, Colvinator, Coolvin and many others that can't be mentioned, he always has a knack for communicating in some unknown language, perhaps ones and zeros or just plain murmurs. We have watched Il Duce grow from a mere padawan, breaking holes in ceiling tiles into a full fledged Jedi and being caught playing with his light saber or randomly brandishing his mighty jedi weapon after a night of engaging the dark forces in downtown Annapolis. He is a true warrior in every sense of the word, hardened by blowing his horn on historic Worden Field to violently stabbing his saber into a struggling enemy in a fencing match. One cannot claim Brandon as a man who likes to go slow. A blink of the eye and one can miss the metallic glimmer of his smile as his X-Wing Stealth car darts by. Quick and aggressive, Brandon comes quickly when the situation is hot. Always ready to lend a helping hand, he never hesitates to drive from the backseat, even right after oral surgery. A man of communication, he always seems to be able to catch you at the right moment, whether thoroughly engaged in reading or studying, Brandon jumps at the chance to help his shipmates with a study break. Often touted as "rude", Brandon is widely misunderstood. His love for people, kittens and ewoks, glimmer in his everyday interactions with people. God bless Texas and usethebomb!

MATTHEW JOSEPH COPARE

PETTSGROVE, NJ
NUCLEAR SURFACE WARFARE

Matt "Pooh Bear" Copare, the saltiest mid 1st LT in the Navy, with the high and stupid and 8 diet cokes a day, he has defined his legacy. His car is his life. From the days of the PSU girl to watching flowers bloom and on to Dana days of now. He is the shadiest of creatures not to be disturbed from his nocturnal state. Only person to eat dessert before dinner…to watching him pound Guinness on YP's to seeing him for the first time as NAPS inductees…Wow Matt, how far you have come, from the good ol days to being one of us "7143 bums." Chronic broken pinky toe… "Hey man, guess what…" "Uh, yeah Matt I got the same email." "Your mom's lasagna made me poo in my pants," spurred the biggest fight ever! Neat freak. Went from Aero to General Eng. How do you pull these hot girls? You passed out in the bathroom stall. What ever happened to the PSU dance team hookup? "Turn off the lights!!!" Internet buying addiction…Matt's blood-diet coke content = well above the legal limit.

GEOFFREY DAVID GOLDSTEIN

CHEVY CHASE, MD
SURFACE WARFARE

Along with Ensign Nick Parker, one of the founding members of Team Tough. The only requirements: to be Jewish and ridiculously tough. Super Dud. "Goldthein, ave you been boothing"-JQ. "And I'm Dr. Lickstenstick" "This is for you Ally….ouch my leg!" "This is how a SEAL clears a mask…ouch again". 7 a.m., in bed…noon, in bed…5 p.m., in bed…10 p.m., in bed snuggling with CB or JB sleeping on your back. Daily workout: six hours of PT with old friends Mari Windsor, Jamie Brinkus, and Clay Blackburn. Where do you find the time?! The Geoff Goldstein five-step program for getting a girl: step 1, write her a poem; step 2, go to her play; step 3, get goosed by her boy friend; steps 4-5, disregard. Step 6 if necessary, heft check. No wub game. You just can't close. Dutch runway models must look better the closer they get to the equator. SPIRIT RANK FOREVER! Ruining the Academy rep one hot dog at a time. What's wrong with my feet? "Hey Geoff, your phone's ringing; I think it's the honorary grad…again." Cop rides with bags of marlinspike and sea rations. Good luck hibernating on Curts…say hey to Escobar. ET TY DA MB DK.

GABRIEL REESE GRAUKE

BRENHAM, TX
SURFACE WARFARE

Give me a HOLLER if you're from TEXAS! Why do people hate Texas…?

"Everyone…, white works Grauke…3 minutes,… go!." Are those Knox's sweatpants…? Where did Dirty go, you know, the allengator, swampthang, warthog, the "he's the meanest, he …", you know, shower-shoeless man, the circus animal, the man with the merchant mermaid. Oh, where's BT, haven't heard him lately.

Hey Hotspur, jackarse, you wanna go and crack some skulls? Sounds like a good time!…maybe there's a skull breaking video you haven't watched 57 times in the last three days – you never know. He's a solid dude. Well,… there's that.

Keep swimming up stream, I'll drift down and wait in a comfortable eddy. Always roach-it. Always scheming… Money-tight-hookup-shiznit.

DAVID ALAN HOOPENGARDNER JR.

CENTREVILLE, VA
NAVY PILOT

"Hoop…Like a Basketball." From getting busted buying Fritos during Plebe Summer to our fearless Company Commander Firstie Year, Hoop has literally done it all. The infamous 7167 Whiz Quiz. The green BUG. The youngster room carpet/refrigerator/ dartboard/Foreman. The best 12th Company Tailgaters. The Friday night Hookah Parties. And where the heck did those sandals come from??? What can we say Hoop, it's amazing you're still alive after all your visits to Hospital Point after 'falling down,' riding razor scooters down the stairways, to 'slipping on wet floors' in the P-way. It has never been boring babysitting you for Cinco De Mayo Hoop (don't ever lose your Sombrero). It's been a good run buddy. Best of wishes from Dakota Ashes.

MARK CHRISTIAN INGMAN

OLYMPIA, WA

Hey, my name is Mark, want to see my…highlight film? Tell me now if you don't. I am here to major in Chinese and play football, why are these people yelling at me? I think I'll just catch a nap in the closet, no one will come in. Free ballin' in Knox's sweats is SO money tight schiznit! "I'm the Moose." Right…so Bert it is! Ingus, Dingus, Ingus McGregor, Bert Dingle$&#*… Finally you became the Roach, surviving project Indian, Katie Keller, and rooming with the Boiler, the Rhine poodle, the Allengator, and Graukfestival. Its that time of the night again…you always escalate things. So when exactly is mouse season in ghetto 7? Well, there is that…. The only man who can argue himself in circles and end up defending the point he was attacking. Hairclub for Mids…I just got this in from Pakistan, is it safe? DETITWEB(DA) and learning to tell a Hornet from a Tomcat. These are not the droids you are looking for…what? The Roach. you accumulated nicknames like it was your job. Your real talent, though, was sleeping, because everyone knows that you need at least 8 hours a night. Remember catching a nap after plebe summer in the laundry? Or catching naps after Rugby practice. about the earplugs? I could have sworn that they used to be orange... Good luck getting a solid 8 a night as a SWO, if anyone can do it, it's you.

ANDRE MICHAEL JONCKHEERE

EUREKA, CA
USMC PILOT

It's amazing what the Academy can do to a Marine. Hardnosed grunt to high-speed pilot who would have imagined that? Yet with all his refinement, the old man of the company these past couple years shared his infinite wisdom to lacking individuals hoping to spark some discipline or bearing. Too bad he couldn't spark some order into room cleanliness while he was at it. Oh well, we all can't be Hollywood material. Maybe those dancing lessons will come into good use one day. Keep the skies clean for all us on the land or sea.

DOUGLAS ROBERT KANE JR.

WESTLAKE VILLAGE, CA
NAVY PILOT

Chester the Molester introduced us to the "k" factor by securing dome from Hemdawg. Andretti style driving back roads West Virginia, capped off by a tight backside misty 540, little rough on the landing. Yo Rob, can I get a ride. List of places Rob has marked [room, dorm rooms, covers, cars, and lets not forget Adam's house]. Hey can you come here and get Tal off my refrigerator? Ring Dance: Come get Hoop and his car out of the ditch. Great job on setting up Ring Dance, but terrible execution on closing the deal with your date(you must have learned your game from Monkey). Living with 2 Maryland Jews really pissed you off. Shalom cracker. "Hey, Geoff's a player, don't hook up with him, hook up with me, Dave" [Kane] Dad, why is mom a fat redneck woman with a mullet, and why did you let Skinny get in on that? Are we there yet? Sharky K., just like the amish…always on the straight and narrow,
It didn't take long for him to be done with Aero.
Always up late, he's the MP3 Don,
Man he's drunk he can't run that marathon.
Sleeping in late, does he know he has an exam?
Another engineer's test, bet he didn't have to cram.

The silent type, who knows what he's going to do?
West Point found out the hard way, next time the joke's on you.
Either in the boxing ring or classroom, the warrior just won't quit.

SI HYO KIM

VOORHEES, NJ
NAVY PILOT

No discussion of disappointment would be complete without mention of Dave Kim's career as a football fan. Yes, almost as pathetic as Donovan McNabb's arm is Dave's insistence that the Eagles are a legitimate force. His time at the Naval Academy has been marked by three NFC Championship losses, as well as the sight of Danny Austin's nekkid booty sweating in the hot Jamaica sun. Which is more painful? Good question. He is a great friend with a lot to offer, especially if you are into low-budget motels in Delaware and communicable pinworm parasites. Gas Attack, "I am really worried about service selection...” Always a help with HW, someday he'll get a B. Stretches a dollar further than anyone. Founder of the Kim E-Bay empire. Sold his soul for stripes. Saved his friends by fixing their window before Isabel. Member of the Dirty Jersey Clan. Bring your puppy over for dinner. Jamaica 2003: talks with rock stars and, "Eric! What are you doing?!…oh, it's just Danny." Bad dance moves and worse nipple hair. Where does all that food go? You eat more of my sponsors food than I do. Our token Asian. Kim Chi and noodles from home always hit the spot. Do you shave your legs? What did you say? You speak more ebonics than any Korean I know, but you are from NJ.

O, Lenny, Jopel, Big O. 5-year plan. Who put you in charge of something? Who the * is Victoria?! Naked time! The 6326 Prophecy doesn't go through me. De-independence day. How's the wifey? I can't go out, I'm saying for the ring. Is Kyle in the room? 7117 every morning. All NOVA room. Shut-up, I'm bigger than you. Don't you live on 3-1? It's that time again already? Econ isn't easy. But I have 5 stripes. Rah! You have to go back and pay. My friend Captain down by the bay. Ricketts parking lot. Yeah I play basketball here, technically…not really I guess. Designated walker always. Sir, its not my poster! Its theirs!

ROBERT REED PINCKNEY JR.

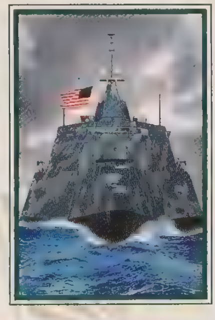
CHARLESTON, SC
SURFACE WARFARE



Robert Pinckney – four years by the bay, where has the time gone? His performance here has proven that progress does not come without struggle. Growing up in Charleston, SC, young Robert embodies Southern hospitality and has always remained friendly, proof shown as he is on a first name basis with two Superintendents. A consummate Political Scientist, Robert loves to develop "foreign relations" with young ladies on the D.C./ Maryland international scene. Over the years, Robert has tirelessly labored to educate his suburbanite shipmates in the culture of "The Dirty." A friend in the truest sense, Robert is destined for great things conning his destroyer on the bounding main. MSR, ABK, CAS, TLW

RICHARD ALEXANDER RASCO

PINECREST, FL
SPECIAL WARFARE

Ricky "the Cuban infusion" Rasco never meet a piece of sushi he didn't like. He could probably survive anywhere with a spear and a pair of goggles, unless its cold there. Likes the taste of Portugese Men. . .of war. Christmas Break 2003-2004 Miami style, shake it up and let the good times roll. Party like its 1999...She's just a friend—I swear, it wasn't a date, dressed in yellow she says hello. Game Time Meters and Punishments for 250k what else is there? Oh yea, it'll be fine, let's do it. Here's to slow fireman carries, big baracuda's, and girlfriends. A salute to Regina's, Joss's, and MOO-Time. You taught me the pullup, some day I'll teach you to run. MCM, worst idea yet. Helluva left jab, but I still got you in a cradle. The long mile in Boston, thank god for the free subway. NYC was cool, but Jacque and the sushi was amazing. Taught so much, and convinced to do way more. Here's to being cold, wet, and sandy, living like rock stars and talking to girls often. A short rower with a huge heart you could always count on him just so long as it wasn't during freshman spring break. He's one part fish, two parts Mr. Smooth, and a Jaeger all the way.

MATTHEW SCOTT ROBINS

MONTEREY, CA
NAVY NFO

Matt Robins, perhaps you know him, maybe you don't, but maybe you recognize his pimp stroll as he makes his way through the halls of Bancroft. Matt cares about us all, that's why he does not bother you when he "borrows" your things. But he never neglects himself. His video and personal purchases indicate that. Keep your eye on the ladies when visiting Scuba Scott. After his appointment he might give her a tour of the house. Yet with all his escapades, Matt has an uncanny ability to recall minute details about ships and the Navy uncommon to your average shipmate; he showed class pride all over his "General Sherman"; and was there when the situation called for a drink or just a joke. Matt, it's been fun, it's been real and at times it's been real fun. Rock out in the Fleet. RRP, ABK, CAS, DAH

In this world size does matter…but not to Cindy. Many make the mistake and let her stature fool them but if you've met her you know she has more heart and kahunes than your average midshipman.….Did you step on a mouse or did you tell Cindy a joke? It was only a matter of time before her charms would snag old TW. Like a good sister would she would always have your back, while always proving that short people have tolerances corresponding to their height. Only two drinks…you're a SWO, you gotta build that up, don't you know. Well, maybe you will be a future weather girl, but we can forecast your future success. Otherwise all your brothers will get you back in line.

CHRISTOPHER ANDREW SOUTHARD

OCEAN CITY, NJ
USMC GROUND

Yes everybody that is not a typo, it does say Marine Corps Ground under Chris' name. His time here has epitomized the phrase work smarter, not harder through his incorporation of common sense and cynicism. No one better at working at the last minute, especially when you only have one minute. Knew the plain truth of no use leaving for tomorrow what you can put off forever. When Irish eyes aren't smiling, he's usually complaining about something wrong in this world. Such as the NCAA's position on anorexia. "Hey, there's something fishy about those peer rankings?!?"(LT L) Through it all, Chris has always been a simple man -- all he needs is a light, bottle of Jameson, surfboard, and fishing pole. Someone may need to tell him there is no USMC station in Margaritaville. While spending quality time with his beloved Bern on the weekend, he found time to hang out at Davis' Pub where everybody knew his name and credit card number. HEIL KOMANDANT! ## ZACHARY JOSEPH BOGUSLAWSKI

MADISON HEIGHTS, MI
NAVY NFO

Has there ever been a MIDN more proud to be from the violent crime capital of the world? Probably not, but that's the Zack we all know and love (at least Gaby does). From being the best man to wake people up in the morning ('Good Morning Dan'), to one of the original members of the '04th Reich (Bogs, Hogs, and Ogs), to getting potatoes in the mail from Momma B. After going down with his "tragic" shoulder injury (following an 11 ground ball inning), Bogus turned to giving nicknames to all of his ex's (e.g. Dog Lady, Ice Queen, Dr. Freak-n-Speak), and as his year long squadmate might have said, "which girl is it now?" Dropping wads of cash for a hockey game was always fun (Thanks Karin), eh? Smokey and the Bandit changed to Smokey and The Duke (cho wang?), and driving to NYC for one night never was more fun, nor was giving Smokes hell about something that "never happened". "Don't mess with Poland, Travis." "YOU got 3 stripes…and get to yell at kids all summer? How'd that happen?" Nobody's ever been happier to get an S-10, then drive it like a damn big-rig. "Four years went by pretty quick, huh?" "Well, when you don't do it right, it doesn't take as long."

Zack, we love you, take care, good luck and God Bless! –TSG, NLN, TAH, DBE, GTRJ, TLM, CMS, MOC

The Little Greek Mid from Arizona: Zack kicked him in the head every morning during Plebe Summer. It wasn't, "Gonzales, or Rodriguez, or Arroz con Pollo!!!" Good thing Super G. had a sense of humor. Plebe year he and Nate joined the Jolly Rogers, and they've been causing trouble together ever since. First black-shirts at Nova, Psycho's Ships of the Desert, and then YPs . a 10 foot fence, razor wire, summer whites, and Nate saying, "Dude, hold my cover." Even morning practices with Zart weren't as bad as hearing the Dep Dant say, "You got how many majors? In one night!?" Oh well, the Form2 makes a good conversation piece. 21st birthdays . 'nuf said. Remember Youngster Spring Break, or would you rather not? Driving the Z from Arizona to Annapolis, what were you thinking? Plebe Summer cake punting . a future Olympic sport perhaps? 2/C year Agent Smith moved in, Army Week became synonymous with grand-theft-auto, and the Rogers won EVERYTHING. "Skiing in Austria? I might freeze to death!!" Quantico, rain, mud, and Regimental TOWs .Team Green's callin'! The Huston Bowl adventure . . . the Caroller-skate flipped . and Karin got a ring. We've come a long way boys, and four years sure went by fast. "When you don't do it right, it doesn't take as long."

Damn SC girls! Friends to the end, but they won't let you touch 'em! From the get-go, when Ellsworth almost wussed out on I-day, you've told incredibly long stories, "set the mood" burning a lampshade, whackin stick, inappropriate song lyrics, FAM scale, stupid dances, "Ya need more booze!" From "making you uncomfortable" to having good talks about women, you've been a damn fine friend ~ Haywood. A breakdancing fool, a Madden 2003 extraordinaire, a quasi-flamer, a well-accomplished squad leader, an Acme regular, a well-rhymed conversationalist, and an all-around chill dude, and all this from a guy from Chicago. Oh yeah, and that Trident scholar thing. How did he have time for this and still manage to reach a routine drunken stupor on the weekends? Easy, perspective and a lot of know-how. CEO is on his horizon, probably while dating a super-model, driving a BMW, and living in a lush bachelor pad. Keep this in mind when you got Fish-dog on the brain: What do you call a Mexican with a rubber toe? Roberto my man, Roberto.

Woodford, there are lots of stuff to remember man: chillin out in 1111 (better than 7256 and 7142, but nothing beats 7236), wrapping you in toilet paper, kid-tackling at Halloween, TEXAS PETE Beat Army, YP's to Gloucester, the soap opera plebe year love life, NTT, your fart in the woods when we should have been hiding, the Natalie Portman incident in NYC, incline football with Brandon at JMU, "that's the story of my life", your sudden obsession with Tolkien, and all of a sudden knowing more than Chuck did about it, Carl's burnt lampshade at FAAEAW, the whacking stick, $1400 for Bahrain, secret shaving videos, Haywood and Megan – the lovebirds, soccer in Megan's grandma's backyard with the cousins, cruisin in the Woodmobile, PNs, Carl's high and tight(!), all the damn dances we made up, Chuck's late night TRAFs, one dollar for every football game "Anchors Aweigh," the very handy FAM scale, beers and movies at Mr. Menne's, Sweet Emotion (along with, of course, the Shimmy), your disgusting fungus toe, A/N Philly drunkenness, CAAARL at 11:11, "I'm a southern gentleman," territorial waters, Ryan's ADD fun, a spear through a con locker, a burrito at a window, a pumpkin misthrown, constantly breaking Ryan's things (ok, maybe it was Haywood's ADD, or maybe just LITH), four aviator roommates—despite our thermostat differences, great friends, and damn good times.

JOSHUA EDWARD FOGARTY

WARE, MA
NAVY PILOT

Affectionately called 'Wild Bill' by his friends, at least in the beginning. Senior Chief, Billiam, Humphrey Bogart, Bogarty, Bogina, Titi, Fogartit, and Titphor - yes he owned them all. Professionalism at its very best, but only sometimes. He possessed the biggest 'fat boy' nipples I ever saw, but was also the skinniest kid I ever knew. He could always make us laugh - MP5 and Mez; pillows and crusted socks; radio interview and making hailey puke; dumping tess and livin with toe gan; rotting feet and his flashlight; he is a man of honor. His Vernacular includes existence, soul, and skull. The perfect combination of Blue and miss smarty pants, but only because he is the one and only combination of them in living flesh - he has made us all proud. Want to go drinking with Josh… watch out cuz he'll disappear. Racking hundreds of flight hours youngster year… One fine naval aviator he will be…YOUR BOYS - JO, JM, HML4, RK, AL.

If you want something bad enough you'll get it; and to those that supported me through the adversity I am forever in your debt. Mom and Dad, you opened the doors of opportunity for me for 23 years, this is as much yours as it is mine. I cannot describe how much you mean to me and how thankful I am for every ounce of love you've given me. I love you both so much.

TRAVIS ADAM HOGAN

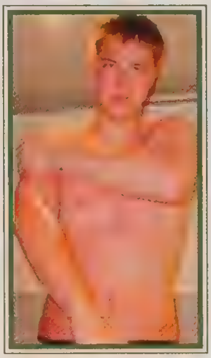
AURORA, CO
SUBMARINES



This lanky moose came to us from "Denver, Colly-ado, sir!" We soon found out after that great introduction that he was indeed "wrong as a football bat" and had a 4 year agenda which included: hurdling Vergara while chopping, following Forgarty's 5 step program to victory (see his cell phone message), worshipping the wisdom of Fogarty (ABCs), and delaying his apology to Momma B. Travis apparently is a SWO at heart, applying his "every Sailor a fireman" tactics to his printer, which caught fire and ended up as a window prop. And of course, no other MIDN in history has said the words "I love you Pookie" (PookiePooh) more. Where's the suntan lotion? Twelve inch Hogie! He's also gonna be a rich man after graduation, seeing as he's still with Danielle, and some people bet him he wouldn't. Lastly, "Bullwinkle" himself can be seen in the future scooting around on the deck of Nuke school yelling out "EL CAMIIIIINOO" at random times. "Four years went by pretty quick, huh?" "Well, when you don't do it right, it doesn't take as long." Travis, we love you man, God Bless. –NLN, ZJB, DBE, CMS, GTRJ, JEF

From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea. First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean; We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze From dawn to setting sun; We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's scenes, they will find the streets are guarded by United States Marines.

Chuckles...where do I start? The most "innocent" of the roommates, you always provided entertainment. First it was the pseudo-roommate, then the realization that 21 just wasn't coming any time soon. I think it all began with the TRAFs plebe year--it was downhill from there "Honolulu Hawaii?", Garcia's hatch, LITH, VA Beach with D and C, Gloucester – Crawford road, "Have a great idea!" Champagne serenade, Vicky on the roof. I know we all "gave you sh--," but you generally gave it right back. There was Boston's Italian Festival – and you always were jealous I saw Natalie Portman. Course, I made up for it in NTT – gas was my demise. Hit it up hard with fieldball and Vlachakis, "Launchpad McCumber" You swimming in my living room and Carl's roving hands. Don't forget the whacking stick, 'The Chain' dance for my momma, the ticket and Foard Esquire, Ring Dance & Julie Julie Guerre Chaley!!! The Duchess of Balthazar and our new roommate Ryan (read ADD), spear tossing, hair shaving, NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY! Ninja break-dancing – and the blood on your face. PRT workouts just wouldn't have been the same without you, even though you always ran faster than me...and beat me in racquetball...and in Pawket Tanks. We did team up, however, to make the tropical zone superior to the arctic--despite Ryan's thermostat sabotage attempts. And don't forget all the crazy times at Mr. Menne's. Jeff, I'm glad somebody taught you to relax… even if it was my sister...(JP) walks back and from our cars and vans always put me and the other Jon into a stupor and fascination of wonder with the world of Jeff's precocious ingenuit. Four great years at the academy as a motivator, experiencing the good and the bad: the worst surface cruise as well as the best times commanding his own boat. Silent Drill, Florida, The Jeep, The Truck, Ski vacation! Let's not forget Ring Dance! Always an engineer first, it was no surprise when Jeff selected Subs. Those who know him best agree that Jeffrey Roberts is a good shipmate and a true friend. His professionalism and character will lead him a successful journey and career in the Silent Service. Roommate! Where do I begin. I will just start with the list. Kate (wanted me). Lori (wanted you 1 year later). Hallie. Jen. Then the ones in the middle that I only know by the places in which you met them. Argentina. New York. Chicago. We won't finish. It is better if I just start at the beginning. When Stew and I picked roommates it was quite a process. We were shining shoes next to each other, and the roommate list was passed around, and you were the only one left. Don't you feel special? It was a perfect match from the beginning. I did my work. You tried to do your work faster than me. Stew just sat around in a bad mood. But we do have some memories to show from it. Soy Sauce Wars (I always wondered why my darn printer never worked … "Open the window Stew, I'm gonna jump" "Its open"… flag football on the frozen tundra of Farragut Field … long walks in the night around Dewey (watch out for your squad leader) … we always knew who to invite to play poker … thanks for the ride to the concert … some people worked out every day after school … you played X-box every day after school … couldn't ever just go to bed, had to have a phone, or a game, or music … I know I am forgetting things, but it has been a great ride together. Run Silent. Run Deep. Good luck! TRUE!!

The "Man of Mystery," for many reasons, whether it be for his so-called "soul" or his scandalous behavior behind closed doors. A self professed womanizer before the academy, and we all know what that means. Some womanizers spend their money on improving their image, others spend it all on a pearl white Lincoln. Pearl White??? His Lincoln and soul-train rhythm earned him some "women of color." So he says!!! Anyhow as my subordinate and roommate, I ensured that he was obedient, well behaved, and prepared to meet the submarine fleet again. Good Luck! JGC
Some people think the DDP can only be viewed in WIDE SCREEN! Other people think his deep blue button-up shirts are...well... alternative. Whatever you think, know for sure that you will see this man again sometime in the future. Even if it's only on the internet. By the way Matt, make sure to send us all a copy of your sub bonus video...IT'S MY MONEY! Good luck to you, oh Supreme Commander of 15. Fair winds and following nuke pay. DM

Jeff Gregory Cliffe

Edgewood, MD
USMC Pilot

Jeff Gregory "Hardcore" Cliffe a.k.a. The Grand Old Man. From his first day as a midshipman, Jeff has always been the type of man to inspect the situation or detailer (LF) from head to toe. People have looked up to Jeff...not in a big-brother sense, but rather in a "Hey, this guy is really old and seasoned" sense. Normally found in his natural habitat known as McGarvey's, his exploits in downtown Annapolis are a thing of legend. Who can forget the Headboard and Snow Wrestling...God knows we won't let him. He is a man with an insatiable hunger for JJ videos and Georgia Peaches. Whether inspiring the company with his Marine Corps strut at drill or leading his comrades to the Fleet Reserve, Sarge is as comfortable raising the bar as he is raising a glass beside one. His affinity for Matt's high quality entertainment has shown him to be a lover of many things (animals too). In the air or on land, Jeff will make the Marine Corps proud because the chicks dig him. Semper Fi! MC

Russell Eugene Garrison

Lexington, NC
Navy Pilot

That's right! This here is Russell Eugene of the Garrison clan who hails from the great state of NC. Although having strong ties to his home state, Eugene has a strong affinity for the almost as great state of NJ. He aquired the taste at UVA, one of the few times he made it out of 7th circle of hell otherwise known as 7352. When not studying for heat transfer, Blues's control systems, or writing papers 5 days overdue, Eugene enjoys not being clothed, Led Zeppelin, the audition, a good Brazilian friendship and Matt's CDs. This Iron Mid has a knack for impeccable grammar, never once using "myself" incorrectly or allowing others to do so. Playing off this desire for perfection, he also kept his roomates on their toes by setting his alarm clock for random times durng the night. These four years spent with Eugene would not have been the same without his quirks, incessant movie quotations, that evening with the goddess of the night, and that sweet, sweet southern accent. we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors and we want to leave you out readers with some advice from AC/DC: "so lock up your daughter, lock up your wife, and lock up your back door and run for your life." Godspeed and to the hilt - JAK and myself, DM

My parents say that the past five years went by so fast, but I have to disagree. After being at NAPS, the transition to Annapolis was fairly smooth. I was ready for tough classes, lots of physical training, and mental challenges. My first day was the best day ever...it was my birthday, June 30th 2000. Of course I kept that to myself to avoid the extra "attention." My days were extremely long, especially after my three-hour rifle practices. My toughest challenge was memorizing lots of useless information like daily menus. Some things were just strange, like bulkheads, p-ways, and scuttle butts. Learning time management was the key to getting through this year. Overall it was pretty rough, and I was glad when it was over after climbing Herndon. My youngster year was my year to recover. All eyes were off me finally, and I proved myself worthy of entering the realm of the upperclassmen. My hardships this year were in boxing and wrestling class. My partner was 30 pounds heavier than me, and I often left class dizzy or with sore muscles. But I managed to make it through. For the record, this was my most enjoyable year. Second Class year, academics became a challenge after I went deeper into my major, Systems Engineering. Some days I questioned myself why I chose it as my major, and I spent countless hours trying to understand the work. I managed to get through it with the help of my teachers and friends. I had the privilege of yelling at, I mean, training the plebes that year and had lots of good times. Firstie year went by fast and before I knew it, I was a new Naval Officer

JASON ALLAN KOZAK

GLEN ALLEN, VA
USMC PILOT

Coming to us from the capital of the Confederacy, Jason "A-H" Kozak cannot decide whether his southern origins preside over his Germanic roots. He came to USNA already conservative and with one small virtue to learn - tact. Jason lost is A-game crossing the street in Montreal. Thus was born the J-game. He likes to bring this wherever he goes, especially when there are girls around. Jason has a high opinion of women, ask him about his restriction. He is also the commander of the Battle Group-V and almost the world's greatest Navy NFO. Jason taught us many things, like how long it takes to get a speeding ticket in a new camaro SS (about 39.5 hrs), that if you steal a car and the police get you just lay down and say, "I'm a friendly!" and that morale ALWAYS improves when the beatings continue. The Marine Corps now owns him and hopefully he will use everything he has learned here to lead Marine squadrons to glorious battle. Good luck, buddy. Hoorah! - DM, PH, & KY

Domenico Monaco

Naples, Italy
Navy Pilot

Hailing from Naples, Italy (home of Neapolitan ice cream), Domenico came to the USNA with the hopes that he could make some friends that wouldn't judge him by his diminutive stature or copious amounts of body hair. Alas, this was not to be. Not to dwell on the negatives of small stature but a wise man (Allan), once said women love small men for two reasons: Reason F and Reason S. He soon fell in with Jack's crew and, although not a founding member, was soon promoted to Commander of Jack's Midget Brigade. Despite this dubious honor, he missed out on the first Montreal trip. Not one to be left out, Domenico rallied and was a pivotal member of Montreal, part DEUX! Whether he was hitting on Pebbles or searching for his wallet you could always count on Dom to spew forth a continuous fount of wisdom. Some of his greatest hits include: "I'm full of sugar!" "As soon as this is dry I'll be sober. . .(30seconds later). . .That's good!" "Domenico, I hate me so GD much, it's unbelievable!" "She's pretty cute." Papa Watts, loved by all and Mr Personality. Matt got everything he wanted at USNA picking up internships like women with his charm and getting out of drill, watch, and intramurals. Losing bets plebe year: running around formation holding hands and singing the Beatles, hunting squirrels in camos on the way to class. Matt loved his squad leader Brian Donovan and attempted to marry him twice. Matt at chow calls = "habba da habba da" but he really did have the last plebe year. "I'm the dude, so that's what you call me" Matt was never sick, but he was pretty good at puking. Especially on British exchange mids. Matt got his revenge on Marines by putting one on all calls for 9 months. Outstanding! The Dude was pretty intimidating to plebes until they found out he was Bill the Goat. Noass came to boat school as a single-white male, and he will be leaving as a single-white male. Not much has changed. However, Mr. Foley, he does like women, just the wrong ones. The “It’s not money, it’s credit,” policy has taken its toll and forced the 6’6” Great White into the submarine community. Not to worry; he will have the benefit of diving below this cruel, oxygen-rich world, seeking out the hand of Ariel in the coming years. Merman, Merman! NEWS FLASH: Sheltered boy from El Cajon unable to fend-off East Coast Fatal Cold. A headline common for the human Towel. GO NAVY, SIR-R-R-R! The future Emperor of the United States of America spent a lot of time skipping through the p-ways and stuffing his pants... “I want to hold your hand” and refuse to kill the peanut butter (foul memories of mustard genocide). Always in the pool, never in the Hall. Once gnawed a whole in his white leathers and inhaled too much spray paint. Boddington’s, two for seven. ## Patrick James Hanks

Kent, WA
USMC NFO

He hails from Seattle, the land of liberals and rain (don't worry, he got his waiver). Among the original Jack's crew and founding member of NASA, Patrick has managed to break every rule at the party house, even before most were created. He has vanquished all of his greatest enemies, most notably a handicap sign, the letter F and the number 150. He has been a diplomat as well, spreading goodwill and love from Montreal (twice) to Japan. We will always remember you for the timeless knowledge that has escaped your lips:
"It's cool guys, I'm straight."
"Kevan, I'm not going back to the yard tonight because I'm not that innocent!"
"Dom, I hate you so GD much, it's unbelievable!"
"Jason, if you don't shut up I'll have to hit Dom again!"
One last question for you Pat – "You got your ID???"

Steven Paul Hickman

Steve, what can I say? I imagine you don't even care if you have a bio. You're a bad actor. You're gruff. You're not politically correct. Most of all, beneath all of that, you're actually a really genuine guy, more caring than most. We were the dynamic duo. We were sometimes ruthless, most of the time relentless. Who could forget waking up in the back of the Volvo, after releasing control of the wheel and the map, only to find us deep in South Carolina with no good idea where that interstate went? At the end of it all, we're all still friends, and we all made it alive. Can't wait to be down there in TX with you. -RCB

Phil Jolley, He's a Model…Idiot? Ah, the bountiful memories of the times we had at USNA. . .remember that time you got hurt? I think my best memory of you is when you asked every single plebe to cover your chow call; except, you actually didn't. Nice going. You know at our ten year reunion, we won't talk about who got what billet or who had a 4.0, we will talk about you not asking and a certain anonymous 2/c Kurrle.
Oh, and then there was that other time that you were injured. . . I'm sure that all your knowledge will aid you out there when everyone comes to you with their computer problems. Naturally you will only be able to fix them half the time, but you will still be the resident nerd. Congratulations, you're a computer geek! Your journey at the glorious Naval Academy has been a great one and your path always straight as an arrow. You came in wanting EOD, then switched to jets, now helos, then Seabees? Wait, then it went to Intel, then Helos again, SWO, supply, finally a decision for subs, eh, maybe not. . . Then one day out of the blue, "Nuke SWO guys, it's what I wanted all along. . . really!" It's been quite an experience here at this humble institution. Good Luck out there in the big scary world. . .and then there was that time you got hurt again

"Tony Lane #21, T-Leezey, T-Lane, GEORGE." Fancy foot work got you many records for NAVY Football. Long 4 years, ups and downs, but the ups came at the end, and they were BIG, CIC Trophy, Houston Bowl, all the pain finely paid off, thanks to PJ. I drove to Notre Dame just to watch your 70 yd TD. Always laid back, and a dominating force in Volleyball. You're my claim to fame, "Yeah I know #21." You're the man Tony, gonna miss watching your consistant 20 yard carries-FROI. A wide array of roommates from crazy Texans to a boy from South Dakota to a stinky midget from Tennessee, and the forever missed, Poopa from Pottstown. Doty snackers are everywhere, especially in room #4062. Last few weeks of plebe summer...where did ya go? ~ an inspiration on the field...Touchdown Tony Lane! ~ Few words but carried a big stick. You're good. There were a few happy trips back to NAPS from them away games. After graduation, we ended up in no-fun 21! Rappin' K couldn't keep a straight face! Quit laughing! Get some bearing! JB got the God Squad together and the wrestling and trading punches started. Remember the night you almost destroyed Jon's arm? I never could get Jon pinned, or so he thinks. We grew as friends and as brothers in Christ. God brought us together through the same path, NAPS basketball and our brother Jon and then down the same road with our respective girls. Those long nights talking to her and then about her. The phone ringing at 0230!!! (I found out YOU told her it was okay) Spring breaks were fun… that long drive to get you in ALABAMA!... rather have you at PCB than not. From rappin' with Plebes Against the Machine to Words of Wisdom to making your own music, your words have always been an inspiration. How about some arepas? SWO Bro! It'll be awesome! WAIT A SECOND!!!! STEPHANIE'S CALLING!!! BRB….okay, she just wanted to say hi (and yes I blew her kisses!) from NAPS to USNA to USS James E. Williams, it has been and will be a great time! From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea. First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean; We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze From dawn to setting sun; We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's scenes, they will find the streets are guarded by United States Marines.

"Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death--even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Philippians 2:3-11, NIV).

Those jumpers will never be the same…and I quote "You do not want to come down here! The platform of PAIN" Sept. 2002, you KOOKED it. I was always doing your dirty work. You had a lot to learn, then came O'Neal….class dismissed. What could I expect when your heroes are Spicoli, Ferris Bueller, and The Dude. Some things should go away with time, and your music is one of those things. IT SUCKS! What can I say Tom where would you be without me, I am like Yoda to you, the force was always stronger in me. The light Tom walk towards the light. The future looks bright my friend, we scammed our way through, it really is possible. First we had sympathy, then we had none. Can't blame them though Mexico, Costa Rica, Spain (oh wait you were doing detail…bummer), Cali, Dominican Republic, Cabo, and the list goes on……aloha. I almost forgot……you were always right….I am a tough guy! All I need are some tasty waves, a cool buzz, and I'm fine." Jeffrey Spicoli

Since I-Day we were roommates, but somehow half-way through plebe summer you got stuck with the "slow and smelly bastards."(Sorry man) But you got us back by never standing watch plebe or youngster year. (Damn life guards! Who needs 'em anyway?) Youngster year brought out the James that we have come to know, or Jamie, as your shady side homos put it (that's Marshall and Ashley "Bowser"). Nothing gets you in more trouble than your American Express card. You never leave home without it and never have cash with it!! (Thank God for that Dairy Queen) And thank God some of that video in the Bahamas never came out. . . (Busted) Some of your finer accomplishments include a $200 bar tab in the Grove, projectile vomiting at Nikki Beach, using lube for the first time, being the swim team manager, catching a 7-ft sail fish in Miami, and, oh yeah . . . you are the president of the Socratic society. Cya there! All in all we couldn't have found a better roommate . . . in company! But in all seriousness, we hope you move to Italy some day, marry that beautiful girl of yours, and have a bunch of orange-haired kids. To the sister I never had who once asked, "why are we friends?" This super skipper sailed her laser all the way to nationals in Florida. 2 Bacardi-O's with some V8 splash . . . and she's down for the count. Monday Buddy's, Tuesday Ramshead, Wednesay O-Club, Thursday Obrien's, and now it's time for the weekend. Who else would be up for Chippendales in Vegas? Restriction wasn't so bad, just don't let the OOW smell that breath. She'll have a double Dos Equis on the rocks please. So what if her car blew up, she can still drive to BWI. "One weekend I'm gonna come to your house(KG) and sleep in your bed and I don't care who else is in it!" March over anyone? No thanks, we'll just help out with that keg in the parking lot. Who needs alcohol when there are teddy grams? All she needs for fishing is a twig, a piece of string, and some ham.(-MW) With those strong legs and nail pulling skills, there's no telling what this Tijuana lovin' oompa loompa can't accomplish. ## Ronald Floyd Burris II

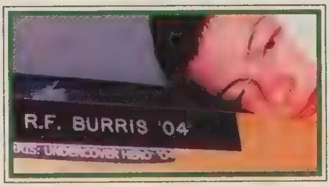
Byron, GA
Navy Pilot



I think my roommate pretty much summarized our 4 years here. "Ron Burris has been my roommate now for four years, and he is still a bit of a mystery to me. If I had tried to find someone that was more of a polar opposite of my self, I could not have. Yet, somehow in these four years we have formed an odd and unique friendship, not like most friendships but more like brothers in that there is something stronger that bonds us together than common interests or meshing personalities. Usually that bonding force is a mother, but here I think it's the fact that we live in the same room. Most of our conversations have started with "You know what I really hate about this place?" From water-gun fights, to throwing random objects at each other, we have had our fun. Most nights we spent together facing our desks, working into the early morning. And most mornings he spent throwing things at me or yelling so that I would turn off my alarm and wake up. It seems most of our summers were spent against each other: learning how to break each other's necks in NTT, or his P-3 squadron shooting torpedoes at my submarine, to the competition between 3rd Herd and the 4th Platoon Rocks in Leatherneck. Ron has always been blunt and unafraid to say anything, he is who he is. I am very glad to have spent this time with Ron, and I wish him the greatest blessings wherever he goes. I know as stubborn as he is, there is nothing he cannot do that he wants to do. Good luck Ron. SWO doesn't suck, and neither does Navy Pilot!" (Ervin, 2004) Thanks Travis, sure beats a random Go Navy song.

Five years, a few tickets, an arrest, many women, and a couple of adjudications later, I was raised by a Spanish Princess and a motivated Drill Instructor by the names of Maria Isabel and 1st Sgt. Israel Cantú Sr., USMC(ret'd). I have 4 sisters and three brothers. In order: Guadalupe Cantú de Medina, Israel Cantú Jr., Staff Sgt. Jason Manuel Cantú, Captain Marisol Cantú de Zammit, USMC, Midshipman Candidate Adrianna Maria Cantú, Paloma Bianca Cantú, and last, but not least, Marco Ariell Cantú. I thank those above as well as all of my friends, shipmates, and my motivated underclassmen who have been there through the trials and tribulations of the "Academy Experience." I would not have made it anywhere without the support of my family, teachers, and friends. I am thankful for my wonderful family, my nephews and niece and for support from all when my mother and grandmother became ill. Dad and Mom, I made it(al beit a nasty Sailor)! To my older brothers and sisters, thanks for everything. I've always looked up to you and continue to do so even though I am one of you now. To the last two left of a long line; learn what you can and make your own footprints in life. You do not need to fill our shoes. Put some bigger ones out there for others to emulate. ## EVERETTE TRAVIS ERVIN

ADVANCE, NC
SURFACE WARFARE

Travis Ervin. Swerve, Magic, the BCGs guy, the Greatest Human Being to Ever Live… Ever. The final member of our happy band has been called this and more. From the greatest county on earth and with more homesickness than any of us ever had, Trav never let anything get him down. His love for bananas and smoothies (the source of his radioactive powers), and his ability to use the word "face" at any time set Trav apart from most normal mids. The frequent Thanksgiving trips to his home in Davie County, NC, made us all want to be Rebels (except Hick maybe), and gave us an appreciation for the Rebel Yell (to be uttered when crossing the county line). Travis Ervin devoted himself to everything with a passion, the Crew Team, the Navigators, the BCGs, the MechE department, and he never cared if they returned it. His ability to endure serious sleep deprivation fueled only by the statement "there's plenty of sleep in the grave" made us all envious, and very tired. But whatever his sleeping habits, Trav's love for God, his family and his friends helped us help each other through anything that came at us. Only You can make every new day seem so new. ~Unit 3

ELIZABETH ANNE GILLIS

GRAND RAPIDS, MI
SURFACE WARFARE

Elizabeth "Coastie in a Mid's body" Gillis came from the vaunted Lower Peninsula of Michigan to bring her special brand of cheer to the banks of the Severn. Though she contracted a terminal case of the Plebe Hack in the summer of 2000 which has kept several strings of roommates awake at night, Elizabeth survived CGA crew, the women's rugby team and two French classes with Graham Scarbro to graduate as Lawrence Brandon's favorite target. Whether it was opening the table for dessert at record high decibel levels Plebe year or leading a band of rowdy Coastie Swabs in cheering for their Division III football team, Gillis never did anything quietly. Her love for the Navy got her through school, where she's allegedly been studying oceanography, although she never seems to know the weather forecast. "Huggy Bear" earned her callsign at CGA because of the outstanding enthusiasm that made her LB's favorite Plebe to pick on and the over-the-top friendliness that made you like her even when she brushed the lint off of you before inspection without asking you first. Nitpickiness aside, Gillis' love for her chosen career and her Academy will carry her a long way in the Fleet… So long as she can get over the Hack. Semper P. ~GCS

It has been an unbelievable party since the day we met. Sexy Lexy and Meesh…What are the odds you meet someone who is so similar to you, even almost right down to a birthday? Half Mexican, half white, favorite colors is purple, birthdays in February, from California, play Libero in volleyball, and are both 5'4" on a very tall day. From Club Wet to Chippendales, that blonde was SMOKIN, we've definitely refined our tastes. We've been to Cabo San Lucas, Colorado, West Point, to the most awesome ship ever, USS CARTER HELL and don't forget Mad Dog. While I was in Spain, you were telling those blisters on your feet to suck it up because there wasn't any way on God's green earth you were gonna miss out on a FEX. And yes, New Jersey is only 15 minutes away from Philly, dear. Through dropped cakes, "almost not making the team", surgery, and ihtfp days, we've survived it all. USNA had no idea what they were getting into when they got us together, and now the Marine Corps has a pair of hot tamales coming their way, are they ready for us? Teammate, best friend, dance partner, confidant, and above all…MY SISTER. Te quiero muchisimo. "She takes my hand and leads me along paths I would not have dared explore alone." – M.V. Patel.

JUSTIN CHRISTOPHER HAMILTON

YORKTOWN, VA

Gotta say being a roommate with someone for 3 years was both rewarding and interesting. From bringing me home and introducing me to your countless "girlfriends" who were all hot, to partying over at your sponsors, those were some good times. How bout getting stood up by your girls at the last second when we headed to Tennessee or the time at JMU where you definitely needed to be babysat, we made the best of it though. Oh, and then there was that time when you brought me home for Thanksgiving and introduced me to your hot friend by the wrong name. You better work on that. You've definitely turned me off to one thing…Guinness. You're a better man than I am to be able to drink that stuff. Memories of Halloween (are those chaps?!?!), our wonderful "leadership" of 18, Christmas parties/late night "swimming" over at John's, and ring dance were all a great experience, but they wouldn't have been the same without having someone to laugh and make fun of others with. Thanks for the memories, oh yeah, and "I Love You, I Trust You." ~JCL Drinking tequila through a straw, whispering over the phone, forgave me for helping to cause that little harassment incident and you never miss an opportunity to make fun...what more could I ask for in a design partner? I'd be lucky to be in your backseat someday. Love ya, kid and you know it…C.C,. the FO

Lewis Shinil Im

Bayside, NY
Special Warfare

Master, Mission, Mate…the principle in which he lives by and cherishes. Frankly, he is a hardworking and focused individual. He's a person seeking after God's heart, always improving himself, dedicated to his goals, enjoys bodily punishment, & simply a Christian Warrior. He's a mission oriented person, achieving what he aims for. More importantly, his life is marked by the grace of God's hand carrying him through the schools of hard knocks in Queens to the hilly roads of Valley Forge to the Naval Academy and soon through the sand pits of Coronado. Stay strong bro. Keep charging hard and stay away from the pinky…no I'm serious. GB. (LHI) Lewis came to the Academy with an open mind and ADM Hill's cover. Though not yet aiming for flag rank, Lewis has always made USNA worth his time. His work on the Campus Crusade prayer team and frequent trips to the pool in efforts to be the Navy's next frogman proved his devotion to his faith and his career. Maybe it was extra shiny shoes, or the extra sharp creases, or even being on Brigade staff, but something about Lewis and you could tell that he wanted to be at the Academy. But whatever the case, Lewis stuck to his guns for four years and after plenty of hard work, he's got no hair, no eyebrows, and a trip to Coronado to show for it. Who knows, he may put on ADM Hill's cover some day after all…(GCS)

BRETT PADRAIC JOHNSON

SOUTH AMBOY, NJ
NAVY PILOT

Brett or Brettley "No Shame In My Game/Get Your Mouth Off My Keg" Johnson arrived at the Academy from "Dirty Jersey" looking to own the place, which he almost did. After almost getting sent to Leavenworth plebe year (which was a close one), B.J. decided to lay low for a bit. It's not that he didn't know how to have a good time, though; he could probably have fun at a monastery. His venue of choice, however, would be Double D's or the Body Shop, keeping them in business. Youngster year brought broad horizons and new beginnings such as getting thrown out of the worst club in Jersey. Hey, there's a first time for everything. Junior year, the big A/N bash in NJ prepared him for the office parties and the ever necessary role he would have 1/c year as the Beaver party liaison. Tailgater representative gig proved to be a huge networking device for members of the Class of '69 and put his foot in the door for huge things to come. BJ- Bon Jovi, Brett Johnson, Coincidence? Dirty Jersey. Spring Break or Boxing? Tough choice. Habib's liquor store, parking lot parties. 21,it's about time. If there ever was an opportunity to drink, it's now. Ho-brian's. Armanill-hos."Got any new movies?" Dining in vice..hey where were you before? WE GOTTA RUN. Fly navy. ROME! NCC,NJT,JAA.

TIMOTHY JOSEPH KINKAID

OREGON, OH
SUBMARINES

Tim Diesel, Meathead, Fatkid, Cool guy. He should really put a jacket on, its cold. A reformed womanizer and user of outdated slang. The only guy with enough nerve to talk his way into a CP party, then peel out in their front yard when he leaves. Tim plays the macho game very well to conceal the fact he is an aero nerd. Thank goodness for beer, women, and aerodynamics or else Tim would have nothing to do.

"Do you know where the weight room is? That's alright. I'll find it."
Good luck fitting inside the sub.

Peter Daniel Langley

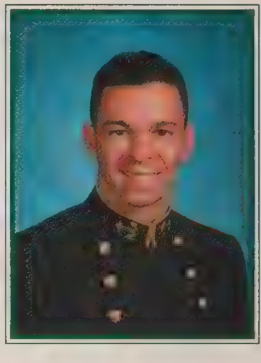
Miami, FL
Navy Pilot



What isn't Pete…our ICOR for life varsity gymnastics team captain (2x), All-American athlete, Sup's List 8 semesters running, midshipman of the semester every time, #1 plebe in the company fluent in his native language and French, 4.0 GPA possibly holds the record at the E-Course and…if he was Indian his name would be "dances with fat chicks." You could always count on Pete to be watching a movie every night of the week if he wasn't scanning the internet for the latest Saturn model (or g.p.). Despite his hard work ethic and continuous girlfriends, Pete always found some time to go out and have fun…well, if getting tossed out of bars in hick-town PA is your idea of fun (Cal –"Ghettos")…or…doin' it dirty in STL (thank god for snow storms!) or…impersonating a retarded superman/handi-man (UVA)…or…trying to party all night in Philly with TATU or…trying to find exotic Italian chicks at PSU (you almost found one smaller than you…she only had you by a few…we got pics!) Despite these low moments in Pete's life, we've had some amazing times together… in the grove, Orlando (2x), Pitt, New York (with the bros), Ft. Lauderdale and becoming turtlemasters in your driveway. We could always count on you for a good jack handy quote or a random one liner ("yinz girls"). You've made these a great 4 years. Words to live by…DON'T terminate…procreate! Represent S-3's and Saturn for life! We'll be waiting for you, buddy (and reserving your ICOR billet). JPA & MAT Never forget the office and the smelliest couch that ever existed. – JAA Don't forget to show up to your birthday parties in the future, at least for just a little while. -NCC NMG for life – no regrets!! Well, you finally made it the second time around. 500 doctor's appointments later and 10 surgeries, it's amazing you are still alive, Team Cherry skate and scooter team, a lot of dam memories, sangria in four states, smelly kid at practice, trip to South Africa. Travie like Frankie and the rebound. Amateur status, cause I'm the MAN-ion. Good call on the Golden Tee, no one likes you, you're very abusive, apathetic, sloppy, and athletic. Meeting horsemouth and giving her to Biggie. 3 Amigos will ride again! Beating Luke for "lil' stace," "will u sleep in the wardroom tonight," Cherry Soup, all night karaoke, yellow mustang in San Diego, making Chief, Team Helmet, summer lax champs, ever been to Glen Canyon? Bet it all on the field, rodeo champs, A+ for effort, left alone on Pikes Peak, its cool she gives a lot of blood, 11th wheel, $2 bargain, military demeanor? Who is Mauldin? Did he go to this school? Was he even here youngster year? Some say they saw him a few times around the yard (usually in Dahlgren buying pizza five times a week). The only man to get away with growing a beard during Plebe Summer somehow, Jared definitely liked stuff. BOONES! Jared is living proof that you don't have to do anything ever if you were once a varsity athlete or were injured once upon a time. "You wanna turn on some Simpsons?" Mauldin's top USNA achievement: having more lamps in his room than the number of exams he studied for. Here's wishing good luck to the "Pink Flamingo" afterhours establishment. Finally, best wishes to a great friend, roommate, and the guy who won't hesitate to tell you when you're being stupid. This guy. Kermit The Frog, I mean Jared Mauldin

First,It has been a wonderful ride through the ups and the downs here at the academy.I could not have made it through this place without my Grandparents,my brother,my sweetheart,my Parents or my three amigos,thank you for always being my support system.Now here are some quotes from the three amigos: Teddy Bear."Grandma"Toilet bowl flush from above.Ran faster than Jamo on the PRT.Sleep deprivation—not a problem.College Football 2004 ADDICT!"Look an Oreo backwards…"Can you get off the phone Travis?"My little red lobster"Lovin' those QT's.Gotta love mama's cookies. Rob's smash into the snow.Incoherent conversations in his sleep.WAKE UP STINKY! Quote from my sweetheart: There are just so many wonderful memories: (coffee,having lunch or dinners,Movies,Christmas lights, or just talking)to the big things(the Ring Dance,Valentine's Day Dances,Football games,Graduation,the Nutcracker,and our Anniversary dates.On this big day in your life,I want to congratulate you on your success over your four years at the Naval Academy,especially your senior year, and all of your many accomplishments. Congrats!!!Sweetie, you made it!!!!!

Ian McCaig Rummel

Falmouth, MA

First of all, I'd like to thank the Academy...but seriously, if I was into quotes they'd be from Jimmy Buffett, Morihei Ueshiba, Indiana Jones, Valentine Michael Smith, Bob Marley, James Bond, Jack Aubrey, Dirty Harry, Bruce Lee, Marcus Garvey, Bob Dylan, Douglas Adams, Buckaroo Banzai, andthe dude from the Seven Samurai who doesn't have a name but has all the good Japanese one-liners. If I was into quotes. I shoulda just put my phone number here but if you want to find me, you already know how (two-way wrist television). I'll get a better picture too, the guys who took it are artistically challenged. Saving all the "shout-outs" for the delayed grad yearbook anyway, right? I'll call all of you within like a week. Maybe freshman summer was a total joke but instead of hazing myself until the guilt goes away, I'll just go hang out in Florida for a while and you know, fly stuff. Everyone should come down, it'll be a wild party with the requisite beach volleyball games and ensored - good luck and see you guys soon!

GRAHAM CLAYTON SCARBRO

ANNAPOLIS, MD
NAVY PILOT

Graham "yo tengo una novia" Scarbro. The only one who ever liked the Naval Academy, threw coins in Tecumseh's quiver, knew all the yard gouge, and ate the Cheeburger Cheeburger 1-pounder before graduating junior high. He lived in Annapolis so long he had to get out for a semester at Coast Guard (in which he missed up to and including 5 billion points, but not as many as Grant Bryan, who was gone for a whole year, thus exponentially decreasing his point total to below the lowest circle of Hades). Nay, but thou didst laugh. He's the one who drew all the cool pictures of us, and made all the T-shirts we never got. He also was the one with enough soul to ask the question: "Is better to get up, or get down?" JAG made two episodes about the only summer cruise he had with the U.S. Navy. Coincidence? We kept him around because he let us use his house (well, we kept him around until we realized we could go there without him, like the time we watched Hook in his basement, and he mowed the lawn). Graham was also the founder of "benchism," and he was always found sitting on the bench next to Tecumseh before afternoon classes espousing the virtues of "chilling out." His second two years were spent trying to get his roommate from the first two years to live with him again. That man is the incomparable… (See Ervin)

Mark Alan Tedrow

Charleroi, PA
Navy Pilot

"Mr. Tedrow, go find Mr. Brereton and tell him 'Ping'" . . . Mark Tedrow didn't buy into the whole "plebe" thing very well. He spent most of his first year sleeping in the football locker room, talking on his cell phone, listening to MP3s, or yelling at his fourth roommate! (who still has his watch by the way. . .) Despite the grumblings of freshman year, Mark became an aspiring youngster who really cared about the rules . . . almost as much as he cared about women. But he was young, dumb, and full of c . . . He has since moved on to more refined things, i.e. the twins. Thank god for that snow storm in FEB '03, huh big dog? Mark always had the sweetest car . . . too bad he could never drive it on the yard. He never spares any expense when it comes to having fun (as your broke roommate can attest to)! And he never holds back when it's time to party. "Shot of Jack anyone?" Best times ever: Miami four years straight, Loyola (and the woman's lacrosse team), Vegas, Bahamas, UVA, Penn State, the Burgh, Cornell . . . Worst times ever: that crazy night in PHILLY! Roommates since I-Day! Friends for life. Thanks for everything, especially the constant supply of snack food. Good luck getting 14's. Pce!
-PDL & JPA Good times in DTA, Baltimore, the Ebb Tide, and Quiznos. The last Tomcat pilot ever. Goodluck. JAA Honorary office mate…4 life! NCC thanks for getting us kicked out of Murphys and all the good times an laughs. JM

I don't think there's a luckier girl in the world…To my boys, my big brothers…You've taken care of me through these four years. We've had laughs, lots of drinks, and a great time here at USNA. Who ever thought I could have such great friends. Nate, I am responsible for you not leaving here ;) and you know it. Erwin, if you ever need a ride to NYC, let me know. Jonas, ITALY need I say more? Ernie, I will visit you in Puerto Rico, you hottie. Dave, my favorite Marine (and favorite teddy bear) you are my soul and know me like none other. Tyler, picture perfect – please take me to a movie sometime. Deng, you know you want me! Clayton, you're the hot older brother all my friends want ;) I love you guys.To my sister… Jessica you have been there for me for four years. Whether it's shopping or sleeping, or giving ourselves facials in Don's basement, I will never forget you. Spring Break..or should I say "wreck" and then Hawaii, which made up for everything. I know North Dakota missed you these past few years, but I will miss you so much more these next several.And my Robby…who ever thought this would happen?!?! We've denied the rumors but it's useless. You are my best friend and my boyfriend. You give me a reason to smile every day. Howie Day, Chicago, New Years, Central Park, and right here in Maryland, you've been with me four years. You are such a well-kept secret. With the trials of the past years behind you now, you have suddenly metamorphosed into the incredible person you have always had the potential to become. Your drive is unstoppable, your determination unending, and your fight is fearsome. It has been a wonder to see your smothering spark slowly burn into the open, showing the whole world all that you have to offer. You have taught me much about perseverance, unconditional love, and the true meaning of soul sisters. We have learned that there are no rules for the allocation of luck in this world. Just because you didn't say it doesn't mean I didn't hear it, Smeegle, and there truly is a little bit of "customer" in all of us. If you can't find it, just think of Captain. If you ever need me, put on your POW bracelet, and you will know that we were supposed to be a part of each other's lives. Keep in mind that you always know the right answer, but you have to sometimes be quieter to hear it. It is a good thing Ryan shined your shoes after all, because you're a Marine now, and it will be more than you ever dreamed

A good midshipman, steadfast friend, and terrific person. As with most people, Ryan's USNA beginnings were humble. “04 Day” and telling the Pig to keep his legs straight were the major highlights of Plebe Summer. The Pig seeks vengeance with every war known to man. Youngster year begins with booze and trouble. Restriction is good, huh? I crawl through the ceiling and the Volpekuehne rages. We get a wee bit o' Irish in us and have the time of our lives invading foreign soil. Who else has seen Pikees in real life? Firsty year and we just want to leave. It's been an amazing ride and thank goodness it's over. Don't want to be too mushy but it's been an honor and a privilege to serve with you. –Petey There is truly is no better way to bond with a person than keeping him from complete solitary confinement of restriction. I met someone who truly loved life even when it was handed to him on a rusty platter. Saluting you in May could be the most painful experience of my career because I wish I could be returning the salutes with you. No matter where we end up or when we get there, it will be just like kayaking against an Alaskan tide with a head wind. No matter how much it sucks, or how long it takes, at least we'll have plenty of time to make fun of each other when it's over! I love you man!-Grant

All night TH at the Borgata, juiced for 12 hours, falling asleep on the road after 5 minutes. Throwing the ball up over your shoulder, 6 in a row from the circle, countless games of 21…Stan-Zona…the fridge. Tuesday night booty calls, rushing back for TAPS…$10,000 club…100% warning level. Mazel mazel good times. ~ Mike. Me, you, debs hangin out talking about…what was it? Chief waitin for the chaplain. Valiantly leading 20 with valor, doing your duty dutifully. Sword manual hijinx. Vodka redbulls. Submarine bonus supplying drinks for your aviator friends. Hangin at the sponsors grillin' steaks and watching Clint. The best man for the job on 12 June. ~ Jon. It took me four years, but I finally found a weakness: Texas Hold'em! Food's overrated. Psycho crunches "I can do a thousand of them." Rocker's a punk! "Dir yes Dir!" ~ Sean. Sofie, I love you just 1 kiss. We've always lived in crappy rooms...no this one is a good one...dude but it doesn't have any heat. "Ben quit humping the doorframe." She's preganant! I-95, 2 feet of snow, a Honda civic, and an imminent honor board ~ Geoff. Hang'in in the breeze… Astro what?...two's full over eight's?!..Dallas…you think what?!...haha…20 in a 50…All night AC…pull over!!!..thumbs up…busted fridges…plebe summer…what's in your closet?~cmg

Hanna Lea Lusuegro Alerta: one word to describe her…maganda. We've been through hell in 3052 to heaven in 4428. Adventures with Absolut in the back of Kathy's car, the 21$^{st}$ birthday you and I will NEVER forget, the hottie wall of fame, late night bed time talks, taking Sarah shopping, almost getting you stuck in Mexico, making tamales, seeing snow for the first time, rhyming = Sean Bean, Turkey day at Tita's, DTA and the O'Brien's nights, and finally admitting you and CaluagMudslide are more than friends! Girl, you have been my rock through this rollercoaster. Besides repeating "serenity NOW" you have kept me sane here and I will never forget your laugh and your smile. I have not only made a friend, but I have gained a sister. All these years I have learned one thing to say that you would only understand and that I wish I could say more often to you…MAHAL KITA!~MEA Alby, hind kita makakalimutan. Maraming salamat sa pagmamahal, atensyon, at alaga. Kaibigan magpakailanman. Rea, kita tayo ulit, pakabait ka.

MEESH – best roommate, four years of late night heart-to-heart talks, secrets and gossips. 'Sunny' San Diego, crossing TJ border, bus to NY, fun in NY, girls' night out in Philly, Wet DC, everywhere with you was a blast. We've endured pain, won challenges, and laughed at our mistakes. You're my defender against monkey-hating-people, my source of laughter and amusement, my teacher on American culture…the good part of it. You're 'cheerful' and 'girly', the dancing goddess of all dances. In DTA you show your grace and style, an amazing and intense leader on the vball court, in the hall, you're our youngster's favorite. From hearts on your i's to three stripes on your shoulder, nothing's changed, you remained the Mexican girl everybody admires.….O3's in particular. I'll come back for your wedding in Mexico. Serenity now…~HLLA..but don't leave out g-string divas, sex in the city, trying to take a picture of me peeing on monkey girl, sambada new year, stolen shoes, so hot in hur, does this make me look like a jota? Oh and PBR!~AFG

1st- Having a car has mad character and that's good to learn to drive stick in. The bug hardly compares to that stupid 15 passenger. It's all worth it for skiing (everywhere). So it all started with Selmo. Navy swimming wasn't enough but skiing/ mt. biking/ rock climbing/ camping/ hiking seems to do the job. Did your hot enlisted Marine friends really break down? What? Formation? The rack, again? Ab sculpting today! How many times did we see OAR? Toothpick rocks. Hunter trip from hell, stuck in Jersey. Spring breaks under $500 are great, but the true cost: those damn ims. Two years of complimenting profiles. "Take only pictures, leave only footprints" Crazy times at the Carr's. Great tailgates: smoking cigars/ cloves (that's it). Protecting others from hurting themselves, then, crazy risk for a broken arm and pins that had to be cleaned by a toothbrush!! Also, risk taking doesn't apply to driving. Its about the left hand turn signal and right hand pass (Don't be that guy). I will try anything once, or twice, or until it kills me. See you in Vermont some day.

TB, the Fat Hog, disruptin the peace with his bull dog snore. Rappin out to his fav eminem from the Conk. Workin hard, or hardly workin, he's a sys maj, duh. Ralphin in the sink on the first PRT back from mission vacation. Pukin in my plane. Let er rip NFO, but bring a bag this time. Gettin extra libo and weekends, hey back in 02 that's how we did it. Buy a truck, no money for gas, renegotiate. Mindless minesweeper wiz, the freecell king, cheap game fix for TB. Buy a set of knives with your loan, get a free vacation and 60lbs of steak online. Got the rock for Tiff, good move, you need someone to keep your side of the room clean. Friends always! RPF

Back from a two-year mission and we quickly became good friends. Like I've said before, just seeing your face in a crowd lightens the mood and makes me smile. Best of luck to you and Tiffany. You guys will have a great life together (here and en el más allá). And remember: crew practice=good, liberty=bad. I look forward to hearing from you in the future. Un abrazo fuerte – BMW.

Wooof!!! I'm a dog. You see that powerbar on your desk? Now you don't. Its in my stomach. Most of the time you can find him running on the treadmill, swimming laps in the pool, riding stationary bikes, doing push-ups, or jumping rope. Somehow he manages to coordinate this physical medley with academic exploration and mastery. Despite his obsessive approach to fitness, the skills of a true ATHLETE elude him. Never to reach the physical heights of his fair skinned antagonist. Uncultured heathen, barbarous mama's boy, a non-listener who denies his harem, Bull $#!+ you get six sheets up in a day! I like short walks on the beach to a freshly tapped keg when I can enjoy a night full of keg stands. That pretty much sums it up. I also offer a one hour rental of the trunk in my explorer for a low cost of 60 days restriction, transportation fee not included. I feel the most important lesson I have learnt while here is that the possibilities that are out there if I only didn't have a girlfriend. Who can forget the 21st birthday/dining out where the porcelain goddess and a mighty attractive '01 grad were the only things you were interested in? Hanna and I were so lucky to have our own computer repair guru living with us who managed to install a DVD player in her own car! Book reading turned out to be her most expensive vice after her stint with the anti-fructose dilemma, which led her to consume only the hard stuff. That didn't stop her from seeking the miraculous wonders a Chippendales show could do for a foursome of single girls in Las Vegas. MEDICAL CORPS

Together even before we got here-GHP, first seeing you at 04 Hour of Power, surviving plebe year together, letting the wounds heal over and become stronger than before, learning more than we ever thought about ourselves and others, hanging out in Nimitz, talking in the basement, laughing so hard you couldn't breathe, LCDR Higgins-only class together, trips to SubWay, solving girl problems, never losing the wonder, road trip Spring Break Youngster year, only person I could talk to about what's important and real, knowing what your family meant to you, for all the bad times there were a thousand good ones like Mother Theresa? How the f#@* should I know?! But dude it's Your! Dog! Sharing the laughter and the tears, camp fires on the river, kickin ass in school, working hard, watching, waiting as it all pays off and dreams come true. Now you're off to MedSchool, going to be a doctor, you've healed many already with your unyielding will and caring heart. These are the days of our lives, we cherish them-our memories and friends, you are my truest friend. We built here what will last a lifetime, go and share it with others. Forever and always your friend.

Looking back on the last four years, you don't remember most of the bad times—and some of your good times have to be told to you the next morning. Spring break, the cabin, Pirate's Cove, Naples, St Bonaventure (and accidentally Orlando), sailing detail… Chevy trucks…40s… have all made the down times worth it. Good friends make all the difference. They can even make you laugh about improving the Star Spangled Banner at the dining out in front of a Colonel.

On a cold snowy day…that is how it began. It was supposed to only be 6 months but 2 years was much better. Rain party? Recruit Parties with Pamela and the speech. Harbor whores. Crying on the roof. Pony Keg Friday and the Follow up with Pony Keg Destruction Night. Then there was Croquet, from the Match to the Shire gin and tonics were all we desired. Selection Night worked out great. Too many memories, too much fun. See ya budday in the Land of the Rising Sun!!—Jake
Mmm guysss, when we get home, act cool...she knows. That warm day when Kee-Kee blew chunks from his nose. One day I'll beat you at NCAA, or Golf. Sorry about thanksgiving, that game was personal. The smoke signals were answered, in the worst way...only to see more belly another day...our film debut was the greatest...Saki, Saki, get used to that...have fun in the pacific, I'll be in Iraq-- look out, its a C Double attack
Kee kee better start stretching. God I hope we have a thursday practice tomorrow. Tweeter and the monkey man on the never ending road, that was the biggest bag I`ve ever seen. Where`s the ping pong ball. Oh Bear. Buried the keg in NC. Should have never went to the beach, watching Chris was good enough. Heres to swimming with bow legged women. A man who realized early on that if you slept 12 hours a day you were only at the Naval Academy for two years, Travis could think out of the box like none other. His thoughts of the day bewildered, and stumped, even the quirkiest of physics professors. Just curious, how many licks to the center of a corndog or the recipe for a peanut butter and jelly rack? A modern day Renaissance man, Travis could grasp any concept thrown at him whether it was physics, cooking, sailing or pro-knowledge five minutes before the test. He frequently would find ways to bide the time until the next rack marathon by watching movies but never studying. Other days he would quicken time at the snatch of a watch and be in total control-yet no one worried when that happened, they just went with the flow. You got the dangerous combo of charisma and brains and that make you, well, dangerous.

Zarr…Zarra…Zarrac uh, Z. Always an athlete, you never gave up on playing a sport. From crew to cycling you took everything hard-core. From seat racing in the shells to your tight cycling suits always hanging in the bathroom. heck even the Gunny's called you a “stud.” So, martial arts or the Navy, what'll it be? I think you made good choice, and I'm sure you can always impress those hooyah's out there with your knowledge. Don't forget about England and the good ol' time with the older chicks. You've had an interesting collection of roommates, from those who left, to the real napster, to some lubie kid that surely brought your game around with the ladies. We both went from being to reserved with the ladies, to actually making some moves. Who woulda thought, you finally thought inside the box and good times resulted. Maybe being the good guy does work out in the end. Senior year, you finally find roommates that worked out for the best. What an interesting room, from strongbad the physicist to some guy that might just joke around more than you. Turning boring old times into somehow very comical moments was our specialty… . Marine corps, what!? Well, I'm sure you'll attack this one well too and hopefully I'll see you up in the sky. Thanks for the great times. From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea.
First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's scenes, they will find the streets are guarded by United States Marines.

I am a portrait painted by the Lord, a sculpture at work, trying to reach perfection. Blessed with a slew talents and abilites that He chose to give me as a tool to honor and glorify his name. Endowed with countless people in my life to help this sculpture to reach its fulfillment of perfection. But, because the Lord is working so passionately in my life, the devil is trying to capture a man of my calibur to decieve the world. I am a man that is constantly tempted to do the devils work. I often fail! Trust is an issue. Love is another. Loyalty is the third. So I stand alone once again. A man that needs to become more like "every man, God's man"! This is my journey, to make my sculpture material as malleable as can be. This will be my effort to help the Lord mold me into the man I need to be. I will GLORIFY HIS NAME!

Ah to be done with school. It was a pain while I was there but looking back all that I can remember are the good time that were had doing things to pass the time. Between sailing physics and frisbee there wasn't much time to think about anything else, but with a combination like that who would want to. It did earn me the several nick names, well that and my living style. A few points leave behind for fribee guys are Ruby Tuesdays any time that you are on an MO, and never take on the "responsibilities" of team captain, they can be bigger and uglier than you think. Physics is a blast you just have to survive until everyone's test average drops down to yours. As far as sailing goes it's a blast, sailing through ice flows isn't, but coaches like Heff just make you want to do it. What can you say about Chris? He's short, a pack rat, from cali, and wants to be a sub driver. Despite all these short comings, he's a great guy who will always help you out when you need it. With a nickname like Banzai, how can you go wrong really?

It's been a fast four years. It hasn't been as bad as everyone said it would be. Thanks Mom and Dad for the moral and financial support. I think you guys enjoyed "The Academy Experience" as much as I did. Track- most rewarding, exciting, and worthwhile thing I've ever done. Every year we get better . . . and every year I have more stats to remember. Cooksey, Bartels, and Cantello- always keeping us entertained. Poker- I never knew what a great game it was until I came here. Thanks to everyone for the donations. Guitar- I'm not Eddie Van Hunt as Ben once said, but it's been fun jammin' with everyone. As for my roommates- about the most laid back guys I know. I found out that this place is more fun when you actually get along with your roommates. The eternal suppliers of video games and DVDs. Good luck 23.

T-dawg, Big T - If Lance Armstrong had a stalker this kid would be it... Those Tour de France DVDs are great. You shave your legs how often? That curb can hurt. Oh well, it's worth it as long as we get to ogle "her" during her nightly visits. Swim…bike…and then run a little a$$, at 0230. Oops forgot you had a race. Tyler's passing up another chance to go out with us? I for one am shocked. Well, he does have a race coming up....in 2 months. A triathlete by day and party animal by night...You been drinking all night,how many beers was that? "'Did Tyler just have more than two beers?' 'Thats gotta be a record.'" No, there are less stairs this way. Taking upperclass sisters to balls, he is part of the catch release program of course we didn't catch anything oh well it was still fun swinging the ole pole around speaking of poles and swinging it took me a while to reveal the secret but now you know. Oh yeah, by the way that's my ring dance date in your lap. This hooyah went to Panama City to get honor. I've never seen someone so enthralled by fornicating deer... Here's to the life of surfing, taking it easy, and flight suits (or jeans and T-shirts). AMO, EBM, MPD, MAB, NBF, VPV, Tri – Thanks for the memories boys - DT

And now, the end is near
And so I face the final curtain
My friend, I'll say it clear
I'll state my case, of which I'm certain
I've lived a life that's full
I traveled each and ev'ry highway
And more, much more than this, I did it my way
For what is a man, what has he got?
If not himself, then he has not
To say the things he truly feels and not the words of one who kneels
The record shows I took the blows and did it my way.

Mike Mielnik... just remember to think before you say anything, always at the wrong place at the wrong time but keeps going day after day regardless of what happens. Keep the Mcarthys near by just in case bad luck wants to give you a run for your money any time soon. Keep fighting no matter what happens and keep your drafts! He had great luck unfortunately it was bad luck. Where's Mike? I don't know lets check the snow banks. Bad luck and all he was still one of the nicest fellows you'd ever meet, even if he did look stoned when you met him. t's the swagger, his esteemed conduct history, and the fact that he was smart enough to realize that hopping in tights and rowing a boat with a bunch of men just wasn't cool which made him a legend. A belligerent drunk...not him, but a ladies' man...thats him. Best roommates ever, even if they just wanted the closet space. Special thanks to the Jaegers, Irish Mafia, fellas at Donlon's, the Good CDR, and anyone else who witnessed my shenanigans. Especially when I needed a little "broken arrow" support.

Ahhh budday! What do you know…Ford Mustangs, DC, Beer Pond…President's Weekend Plebe year: funny movie, Georgetown and free breakfast, Bud Light and all before noon. Riva Road: Our home. Croquet…Backyard x-games…BBQs…Pony Kegs…and Pamela. War Paint...Blackouts…Wake Boarding…Charlie, Acme, and Bowling "I am moving out!!!" Glad you didn't-Good luck in P-Cola…see ya in the fleet—Jake. It started with trips to Greg's with Dan, drunk after Thanksgiving, Dinosaurs, pulling over on Rt. 50, Georgetown, running back late. Spring Break in San Felipe, drunk go-carts, beer pond, wakeboarding with Nick's boat, smashed at Bruce's. Golf+Beer=MIP but the Warped Tour made up for it. 311 and Pennywise, Best Trick wakeboarding, motorcycles, throwing it down at the Shire. Surfing in SD, flying jets, pony kegs (no regrets), snowboarding, kicked out of ACME, croquet, beer pong, beer bongs. The big boat, the elusive tantrum, the wrecked shoulder. New Years & Copper Mt. REMEMBER THE SHIRE! Hey bro, thanks for making it all worthwhile –MAN

What can I say about my man RB…from being your crisis counselor to your fun coordinator, we've had a heck of a time these past 5 years…fiesta a la casa de Ryan-NAPS style…what happens in Cancun, stay in Cancun!!!…sponsors mattress, now that was fowl…Spring Weekend 2000, '02, '03-partying like rock stars…my 21st in Va Bch-talk about ridiculous… road trips, chillin with Scuba Dan and the crew, tailgaters, DTA, Power Plant…never forget the good times…NTF for Life – Wheels: I should have learned to listen to you sooner, Red or Blue 7/4, sorry about. the leather seats, hug the munchkin, lots of memories and many more to come-LA: There are those who like country music and those who just don't know it yet. After four years with me at least you know. Another four you'd be sportin the boots and hat too. It has been a fun ride. Watchin the lip stroke was entertaining but seeing you pass the swim PFT was unbelievable. The world is safe now thanks to us heroes. I retire as the room football champ. Livin with you was never dull it made my four years by the bay. Take care and give me a call if you need me. CSH/JAMB: Wrong place, wrong time, right place, wrong time, right time, wrong place. From JFern to Eeek the Cat, it all started plebe year. Somewhere between protramid and graduation, you went down the path I thought I'd take, and I went down a path, well, we're lucky I got to the path at all. You were there when I needed you, and having you around has made it that much sweeter. I'd wish you the best, but you deserve so much more than that KMM.

Denbow…The Denbonator…The Beta Male…The ANTI-Marine. "I swear Benbow, if it's not one thing…it's TWO!" From the far reaches of Northern California, where trees are logged and cut down by the score and the dumb hippies are still chained to 'em – "There was a kid in my high school whose parents named him Xxyyzz; they were hippies." The biggest clotheshorse I know – "I just felt like I needed a new leather jacket, so I bought one." Him and that damn United Airlines credit card. "I require a window seat and an in-flight Happy Meal. And NO pickles! Oh God help you if I find pickles!!" From detail into the ac-year – "Uh-oh, I think a high pressure front's moving in…you know what that means, Plebers: we might get a visit from Hurricane Benbow!" Well, after all that, we've finally made it. Nothing like being on the five-year-plan, huh? At least you never had to sit in the 'yellow chair.' Congratulations on getting Navy Pilot; I told you there was nothing to worry about. Most of all, thanks for putting up with me through NWP and two years at USNA. Here's to us: the newest ensigns and second-louies. P.S. Never lose your religion: "Yea, and God said to Abraham, 'You will kill your son, Isaac.' And Abraham said, 'I can't hear you. You'll have to speak into the microphone.' And God said, 'Oh, I'm sorry. Is this better? Check…check…check. Jerry, pull the high end out. I'm still getting some hiss back here.'" FG 2:12

What to say about the best roommate: how about…."Whiskey for my men, beer for my horses", the never ending country music, "We still gotta get our B&D tickets." Super snug jeans, c'mon man you gotta let 'em breathe a little. Endless movie quotes, "Nathan R. Jessup Commanding Officer Marine Ground Forces Guantanamo Bay, Cuba" jack bauer is a BATND!! Endless hours of swimming, thanks for everything, esp. your patience with overcoming the lip stroke. Hows that beer pete? THE MID. Joseph Allowicious Midshipman Benning. "hey you need an ambulance?" the odd couple or old married couple, who would've thought. Greatest church buddy, random (secret) trips w/o telling anyone…CSH, nothing in the world tastes like beer…, I really want a steak and a beer…there was this raccoon.- thanks for everything bro, youre the best….Junior out.

Heavyweight champ of IM., The worst Tyson fight ever at Sergio's, top down to SD. Public speaking: "dude, somebody was puking in the bathroom." "hey guys, who puked on my bed?" Obnoxious, Living out of the red Explorer with the best turn signal in the world and a full tank of gas, Simple pleasures like boots and work gloves, Missed the urinal, It's the national anthem for goodness sake, Insurance, cabana 11, WW, "dude, your girlfriend really sucks"…

DAVID RAY CAMPBELL

MESA, AZ
CIVIL ENGINEER CORPS

He rolls old school in the El Camino, he walks tall (HA!) like the hero from a Kung Fu flick, and he drinks beer from a pitcher. He's the man, the myth, the legend…he is Dave Campbell. That's him in a nutshell, at least on the surface. Dig a little deeper and you find Freud's dream come true. The guy is afraid to sleep (who knows what dream will haunt him next), he HATES wearing clothes (even on watch), and has skittles and root beer at the base of his food pyramid (he was fuelling up for the marathon…for four years). Look more closely and it only gets worse. He spouts Marvel canon and movie quotes like historical facts, speaks of Harley rides in the Southwest as if they were mythical, and does things like slyly wielding butter knives and making his own nunchuks. However, you eventually dig so far that you come out the other side…the softer side. He does charity work, coaching local Russians in the ways of coolness. And even with all of his Bruce Lee inspired madness and machismo, he still needs a library card to check out his huevos. He always has the epitome of a Mexi-CAN attitude (mixed with a little bit of Mr. Miagi and Billy Jack on the side). Dave always gives you a unique perspective that can only come from actually living, and his sailors will love him for it (and respect his digging experience). He is the wise man, the teacher, the hooker, the peacemaker, the confidant, and the man of constant sorrow. He thinks himself a lucky man, but his friends are truly the lucky ones. PS – Baby Bruce, you will be missed.

Your Melanie-isms always brightened my day. Unbelievable spirit and incredible attitude along with chats to remember forever...can't wait for fun times in P'cola with a friend as good as you!–DR Spontaneous bursts of clichés, a sparkle of optimism on a tough day, late night shrink sessions, winging it as sword bearers, cruise to the Carib 2004, prosecuting attorneys-r-us, daily pilgrimages through the Labyrinth aka the Rotunda, peanut gallery view, and "the crime of the century." I'll miss you most. KS Professor Penn's calculus class to running long and hard with a fiery redhead who always wanted to add that one extra loop around Dewey! Running off the Yard, sweating and leaving all our clothes hidden behind bushes out in town. You taught me how to laugh at life and have a blast. Coxey, a die hard SWO from day one, who couldn't be convinced otherwise by his two prior Marine roommates, he wanted to follow the path of the legendary Cdr. The redhead devil ended up going nuke SWO instead, chasing the big bucks and putting his math and interview skills to the test. Rooster boy never backs down from a challenge and is always willing to try knew things whether it's wake boarding, snowboarding, gymnastics, or surfing. Just because he's willing to try it doesn't mean that he was good or coordinated enough to be good at it. Namely: opening the peanut butter on his head, celebrating his birthday, catching a plane for a ski trip in Colorado, trying to fire up the flaming Dr. Peppers, or especially DRILL! Coxe get out of my formation! Great times, great memories, a great roommate, a great friend to all, always willing to help, always tells it like it is, always has that goofy grin on his face (which means you better stand by for something off the wall), and a great future naval leader who works hard and always plays hard! Aloha S-mate!

JUSTIN ARTHUR DARGAN

Dargs, aka Thunderkock, aka anti-gunny. Apathy at its best. Most off the wall crazy rad dude I've ever met. Can't beat him at poker cause you don't know what the hell he's doin. What are you service selecting?…Whatever dude don't matter. Best facial expressions ever. The Clash Rocks. "I didn't even fathom the fact that you could swim holding those shoes over your head." -MDM / Damn the man (with a fist!). I am the coolest and toughest guy on the planet. The Bizkit rules! I rock so hard! I rock the casbah!!! I heart ACDC and I also love the band… the Unicorns? -ATR / 5 well-lit lanes of traffic...."Just enjoy yourself." You are a GOD. By the way, do you think KFC's still open? -CP / The last of the ninja rockstars. Combining amazing back flips, killer head banging, and Bahaman palm tree climbing with the perfected use of the word "rad", you're guaranteed to rock every moment. The most creative and self-confident man around - here's to you big sunglasses wearing, perfect picture posing, Percocet snorting, marathon running, NYC storming Justin -JRM / Summary: Yes, the clash do indeed rock. If I could do it all over again, I wouldn't change a thing, except that I would've had a killer Mohawk and I would've service selected rockstar. On a serious note, time for the all too true clichés: I definitely never would've lasted if it weren't for all the great friends I've made here. You all know who you are, and I just wanted to say thanks. We'll see each other around sooner or later. Be excellent to each other, Party on dudes.Also, I am going to get a tattoo that says "RAD!" on it.

To the coolest roommate ever: thanks for four great years. No matter what, you always gave me a rock to lean on and someone to laugh with. Here's to you: Ride in style – always lookin' like a magazine cover. Ever changing hair styles, colors, lengths, you name it. After years of trading back massages, I'm pretty sure you still owe me one. Small fry! Crazy double dates... Baltimore street, Baltimore... the comedy club. Ah, boathouse memories. That was a loaded "umm." Enough with the "yuts" already! Did you really just say his hip flexor? So, you guys wanna watch Jenna? Crab Carnival…Yankees vs. Red Socks… taking pictures of the Sons of the Confederacy. What the hell is a bubbler anyways? Nalgene Bottles really are unbreakable. Rockin' out before drill. She's a biter. Hey b$#@%, pass the peanut butter. Hot 99.5... Double Date Room… Vicki's Angels. Hug the munchkin… crack-ish… if you step on my leather seats again, that's it for you buddy… Red, White, and Blue. Lis, if you could you would lead the world. I will never forget how you took me in as the class of 2004 (plus 1). You understand that if you want to make it in this world, sometimes life has to be a competition and that is ok-AL

SEAN MICHAEL DRISCOLL

OCONOMOWOC, WI
MEDICAL CORPS

If you ever pass Sean Driscoll on the street, he will greet you with uncommon kindness and a hearty handshake. That is, right after he greets the clock. Oh, and if he starts counting the lines on his fingertips, don't be alarmed. It's just his own special way of recovering from weeks on his deathbed. If the sun is out, he might dart between spots of shade to avoid melting. If you want to be nice, talk about Breakfast at Tiffany's, but don't invite him to play lasertag. He can't tell which team he's on. Besides, that bag taped to his leg kind of gets in the way. Unfortunately, Sean never had as much luck with women as his best mate Bryce did. That's OK, though…he'll always have Carmen San Diego (just as long as he keeps coming out of the closet). His genius is matched only by his colossal laziness. Don't worry, though...if you're in a downed helo with him in the desert, he'll patch up your wounds and serenade you. He's so considerate that he'll even give you a German lullaby while sleeping. He's just that considerate. That's why his friends defy anyone to find someone who dislikes him. He is truly the most caring individual on the planet, and he is nice to everyone (unless you're in the Army Corps of Engineers).

ADAM MICHAEL FARBER

CRANBURY, NJ
NAVY NFO

Hide your beer bottles and reinforce your latticework…Here comes Adam. To date, the only thing that has been able to contend with a froggy Farbs is the Gunny…in T-court…in front of everyone. Aside from constantly trying to convince Gunny how hard it's raining, Adam enjoyed torturing himself with Epil-Stop and riding tanks on restriction. (Hmmm….maybe he forgot to iron his white works on purpose.) If you roomed with him, you would know…what happens while you're asleep is none of your business. In the days of 8250, LTZ recognized his potential as a prior early on…experience Farbs used to teach us many things, such as how to find Australians in Hong Kong (among other things…bu xie bu xie), and how to date WAY out of your league. He also learned much in his time here, like why you don't volunteer for PMP or attack the gate guards with an AK-47. Most memorably of all is the account of his death: He was waylaid by fake smoke and Frank stepping on him, only to rise like a phoenix from the ashes of his own feces to live again. And after all that, he still thinks he has claws to go with his fur coat. The thing is, the beserker attack that made the latticework cry is an example of exactly how stupid he gets for the people he cares about. Sure, he talks (and kicks, punches, shaves patterns in himself, etc.) before he thinks, but at least he's on our side. And quite frankly, it's good to know that certain things will never change.

NATALIE NICOLE FRIES

WINTER PARK, FL
USMC GROUND

The best roomie ever, 4 years of great times and good memories. Gonna miss you hun, no more Disco Fred or late nite chats. The Lax superstar!! Got you to say "wicked"!! One of the best friends I could have asked for and I'll always be here for you no matter how far apart we may be. Remember Army/Navy fun for four year… Rockin' the country before drill… "BEAST"ing rifles plebe summer… Givin' the waffle to Wilkinson. Never forget nights at the Shire, backyard ski jumping, or racing the Z. Hitchhiking to the mall and home. Here's to you, "Ice Queen." Crazy Spring Breaks. Panama City rocked, the Bahamas were scandalous. "We're walking at an incredibly high rate!" Unmarked Semi-Trucks and King's Cup Fun. UF-FSU 2003… "SOOO funny." Midnight walks by Mitscher and studying EE. "Like you just said that!" Settling arguments by wrestling. New York City three times, Ocean City twice and Baltimore once. Three great years undercover. NLM.

ANTHONY JOSEPH GUIDRY

HOUSTON, TX
USMC PILOT

The Guidry is the guy you want to know. He consumes enough whiskey to kill a donkey, and then wakes up smiling the next morning. You can play beer pong with his parents and they'll cook gumbo for you. You want bootlegs? He's your man. (Until the Feds catch onto him…"HIDE THE HARD DRIVE!!!") You want to know how to get kicked out of your company and then be hanged in Mem Hall? Again, he's your man. You want to learn how to burninate at level 38? He's…oh…no, he's almost your man, but not quite. Guids is the kind of guy to run a marathon and then sign himself off for 5 tours. He is an expert at airsoft sniping, having drunken fireworks displays, holding stupid grudges, and losing miserably at the nose game. He is the cynic of cynics, the lover of ticks (literally), the ribeye, the Cajun sensation, and a proponent of vigorous G-rated co-ed activities. He has overcome many hardships, such as making huge car payments (where do those go?) and being repeatedly mistaken for a Texan and/or a tool. But through it all, he enjoyed the protective warmth of his magic wool (not to mention the carpet he wears on his legs). It was a great day when Anthony came to us. We immediately knew we had a friend that would be with us through everything. Ironic, isn't it? The best thing to happen to 24th Company in the last three years was caused by a bitter manifesto and a small man with a bad haircut.

NICHOLAS JAMES HARGRAVES

EL PASO, TX
NAVY PILOT

It was a long journey to commissioning for Nick. He had to overcome the kind of social retardation that can only be bred by military school. After working extra hard for his rainbow ribbon, he checked in for plebe summer… and mentally checked out soon thereafter. With nothing but his rubber ducky and the memories of his beloved dog, Maggie, he forged through the next four years. During plebe year, he managed to keep his fridge hidden, but as for everything else, "he just didn't feel like it." After turning his D & D obsession into a successful business venture, he battled his A.D.D. and bravely took blows from Guidry's fist and Frank's…well, you'll just have to watch the video. He spearheaded a campaign to get himself elected as the Supreme Uberdork, and soon after celebrated his victory by building a computer out of a nuclear reactor. With his plan for world domination nearing completion, he focused on developing himself into a finely tuned varsity athlete, eventually proving to his jerk friends that he is among the best skippers in the nation. In his spare time, Nick managed to amass quite a solid DVD collection, which is reputedly the best in the company. He might tell you how excited he is about being a pilot, but in reality, he's sad that he's flying. He was always the type to worry about his health, but fortunately for us, it actually does NOT look cancerous, and Nick will be with us for a very long time. His friends were lucky to have had such a loyal and good natured guy with them for four years.

BONCHEUL KOO

REPUBLIC OF KOREA
SURFACE WARFARE

Captain Korea we will call him one day. When this dedicated SWOrean is in charge of his entire Navy, we will still remember the Boner of the good old days. We will never forget his stirring rendition of "Da Boys in da Hood." Nor will we forget how, after years of convincing us that he was shy and that he "doesn't undastand," how his true personality exploded with one phrase: S.M.D. He tried to hide a lot of things from us, like how smart he is (because he didn't want to do everyone else's work), or the fact that he is actually a Communist spy, or that he is some hybrid breed of super-ninja. We saw through it, though, and made it our mission to corrupt him. When he worked his first Nightshift, it started a landslide that ended with his dad rescuing him from an emergency room. He returns to his nation with increased sneakiness skills, as a certified sKOOba master, and the ability to explain to his friends the meaning of the phrase, "Bi bi a mokta." We will miss him greatly but "by the way", we will always remember the short time we had with him, and we expect great things from him.

FRANK ANTHONY MACHNIAK JR.

ATTICA, NY
USMC PILOT

Meat…That pretty much says it all about Frank the Tank. He's loud when you need silence, he pukes in the shower when you have an alpha, and he disengages the 4WD on the black ice…absolute meat. If you see him in the weight room, his tattoo will say hi before he does, but for all his talk about "jacking steel," his legs make him look like Big Bird without feathers. He loves hockey, and he finds it relatively easy to score, provided the goalie wears a mask. He has no problem with mullets (but he hates herbs), as long as the mullet bar has a pool table. He would happily stay at your house, but only if you have a spare racecar bed. If you're shopping for him, he likes any shade of pink, and he really is pretty undiscriminating with regards to size, too. He has been known to wear a few stripes, play some prop, and taste what Dave rejects. He claims that he's not a closer, but we all know that V stands for more than victory. He could be found teaching Koo new English or, more recently, keeping Gunny and LT out of the loop. So what if he's meat? Does it really matter that he thinks John Mellencamp wrote all those songs specifically about Attica? Not to his friends. They know that when it really comes down to it, he likes the Cheat and he sticks to his guns, no matter what.

The T-Bag has and always will be a man of few words, although he's a man of many random sound effects. Still, for all of his silence, he was never accused of being subtle. He was never shy about his love of Miller Lite, Dragon ball Z, his people, his Carhart, or his ratty orange hat. He is the Nuclear Marine, a man on a mission from way back, 1997 in fact. The 4-day FO, 1-day Pilot and the only man to ever leave a key inside a Velcro-sealed vehicle. Come to think of it, maybe he did that on purpose; otherwise he might come flying through the gate with guns blazing. Was that a truck or tractor? As a founding member of Restrictor, he knows how to get in and out of trouble…so what if it involves Ralph? At least he has his horseshoe intact. Known for his ability to steal women away from Joes, if you fall into this category you'll need to keep your eye on him at all times. Be warned, though…DO NOT steal his CD's, ask him to do lunch, or leave him alone in Rome. If you wanna be on the bone list, he's your man. If you wanna get off the bone list, just buy him some smokes. He'll probably respond with either, "let's go find out," or "what…no tongue?" His friends have no doubt that his brand of common sense mixed with random goofiness will help him be an outstanding Marine officer.

Rad dude who's always up for doing something crazy and awesome. My most positive influence. "Dude? Wanna go to Costa Rica and surf?" "Dude, lets shred this sand dune!!" "Dude? Wanna go randomly run a marathon?" (We took first and second) Jake's Theory of Smartness turn me from a know nothing workaholic to a 3.5 student; tests are more fun when you don't study for them. I think all of us will agree that the worst semester at USNA was first semester, 2/C year. Jake = Rad." -DD "Likes to dress up like Elmo or a greasy mullet dude from the 70's 'cause it helps him get chicks and makes him feel like a spy...Altogether the best dude in the world. "One time me and my brothers…" Isn't that how everything else starts too? Too bad Sean missed a great Pat Green concert, the rest of us had a great time. Or how about the time he got into a boxing match with a 12-foot inflatable snowman? Or that memorable subway ride back after the Army/Navy game in New York. When doing something dumb won't do, he has a unique ability to not be at a loss for words. That looks "crappy." Sean had to take a class to learn to speak English, as opposed to hillbilly. He still doesn't believe that A'reckon' is not a word. Being an accessory to peeing on a statue will put you on restriction, ask him, he knows. "High I'm tact, have we met?" Get 'er done.

Perfect plebe roommates: Adam, "Bye Jake, and die and rot in hell you inbred hick." Stealing Sean's pre-breakfast snack of Starburst and Mountain Dew and his John Deere hat. "I ate the Booberry, sorry." It's been fun; hopefully the Marines will provide you with a more comfortable bed then the floor beneath your desk, but I wouldn't count on it. (JRM) "I'm picking up on your sarcasm." You definitely lay it on pretty thick. Oh no! Call 3-3333, the price of Booberry cereal is now 3,000 dollars! Who can forget the owner of the Red Rocket. It could take us "All around the world." You're so sassy with your laundry rules and your genius conversations online, "Fine, we won't f@!#." Pirating cable and forming A Ladies of King Hall calendar. Easter dinner, spring break to Panama City, and Army/Navy football adventures were all the best times and we got to experience the famous ranting and raving sessions that you're so good at … the best ones being about the P-factor. You might want to avoid falling flat on your face while intoxicated, save that for Panama City. Such great times! Don't ever lose your spice. Lata Flava

Shannon Marie Revell

Franklin, TN

On June 30th 2000 I reported to the Academy as a very motivated, very clueless, but well meaning plebe and haven't changed all that much. Running track, studying chemistry, making life-ling buddies and growing up have made 4 years fly by. Though over those years, the 4 walls of Bancroft have drawn out the craziness in me. After flying in a helio, I only dreamed out of jumping out of the back in a scuba suit. I like to think that I am not mentally sound, but medical has cleared me!- SMR…Hi, my name is Shannon Revell, ooohrah! Pizza! Pizza! Pizza! Pull up your pants, girl. Gelato on the weekends, by the gallon, thanks John. Why are you under your desk? The fire doors are supposed to be closed, I swear. Phone calls from people we don't know at 2am…yes, I know about it, thank you! It holds 3 songs…well, it did…whew, thanks John. Why are you two in the men's room? Crazy boys, crazy stories, hope there's more in store! -KAS…What Shannon? You want to go blow s##t up? You managed to do it all: sushi/dancing/coffee/spontaneous flights to the Bahamas. But please don't forget trying to pick up guys in Tijuana. You will be sorely missed when a Trader Joes run is necessary for maintaining life. Chocolate covered espresso beans, careful you get wild! Lets shake the buzz and go run for the track team: 400x10 with no break if you dare! DC to DTA…10 min..need I say more? Beach babe how do you keep those abs of steel so hard? Was it the movies in snow storms or the tow rope off of your sailboat? No. It was the all night dancing from swinging to techno. We all know you will be great-luv-E

Ringo- "Slowest Dude In The World"...Sat next to Paris and Nikki Hilton at a private party for 2 hours & didn't say a word to them. "Hey dude, you want to do that EOD screener," & he ends up doing it in the end. Pulled some Hooter's chics in NYC just to have it ruined by that awful dude. -MikeM. Hi! Austin eats, and rocks. And in his spare time he surfs like a champ, breaks all the girls' hearts, and goes above and beyond the call of duty to do rad stuff. You're so rad.-JD. Ringeldingel, Mr. Danger himself-there's never a dull moment around you. To think it all started that summer day we fought over who had more scars. From random adventures, to March surfing hypothermia, to scaring people by blowing into raisin boxes, we've done some pretty cool (and weird) things! Hey I wouldn't stalk you if it were not worth it. You rock my world.-M.M. The man who knows everyone; member of the Triad & fellow adventurer, you're a true freestyle master. Hard working, determined, sincere, relaxed. From using a Crocodile Hunter flashlight to dig for Roman artifacts to the perfect All-American family dinner...from surf trips to ski trips...you've taught me more than this school ever could. –JRM. In sum: LET'S SKIP DRILL AND GO SURFING IN A HURRICANE! (ya that's right, Gunny Kob).Thanks friends-(as the wise Scholer said, it's all about people.) Kev, you inspire me everyday. Caitlin, mom+dad, friends and fam, thanks for being there when I needed you most. I love you all.

Dmitry Rukhlin

Dima is the man. No, no, no...He's the guy behind the guy behind the guy. Get some Patron in him and he's like a big bear with giant claws and sharp teeth. He wasn't always this money, though. There was a time when he lived in a bubble, and he knew nothing of car insurance, moils, or the practices of religion. He lived a happy life, eating kosher foods some of the time and never, ever needing a chair. When we burst the bubble, we created a monster named El Ruso Sucio. He began biting women, eating roses, forgetting to remove his socks, and relieving himself under beach chairs. His spending habits became erratic (Walt Disney would like to thank him for the charitable donation), and he became legally classified as lethal weapon behind the wheel (that one is not our fault...thank you Manhattan cab drivers). Today, his car, much like both his shoulders, is nothing but a thin covering over reconstructed innards. His musical influences range from the Russian national anthem to the theme songs from his favorite films (which have inspired some of his best work; they really ARE the greatest thing ever). One thing, however, has never changed. He will still give you the shirt off his back without a second thought to himself (or to the ghastly sight of his exposed glasscutters). His father is exceedingly proud of him, and we all know that his Mother, may she rest in peace, would unquestionably feel the same way.

Whether you're looking for whoever took all the extra cookies from King Hall or your latest video, look no further than Joe. This climber extraordinaire enjoys So Co, Crawfish Etoufee, Lasagna, and getting rufied in Fredonia. He's the only man we know to be yelled at for being considerate enough to vomit directly into a toilet, and also the only man to be banned from the highway system of the state of Pennsylvania. He's Dima's guitar backup, Litchfield, Jr, the Greatest Wardroom Officer Ever, and the Undisputed Champion of Getting Kicked out of Spinnaker's. What you have to remember about Joe is that he's always right; it's reality that's flawed. Be sure not to get him mad, or he'll invoke the Toothbrush Revenge. Beat Army, shipmate, not me! A man with uncompromising standards, in his book it's either a ten, or it's Tucker Max Time. After all, he was able to hook everyone else up during Spring Break, except himself. He's always willing to do something personally before he asks someone else to do it, no matter what the task – except for getting ditched in Europe. He'll soon be making his father and brother proud, by following in their footsteps right into the Marine Corps. Joe, you're money and you don't even know it. Oh, and we're still sorry about not getting your truck.

Four years at USNA have left many great memories… ASC and the trashcan… SAC and… and… whatintheheck did that guy do that's even remotely incriminating anyhow? My roommates tell me that they will universally remember me for my ability to clean the floor. Apparently it had something with a trip to the Fleet Reserve Club followed by a bout of scrubbing the floor in less than a complete set of PT gear. I assure you all that I have no idea what they are talking about, can't remember a thing. How sad. What can I say, maybe I should have been around company area more often… Oh well. Here is to our the company and all the fun we had evading LT-Z, introducing and inevitably re-introducing ourselves to LT-R, chillin with LT-H and, of course, discussing the finer grammatical points of the English language with Gunny… Friggen heellllllll-yeah! You all are the best, and most entertaining, group I have yet to come across. Special thank you's to Mom, Dad, Danya, Hilary, Dave and all of my other family, friends and fellow Marines that helped me to get here. Thank you again to all of those who helped me to succeed in the race to graduation. 143HRM and Semper Fi Marines!

SHAWN DAVID WILKINSON

JOHNSTOWN, PA

How did Shawn Wilkinson get through boot camp? He "did a lot of pushups." Odds are he probably thought it was fun. In fact, he has the unbelievable knack for making everything fun. He's so happy about life that he hasn't stopped fidgeting for over twenty years. Whether it was teaching Koo to sing in English, sailing, or even living with Kenny Cruz, he was having a blast. He had fun wild-manning the LT, and had fun paying for it. He had the best November dress-up parties anywhere in the hall Plebe year. Don't get him started on Beauty and the Beast, or any other Disney movie, for that matter. If you have a computer problem, he is the hardware master, and he even likes helping out (the Brigade MISLO doesn't pride on customer service the way Shawn does). He doesn't like SWAT-style intrusions, but he forgives and then gives you some free software anyway. Shawn even enjoys change. He got kicked out of community college, he changed roommates every year, changed cars, changed majors, and changed his choice for service selection more times than we could count. (Who bases a career decision on dolphins?) And in the end, he service selected…husband? Actually, she's about the only thing he can decide on, which says quite a lot. We might shudder at the sound of the wedding bell (it tolls for thee), but we know that nobody deserves happiness more than our friend Shawn. (We'll assume that the gray hair means he knows what he's doing.) He returns to the Marine Corps a little bit older, a little bit wiser, with a new wife and good friends. We should all envy him.

Someday I'll be able to figure you out and when I do, you'll be coming to church with me on a weekly basis. CTR (Choose the Right), future lax coach at USNA, richie meade,, ball buster, watch out for drunk pilots, Ben Bailey made it his mission to single-handedly keep Acme in business. His efforts are so legendary that a statue will be erected on the dance floor, appropriately depicting Ben gettin down to "Shake Ya Tailfeather". Both Jones's stop telling me this stuff…, kicking my a$$ in PS2 everyday, NASCAR and the beer shower, Billy Bill and Will, the Grove and Fox and the Hound, "so Will why can't you walk…", watch out for those keys. A great friend. Saturday nights will never be the same, building a tolerance at the condo, remembering the empty case…..you tell me what happened and we'll both know :-)…the road had to be built somewhere… grandfather clock…room 3221 and 3227, late night talks and chalk tossing competitions, our first calls ashore, acme, "you've got 45 min until practice"….."I know, but why are you sleeping on the bathroom floor?" Have no regrets! Aerosmith/Kiss, Niners/Ravens, the 5 hour drive to Phili, wait are you sure it's house #465? Memphis, improving the odds after starting off 2 for 4. Sweet Dreamin', Polar Bear Plunge, finally in a bathing suit… 21st birthdays…puke and rally, da bronco, preakness, sitting on the window ledge waiting, missing more classes than anyone thought humanly possible, you've been there done that and still made it. NFO in June….all the way baby! Plebe year's rough, youngster year a haze, 2nd class alittle better, firstie year the best, NFO….june fourth looking better and better everyday.

DIETZ!!!!! One moment Sir! The infamous beginning for The Dietz Platoon has continued throughout the last four years. The scary part is after reporting Dietz Platoon all present or accounted for he went on to become Brigade Adjutant. "DIETZ BRIGADE, 2004 PRESENT." Although he never said this we can never forgive, or forget, the insanity that followed this red-headed ditz as he ran his way through the Boat School. Maybe one day we'll forgive him for responding "Dietz Platoon, all present or accounted for!" But the comedy factor for us all when 2/C Murray freaked out while asking, "Dietz!! Who's accounted for?" is just too great. May he always be the shark hunting for the PMP bears, if for no other reason than being bald. "Stop Smiling Dietz!" - MSP

CLAYTON CAESARE BEAS

BLOOMINGTON, CA
SURFACE WARFARE

It's pronounced Bay-es not bees. Who's Clay? Now where did I put that…? Alarm clock going off ten times a day. Che Guevara. La puta means king. Stop talking about history, no one cares. Mexican without being Mexican. New word in the English language: Beezinized, drunk beyond the point of no return. Drooling, eyes red, singing La Bamba, no more bar tables, has to be dragged back to his room, holds on to things, missed BOOW musters. It's been a good time. Useless arguments, almost fights. Daily fatness check in the mirror. Late night snacks. Highest ranking person to fall out of drill. Don't go swimming after thirteen rounds. UNA MAS! Nair for Christmas, did you use it? Desk is not meant to be used for that. Blackhole squad. Plebe Summer: Personal invitation to align, I'm not going to say any names, Beas! Janis's house and singing. Quiet, shy. Always reliable. Talks real. Braddah beez, you nuttz, bu. Dats solid dat you're goin to pearl harbor brah, the islands needs a braddah like you to teach them the true meanin of bein beezinized. It's been real. Good luck in Pearl. Take care & aloha.

BRIAN KEITH BLASCHKE

I don't know if I am gonna get pilot. I am nervous… I don't know if they'll give it to me. So how many anchors? S kickers, and the ranch… Brian in his element. The big hunt. Cruising south padre. Girls gone wild at dinner next to us… Mary is better. "I hate my major" Dahlgren dates and long walks with Mary. Thank God for the cookies, and the jerky. Thanks for taking the trash out, everyday. How much can you possibly wash your hands? Pat Green! Thanks for introducing us to Miguel. Ring Dance. . Fumblerooskу fumbler, Yit Yaw. Sightseeing on your flight sim. Crew Rest already? It's only 2/C Year! Twenty minutes till class? We can get an episode of Friends in. It's time to shred. A class together every semester…why stop now? Good ol' Andrew…sir. –BH –DFT –MT -MAC

ERIC DANIEL BREGE

DECATUR, IN

Eric, the conscience of our group…well almost. You are settling down and getting married, but not after a few reminders of your past. Drinking with Willy beer for beer, then puking at Bobby's commissioning ceremony. Throwing magazines and bean-bags at Jamo for two years. Orlando trip, renting a car as a plebe. Flexing by the pool…blinder in hand…anyone up for a margarita? "Dave Jeopardy's on at 7, want a rematch!" Lincoln, how about a bottle of wine? …..shipmate, got time for a haircut?? Access to cheap drinks at the Fleet reserve club. Being violated at the Red Rock Western Saloon, while meeting your future wife. By the way she thought he was a male stripper. Josephine bribing us with brownies and cookies. Last but not least opinions on nuke school, subs, the Academy and your favorite…..3 OUT 1 UP! Best of luck in California, catch a wave for us.

DAVID ANTHONY BUSH

OAKLAND, CA
SURFACE WARFARE

Life wouldn't be complete at USNA without somebody to keep it real, to tell it exactly like it is, and simply to KEEP IT DIRTY. The Last of a Dying Breed : THE REALEST. I could never go to war without a Lieutenant and DIRTY was always that man. If winning isn't everything, why do they keep score? Somebody has to come out on top and we seemed to always find our way there. KEEP IT GANGSTA YOUNG DIRTY!!

DB, or should I say Dertee. Dave, the man with all the answers to wardrobe color coordination from head to toe. An athletic, smart, comical, ladies man that keeps the rythm in his feet. Bush, takin the fleet by stuntastic form. Holla at cha boy from Muskogee. MC

Girls call him David, I call him habib. Listens to loud music, lectures all the girls, rides on twenties, dances all the time. Money, girls, rims...what else is there. Met him in the weightroom, lived with him for 3 years, stay friends forever.

RHSC, Dirty B, New Orleans is his "Big Easy" home. He wanted to thank his mom and dad for their support and guidance throughout his journey. Chris Founded D&C's with Jake and Jamo. NAPS 00', the abundant Geese, and still keeping it real ever since the Weasels and Mogrel, "Race car ya yas" and your brand new speakers. Blue 2WD Ford explorer. J24's, summer school, another "great day on the Bay," and all of the hours listening to D, North U, and Nancy, racing Woody Wood Pecker, Pirana, Grandma, and Suck Boat. Classic Carson combinations: 40 knots, midnight, and a barge... Swift 2002… 1 mast, Chippewa, another mast, West Marine Quality foulies, and 3 straight days on the rail from Newport to Bermuda. Vigilant 2003, hotdogs and dejenaise. "We need some women" Never was there a more dedicated spin trimmer… "head up, fall off, gettin' greedy, I'm losin' it." "Dirty Dirty." Dirty D, grab the handle bars and hold on, PT PT PT, and yet "I'm so tiny and small." "Pontoon, Pontoon, your location over." "The Black Ice". DOD… "Peace!" → 126 days. Acme Smackme, "Fight? No need, I'll hit myself." "Jamo, not nice." The Kegairator, thanks Jamo, beer pong ,Great times at D&Cs and all the guys there. "What happened last night?" 8017….SMD! CS, fans, Dougiefresh, Jamo, and Jacob….nice demerit count. Panama City, Mardi Gras 2004, Aruba… "You either get busy living or get busy dying"… Congrats on finally making SWO "Tip of the Spear" after 5 long years… see ya in Pearl Harbor.

MICHAEL SCOTT COPPOCK

LAGUNA NIGUEL, CA
NAVY PILOT

We spent three and a half years as room mates, serving as bad influences on one another. There were many a late night spent with video games and DVD's that were regretted in the morning. You gave me two things that I will never forget: waking up to the smell of whatever magical coffee you always brewed in the morning, and all the character you built during 2/C Spring Break. Congratulations on getting pilot. Now you have to show the fleet what Il Duce can do. Good luck with your future, I'll make sure I steer a straight course to make your landing easier. -Mike Tyree

Mike, the craziest and (don't tell anyone) most caring mid I know. God I hope you sleep in flight school. Video games are a terrible weakness, but you got pilot so they must have paid off. All those cookies and care packages fueled the fire. Sleeping with a sheath knife under your pillow and a gun in the bedside table, hope I never meet you in a dark alley. Crazy Californian. Crazy enough to get married that is. Perhaps someday you'll open Arnold's Pizza Shop. It'll be suiting, because I'm a choir boy compared to you. Through it all, we couldn't have gotten there without having such a great room. When I need some CAS, I hope you're the one coming to save my ass. -Brian Ehrhardt

MARCUS MARVIN CRAIG

MUSKOGEE, OK
NAVY PILOT

MC through the eyes of those who surrounded him. MC is what they call him. The Okie from Muskogee that can freestyle any ol' school u ask him too. From the beginning it was ohhh shooot, and by the end it was man seriously, but I tell you what, there is no other man you can count on when you need something, but only if he is on time. A great friend...that man DEZE. To Marcus, aka Crizou, a true friend who's been there for 5 years strong. Maybe I can make it to the backseat of your plane in a few years. Until then, it's been a fun ride..TIMC. Marcus Craig, known for his laugh that never stops and even paralyzes when Froi is having fun. "Get outta here man", "Curveball BLAM", Lets not forget the Muskogee Magician, where is Muskogee? All I know is they rope and ride there. I will always remember to stay off the court, and take care of my chicken legs. Can't wait to turn the page and see what happens in the next phase of our life. Oh yeah. OU sucks...Go Gators..out…CRAIG. Craig, the daddy of the room. Works hard, plays even harder. He knows how to laugh, sing, be an athlete, be a gentleman, and be a friend. Dave, Marcus, Lincoln-roommates for 3 years, friends for life…LUKEY MAN.

He came to the Academy MM3, and will leave an officer because of one man, Lincoln, the Prez. Derrick Dreese, AKA Das Boot, Puppy, Daetoe, was always known as and always will be the warrior among us, the one knowledgeable about the ways of the world. There were a few lessons along the way even Das Boot had to learn. Many of them came from PQ, another highly knowledgeable about the world. The lesson about rules at the Annapolis mall comes to mind. Somebody get this guy a gift certificate for starbucks, cant get enough coffee. He may ask for the boot again but don't give it to him, his toe is better off without it. He always has the latest gadget like the proper Nuke he is. Using his vast skill base, he constantly acted as the mediator for the Bulgarian and killa Beas. See ya at the O-club, good luck with married life, and dont forget the proper procedure for picking stuff up from the floor during plebe summer. It has been a long, adventurous, four years and I just want to thank God for being my foundation and guiding my way through. Brandon, thank you for being my best friend and true love throughout the whole journey. Mom- thank you for always being there to talk to and to support me. Thank you for all the encouragement and prayers. I wish everyone the best of luck. God Bless You- HCE. For me the single greatest event at the Naval Academy was finding my best friend. She's the one who cleaned my room plebe summer because she had the time. She broke the rules for me, despite being afraid. She kept me here and grounded when no one else cared. She liked my Elvis-leg at Ring Dance. She traveled halfway around the globe with me. We've met all of our milestones together and achieved all of our goals. You are my best friend, Hayley, and the only one I can't do without.- JBS

Looking back on the saga of PK-T, from the ditty bopping days of “Kepner, get some Rogain, heh heh heh” to the beginning of the Happy-Family-4-Ever youngster year, PK-T has had an impact on all the lives he has touched. To all those that know Paul well, we have all shared in the experience of watching his relationship with Paige blossom from the days of 3am, “No I wasn’t sleeping babe” phone calls, to the “Hey, my phone’s dead, can I use yours? Hey Paige!” moments, to the stage dancing wild woman of Ring Dance saga. We all just hope and pray that our ferocious night crawler, worm wielding, skateboard riding, skipping class for snowboarding, “I’m going surfing” friend will always remember the late night soft talks, sleeping in the dead rat stink-sack nights of B-D-B-D-B’s. Thanks for dancing the robot till Dan OD’ed on JD, for sleeping in the shower on more than one occasion, for the Margarita Ville vacation from hell “See you later hot girls…we got to shower and get ready for a big day at the Magic Kingdom,” for the checkered shoes, impeccable taste in clothes, for not getting too angry when your camera got destroyed (from Tim), and most of all, for just being your-gotta be weird-self. “Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah, the Bulgarian Barbarian, sir.” “Sir, instead of saying American, may I say ‘I am a Bulgarian, fighting in the forces . . .’” “The bird is beautiful, her features are so exquisite” “Goldschlager?! This is perverted. Who drinks gold?!” “Boo Sheet!!!” “This is quite possibly the best dip ever” Never have I ever met someone so dedicated to learning, that he would get mad if people pray for the snow in order to have school canceled. Steve has the most warped sense of reality, but hey, he must be right. He understands material so well, I believe he knows it better than the professor sometimes. And boy can he dance. If you hear “Shake Your Tailfeather” in the club, you better watch out because an out-of-control Bulgarian is somewhere cruisin’ soo hard with no regard for his or anyone else’s safety. He is definitely the coolest Bulgarian (slash Hawaiian) I have ever met and with the stuff that comes out of his mouth, he has definitely made it an exciting ride here at the academy. Keep bustin’ out that C-Walk, Bogey. Cruz too hard. I LOVE King Hall. How could you not like this? Its delicious! “It’s raining men” Discotechs? More like running in place. Has to study. Hell no, I wont take your watch. Versus PRT and Military Professionalism. Watch out for flying SDB buttons. Goofy laugh. Don’t call him a Communist. Number of times he threatened to kill his roommates: uncountable.

For one, you have always been right about Dan. You are a crack shot. NRA forever. Also, you are as open minded as I am handsome. Some girls got away, but they weren't "that good". Southern rock is back on the rise, I completely agree. Dan and I will forever miss you and Chad giggling like girls on the phone. Very noble of you to teach us some wrestling moves in your free time. Remember the girdle you wore? Remember Orlando? "The hotel's so small from here". Ok, you really weren't that bad…the 18 hour Florida drive, Cocoa Beach, "Hey Steve, look who's here!", "I'm so burnt! We tried to hold you back w/ 16 slices of American cheese. Spawn gave you nightmares. Sheila and Picture Man, father of 2. Restraining order against the girl of your dreams. Trapped naked and fully shaved in Paul's bed frame, but you made it out. The sun in Vero Beach brought you within an inch of your life, but Steve survived. SPF 4: Good call. Car torture. Even the "trainer" on your chest tried holding those bad boys back, but Mardi Gras freed them for good. And for that matter, how dare that youngster not give you her name?! You've come a long way from from your days of "Lenny Stinknut" and we don't want him coming back now. All in all, Dan, you've graciously dealt with a lot to be our best friend, but you have and will always be the friend we both need. Steve and Paul

Rob "The Rat" Sarver. Now that we are graduating, it is time to move on to bigger and better things. Time to say goodbye to Poison, big hair, and Guns N Roses…but then again, Poison did pull a lot of tail. How about you trim those sideburns Mr. Sarver. What did you need Baby Oil for anyway??? Here's to countless nights of packing into the clown car, changing in the streets, and getting back for taps with 30 seconds to spare, and of course the Choo-Choo Lounge. Two years of 5:30 workouts and Jamo snoring. Acapulco or Restriction…was it worth it? Best of luck in Hawaii.....stop hitting on the tourists.

JAIS! Hello Mr. Man this is Mr. Man. Lets recap: Never had a proper uniform on, ever. Too bad Kat was 15 (too bad her sister was 13). Anybody up for a road trip? You still have that phone number we got somewhere around the GA FL border? Thank god for British kids, and for AK. There's a taint in my BOX. I told you once you started it would be all over. Watch out for those stationary tractors, they just jump right on top of you. Well B-rad, those are just a few of the more notable memories. I am sure we will make plenty more when we take Florida by storm. Thanks for always dragging me out and helping me to be more spontaneous. You are the reason that some might actually consider me funny. Shimz ~ Red Okay, now it's my turn. Ralphie, you are by far the worst roommate ever. We did have some good times, though. Wafflestomping waffle, fruit and windows, cable vs. baby lacrosse stick, and all that stuff I probably shouldn't mention. Lenny, you're the flyin Hawaiian. Hui boo. I learned a whole new language talking li'dat. Jonny Fran, you smell. To the GC boys, wow. I think there's too much to mention between Hick, Red, Capp'd, and Grizzy. 4 years out of control. That's the way it should be. Everybody else, thanks for making it a fun ride.

Dave “My monitor is bigger than yours” Caffrey. If it isn’t computers then I don’t want to know about it. For all you roommates out there who know nothing about computers, “fix it yourself, it is real easy to do.” But please don’t mind me because the mirror and I have a date. “Sorry guys, its time for my post-lift shower.” “Do you know why there are BMW keys on my desk?.. Oh yea, It’s my car.” 3 day weekend in Texas? I don’t believe I know what you’re talking about. Did I mention that I have a BMW? I’m sorry I wasn’t listening. The Red Army Will Return To China!! Tell Anna we said ‘Hi!’ BMW. Surround sound and an IMAX Screen a must. Crew really is a sport…I swear. We’re so hard-core we even have hard-core nicknames, mine’s Idaho spud, or just spud, and I even made the boat a few times. I’m going to watch some obscure, foreign film and lose the stage of history, want in? Actually I have to clean my BMW first. Ships and Aircraft is a great read. Who put that gross pillow on the floor? Hi this is Gus Caffrey and I beat you in the marathon. Hey Dave, what is Nick up to? Any new trailers out? It’s a Black BMW. As you SWO it up in San Dawg, steer clear of TJ, Jon’s not there to take you back.

CHIEF: Two words, constantly achieving. You can even go as high as calling him the mighty CAESAR. From establishing himself in San Diego to down in the mighty Jamaica, TIMC is a man of many talents, but most of all someone u can count on. BIGGITH: TIM C, CAESAR, PIMPEN and a bunch of other names I cannot include in a yearbook. We have been through a lot, from UNTAMED.. TO GORILLA.. TO the quiet married life but you have remained a true friend and for that I thank you -BIGGETH. DIRTY: When I think of history and who was “ THAT MAN?” I have to think of Caesar. The one man who conquered all he could see. We are still adding up W’s in the win column of life. Constantly Achieving, Always winning and never losing. RIDE OR DIE: Tim- Long nights/early mornings in D.C. The second coolest cat that I know, besides myself of course. Have fun in Pensacola, and don’t forget about yah boy.

Our Brown Suga from TX. Spring Break Bahamas '01. NAPS 2000, baby "The Brown" was born. Sleeping through plebe year in Rob's basement. Whose house? Rob's house. Shady, shady youngster star and a 40 of Puckers? What? Intercessionals, hangin' out with the PZ's . . . CPZ??? Ring Dance, once again, MPZ. Leatherneck, spooning in the cold, you loved it. Lindsey will never think of the treeline the same without you. You're the eye of the tiger, you're the king of the fight . . . Our boxing babe forever. What, What!!! Love, LPZ, LAS, JLG, LMB If there is one thing you can say about Amber, it's that she has a lot of heart. When she was told she couldn't do something, she kept fighting, even when nobody else would help. That's how she became one of the first females to be allowed to fight in Brigades. She became a Marine partially because people told her she couldn't. She's strong willed. Nobody so small has ever been as intimidating. She was never afraid to tell anyone exactly what she thought. There are two sides to Amber, the girly side and the tough side. She makes it work somehow, like the pink boxing gloves on her board. Those of us that really know her found out that she's really a sweetheart, and that she really loves cheese. She did every job the best she could, even when she didn't want to do it, and she was always there for her friends. EDS

AARON RICHARD HICKMAN

NEWARK, DE
SUBMARINES

Aaron Hickman is the only one of us who has been a striper since Plebe year. Hick, de la where? The only reason for any productivity in Unit 3 frequently stopped productivity to point out our lack of productivity. He was also one of the major reasons that Swerve graduated (at least, we hope he did). The fact that Hick was the "slave driver" of the group adds an element of irony that was at least medium funny. Coming from a family of millions, his key to success was simple: "When doing the worm, you want to avoid the flying push-up look; the desired effect is more of a flying dive-bomber." The token black guy is most situations (Glee Club, Unit 3, Navigators, Brigade Staff, Delaware), Hick was constantly found sporting his panty hose on his head. "Have you seen my wave cap?" Four years after I-Day, Hick actually started to like us, he even started to warm to… (See J. Allen of 12th Co. or for more on Hick, read on ) Never was there a more grateful, outspoken, obnoxious, caring, fun, super intelligent, wickedly handsome, excitable, and eternally patient friend. Hick and Lantz are closer than any brothers I could ever have. Saved so many people, including me, by going out your way and doing what you believed in. Herndon—the triumph and heartache; 3249; getting the honey's in glee club; intercessionals at your house; youngstar backshaft, 8353; took your spot at Air Force; Striper duties, Avramov, O'Brien, living off deck; 8155; the Plasters', kayaking in the flood after Isabel, roasting smores, telling stories, enjoying life = the best years of my life, because you are my friend and always will be.

Be Blessed. You came in here a Marine and now you're going out as one—2nd LT Lantz! That sounds great man! Started off with 2-3 (Schmidt and Paul) and came a long way since "Lantz, Ship, Shipmate" Plebe year sucked but you were humble to swallow your pride and be with us straight-out-of-high-school kids—led by example and gave humor to a lot of bullshit. Youngstar year was awesome with football games on Friday, sleeping in, had some trouble staying out of trouble but we got a handle on it. You lost one roomie 2nd class year, but more than made up for it when we came back as firsties. Ah Firstie year, kickin ass in everything, best squad leader, first white gospel choir president, 'super sailor', look out it's a 3-striper, service assignment night, it all coming together shaking hands welcomed back to the Corps, "What's the matter Lion-O?", WTF mate?, rah!?, what the fuck is rah?, I'll never forget our small laughs and how you could make me mad or smile like no other. These have been the best years of my life. I'm glad you helped me make them that way. Semper Fidelis, and forever your friend.

"I'm a big toughy." (picture quote). "JIMMY'S DEAD!" "I can't... touch my toes." "I can't go to the brief tonight. I have a SIR chit from drinking too much yesterday" (it was an ADEO brief). "I'm off to tech-crew." "I'm off to Glee Club" (he had more jobs than he could count) "I can't feel my tongue!" "Dance, monkey, DANCE!" "WV BP girls are the greatest!" "I should never have shaved my body" (you should never bet against Navy). "You should have seen this 5.10 I pulled this weekend, man. I worked this beautiful crack up to the chimney and laid back to a heel hook on this nice flake. It was awesome." (...What did he say?) "Eric, I just don't think it's a good idea." (He was probably right most of the time. Looking out for his friends.) Quick witted, cold sarcasm that only a true friend understands, "Thank God for rumble strips!", so what's in the laptop case, techies on tour and run-ins with the law, "How the hell do you fall sideways?", catching the spoon for a friend in need, it's our wall and we'll scam the academy for all it's worth, Let the good times roll. "John can't sing..." wow was I wrong. We can go drinking anytime. PFM.

Where did the time go? It's been one wild ride from I-day 2000 through the senioritis of 2nd semester Firstie year. Thank you all my friends, our escapades left me with memories that will last a lifetime. O-course falling on my head = I'm not a Marine... Orlando MO: Splash Mtn in whites... Times Square... Gothic Club in Philly... Drinking with LTs in VA Beach...Spring Break Arizona...Busch Gardens... Comstock cruise '02... "Soda" on tap at the fire station... My 2 companies: 27th Gamecocks and Lucky 13... Coloring at TGI Fridays ... Find the bag! Bahamas '03...Ring Dance: What Booze Cruise??... South Bend road trip... A/N snowstorm... Polar Bear Plunge... DTA... Hammerjack's... and many more. Joe: 2 fabulous years; NYE '02... Crofton Park... Square Shoes... Mardi gras night... Gunnings... etc... I love you. The Zutauts = the best sponsors ever! Thanks for everything. Mom, Dad, Gail I love you. Thank you for inspiring me and believing in me even when I doubted myself. Here's to four great years by the bay. No matter where this life takes me, you will all forever be in my heart.

After a short pit stop in Newport, RI, Jeffey-Pop tortured himself on the crew team up at the Boat School. Joining the many ex-crewers around the yard. Going to D.C. or New York?? Where do you go anyways?? Lord knows you've only spent two weekends in Annapolis over the past four years...lucky. Want some chocolate or sweet bread? NO YOU AINT FAT! The only guy I know who made the academy look easy. Provider of febreze and glade plug-ins. QUIT PLAYING THAT SONG!! Hey do you think you have enough clothes?? Probably not. Proud member of the silent service, watch where you bend over. The only other surviving member of Club 8368. Who else could make drill usefull on the dance floor?? Always ready for a Fordham Helles. Bottoms up, bro. FUBU!!!! Jeff can be summed up in one simple phrase..."FREE BEER!!!" Yeah, thank God for Jay and that trashcan in the bathroom. We had some good times, and they all began cause you were forced to live with a boy the color of mayonnaise and our very own fresh across the border buddy. The Club made this place bearable for 2.5 years. Even with me gone we've still managed to hang out and continue our attempt at getting huge in the gym...I think I'm seeing results, no wait that's just the light flickering on and off...Here's to good times, good beer (including my fruity "girly" drinks), tipping bartenders for water, and keeping it real. Just remember, being underway is no excuse...HAHAHA

I'm sure Shiner Bock had something to do with keeping him sane at USNA, as we all have our beer of choice…well Chris has his girl drinks…but we won't blame him for that. We didn't make it through the 100 beers of the world club; I think the Fubu incident had something to do with it. Have a great life since I will apparently never see you at USNA again…ever…and no, you can't borrow my truck to drive to Norfolk! What can I say, ever since plebe year you've been a bad influence on me. Just think, between the two of us we have a total of 17 majors. Who'd have thought they'd keep us after all that? Congrats to us for earning our Black Ns and stars. We had our good times, our bad times, and that one time with that lady, you know the one I'm talking about. Nick came to us from the Taft School, with all the polished finish of a New England intellectual. Naturally, we did our best to scratch up the polish. We took him fishing and fed him cheap beer. We took him to Hagerstown and, we took him to Hagerstown. When he brought down his nice cars we put the Mustang in a ditch, broke off pieces of his BMW, and made out with girls on the leather seats. We even tried to fight him in the parking lot of a gas station in North Carolina. But in the end it was Nick who shaped us at least as much as we shaped him. His musical tastes, though often annoying, expanded our own. His arguments, though often frustrating, forced us to reconsider ours. And his actions, though often baffling, reminded us that there was life outside of midregs.

"The Enigma of Navy Crew". He who dies with the most DVD's, wins. "CS, stay loose; don't crack the antique toilet bowl!" If you were a hot dog, would you eat yourself? Even when wearing the signature idiotic grin, he's still the most down to earth Jaeger(can't get much closer when you own a tractor). Loves to dish it out, but sometimes the rhino skin wears thin. A stealth rower with smooth moves and never-ending strength on steady states, he's the state champion drunk wrestler, and he'll sell you out for a dollar, even if it's his. He eats nothing but the best Wisconsin Cheese, but goes cheap on the beer. Edward 40hands=bad news bears. Sadly, the closest to normal among the Jaegers. Girls liked him, too bad he wasn't ever interested. If Chris "I have a comeback for everything" Stevens wasn't doing it, be assured he was making fun of it, but he's guilty of "it" too. HOTC-the best race ever. Always out front, he's a true punisher who goes the distance and makes the left turn down Jabroni Drive look easy. Keep that sense of humor. His most important accomplishment in four years? That's easy: being a Jaeger.

Shamefully, he was named to the supe's list multiple times and led 27th company to the Fall Drilling Championship. But that is not how he will be remembered. ## Lucas Raymond Dreyer

Beaverton, OR

To my knowledge, until Lucas Raymond Dreyer graced the p-ways of this fine institution, no person had graduated based entirely on good looks alone. He is the first to do so and he is mighty attractive. Seriously, look at the picture next to this. He's a contemporary Dorian Gray—an Adonis if you will. His achievements here at the trade school, if carefully documented would certainly fill one side of a 3x5 note card. While maintaining his prestigious class rank in the high nine hundreds, Luke somehow found time in his hectic schedule to nap, examine countless movies, listen to impressive amounts of music, and polish off slice after slice of Dahlgren Hall sausage and bacon pizza. Perhaps, his only downfall existed with the strange odor that emitted from within his con locker. Some would argue this was actually a blessing because it added to his already famous mystique. No one knew for sure where the distinct odor came from. It may have been the ever growing pile of sweaty laundry or perhaps it was….no, it was definitely the pile of laundry. Luke is a true friend to everyone who knows him and I think after his five years in the fleet, his name will be immortalized as one of the greatest Lieutenant JGs this or any Navy has ever seen.

One of my most trusted and valued friends. From workouts to late night talks, from dancing to Shakira and Avril to crashing at Ted's, from squadmates to roommates, from DC to Quantico to San Diego, from girls to family to God to the future, it's been awesome. Keep pumpin the iron. You'll get to my level one day. haha. I'll miss you bro. Too bad you had to be a jarhead and pick Corps!! -JAG

We always have fun…squad-mate, Ocean City, road trip to Jersey Shore, DC after Herndon…, parties and dta; Chip-N-Dales and Hoss's Angels; Rescuing me from DOD; San Diego-always crazy fun, PB, Gas Lamp; TN-where you will always have a place to stay; Be good to my cuz; Semper Fi- our next adventure together; My brother- always looking out for me, great advice, comforter and confidant, great memories, a friendship for life, my best friend…I don't know if I could have made it without you! -LEW

SHUTUP!… I'll fry you! Morannnn!!!! "Tapia, get out of my rack Tapia! Your rack is just as warm as mine!" Maybe things would have turned around with you and Tapia had you gotten that rice cooker, who knows… Do you still have the bearing box? That was classic. No, I refuse to eat! "Eat with the BFU's!" Too bad ya lost the cell-phone contest… 'Whose Works?" You put up with the Club like a champ. For a Democrat you definitely looked very [Banana] Republican. Remember the night that I tried to banish you off of my deck for your commy philosophies. At least you were always vérrrry trendy. If you can't be a captain of industry you can always be my little sprout. The Duongster, remember the late night trips through the Ho Chi Minh Trail. And the satisfaction of seeing JL after his trip to the women's locker room. It's been awesome roomin' with you, you've been a great friend. From the days of old with J. Olson into first class year, we've been through a lot. We've both had the, ahem, privilege of rooming with Danno and surviving. I still believe you'll fly the first supercavitating underwater jet. Atlantic city baby here we come!!! And we're never goin back! ISL, MGM, MJH, ERH, ABD

Marine Pilot huh? I can't believe you put up with us for the last four years, you did really well, considering we never let up. Cookin' in the room… Phone always ringin', video games always playin, always… always in the room!!! Have you made up with her yet? R.Romeo, Pistol Pete… the many names of Fisher. Tigggggaaayyyy!!!! 200m with a handgun eh? Petie: "Uhh... Badgers Badgers Badgers, Mushroom! Mushroom!"

My guardian angel with a perpetual high and tight... If not for him, I'd be spending more quality time with Castillo in EM300 again. Then there was the blowing things away with M-16's over the summer, exploring the underworld of the USNA together, and trying not to fall asleep in Algorithms... and failing. Called "Fish" by some, this adventurous young Yut wannabe got his wish - he gets to go to Quantico and have other Jarheads yell at him, while he dreams about being ... anyplace else. Then its off to flight school, and from there the sky is the limit. A good shot with rifle, pistol, or shotgun he is also a fan of the arms - appropriate considering his new vocation. Either way, from the Boat School, he can only go up! ABD, ISL, JDT, JPW

Has it been four years already? I'm still trying to get used to the fact I'm in college. Guess all my family put up with my antics for that long. I love

Squad-mate, Ocean City, DC after Herndon; Hospital-you know I will always be there for you; Chip-N-Dales and Hoss's Angels; San Diego-aviation cruise, the beach, PB crazy nights, Old Town, ice cream, Kristen; Rescuing me from the DOD; dance partner so you can impress the girl; My Aviator. One of my best friends whom I have shared so many great times together; I'll miss you so much! Love always, LEW One of my most loyal friends. Giving. Always there to help me out in studies, goals, or just be there. He doesn't judge those around him, only accepts them for who they are and inspires all around him to be better in life. CBZ teammate; lifting partner. friend. mentor. brother. who everyone wants to be. "Why can't you all just get grades like Joel Gow?"... the $250 phone bill (my bad). dude, send me her IM name. hey, do you have a jack?...The Joel Gow Special. MUSHU! BLJ A best friend...Loyal, trustworthy, and always willing to tell it to you straight. From squadmates and roommates, to imaginary girlfriends and suicidal mice, we always had a good time. One of the smartest people I know, yet the most humble. I'll always remember the late nights and our crazy stories about how it used to be. I'm gonna miss you bro. TJD

Robert Charles Griffith

What can I say about Bobby Griff, the Stormin' Mormon. He started off in 2002 and decided that he liked 2004 better for some reason. The two year delay was spent in the Guat where he trekked through the jungles with just his machette and his Book of Mormon. He came back knowing Spanish and with some girl he claims to have met down there. How he conned her into thinking he was cool, I still dont know. Bobby was not only my company mate in good old 22nd Company, but also my roommate through a very trying Youngster year. This was a year that included PRT Failures (disqualified by the Nazi's on situps), the infamous Fryin' Hawaiian, Larry, ghetto rap tunes, more Fryin' Hawaiian, the first of the two hurricanes he lived through at USNA, Banana Wars with Tyrone, Rogue Spear/Rainbow Six tournaments, being called Mr. Griffiths and offered candy by the Fryin' Hawaiian (see a trend?), a roommate trying to sneak out a window instead of using a door, and last but not least, the Shower Scene. We had some great times and some bad times (Oops I did it again), but 6 years later we're still friends and now you're out in the fleet with the rest of us troublemakers. Keep on truckin' and peace in the east.

Hobos! Come on in [Capt Mishoe]! You are the true Icy Hot Stunta. Didn't see you too many weekends firstie year… North Cakalaky called to ya I guess. For all those times we've almost didn't quite make it back from Riordan's. We always managed to 'pay tribute' to 8th wing when we got back though. You got us in the Riordan's girls. You're definitely one of the best skiers I've ever seen too, very impressive skillz. So much ice you can skate on it. Edge dressing in T-court for the 19th, Tillet's got all the pics to prove it. Never EVER dress as a cheerleader again…. PLEASE, for everyone's sake. Introduced us all to Chapelle. Take a look, it's in a book you Lavar Burton mutha! You couldn't quite replace Adrian, but you sure as heck tried. Thanks for hooking me up with my girl, and the long drives South. In the words of Holmes, you are a bobo amongst slobos. And thanks to your dad for all the free Beer! ISL, MGM, MJH, ERH, DVD

SNUGGALUGGA BOFE!! And it's like Romeo and Juliet…Got any bubu with the fubu lately? RORF!! What kind of animal are you anyways? Baxter, the giant cat from hell, would be proud. You don't know what it's like in the Corps?? Its nights like this that you think about night stickin' the Canadians. You weren't on the Cole! "Is there anything to do on that side of the Bay Bridge so I don't have to pay the toll?" We used to watch Shakira, but after your dancing video, it's nearly unbearable. Check for the red light on the webcam, you're on candid camera. And we KNOW you thought about Everson. Always fantasizing about CBT. "Ms. Dixon, yeah! Ms. Dixon, yeah!!" "mmm…bofe." Labrie is thinking about you right now. Landon Howe's ears can still hear you. Remember the morning after Herndon—dirty bare feet, Budweiser shirt (un-tucked at that). Then there was the recon to the academic buildings plebe year. You realize if we didn't stop you from eating all the food, Moran could be dead right now… "God Holmes, you're always in the rack!! You rackmonster!!" Holmsie, why's the door always locked?! Next time remember to not lock yourself out while on CDO. Thanks for being a great roommate, our late night talks, and putting up with me on my "bad days." Just leave something for the rest of us to kill…you're not the only one out there. You really did play video games ALL THE TIME. And we are sick of risk. Is your name Kellen Smith? No, it's Shithead…or sheepmaster. Do you still have the FUBU jacket? You're lucky we told you what that was before you got shot up. We still figure you're at Cathy's now. She will always be your first love. Have you found any music post 1960? Roomies for 4 years! Most people would have killed each other by now… It's been, well, a sucky four years, but your spiritual support and comic relief (I HAVE NO BEARING, SIR!) have made it almost bearable. I wish you had picked another major, though, that way we both would have gotten a lot more sleep. You really did alright, though, you stuck with EE to the end, and that's your MO in life. You stick to it, even if it kills you. (James 1:12) You "have the potential to become an average naval officer", just don't ever become a POW. (SIR, THE LOCATION OF USNA IS…ANNAPOLIS, MD, SIR!) Thanks for always being there, for always being a brother I can count on. (Ecc 4:10) Things we couldn't forget even if we tried: "FREAK MY OOMPA-LOOMPAS!" "I have made it to the happy place…but cannot go in." "USNA Sucks," bearing face-off (I'm still sorry!), Mewitt trying to get a life… And countless other memories that will always define our happy times at the Severn River Penitentiary. "Fart Jennings! Fart!" Thanks for taking over as the screen with that one marvelous gastronomical emission and not ever being able to not laugh. What a shipmate. You even joined my team with your "Basketball sucks!" Had fun in the rack with General Wort? Mewitt and his "Mr. Jennings, why don't I have a girlfriend Mr. Jennings!" Those cannons with McFried were darn cold, almost ripped my friends off. Too bad those times at PA weren't spent with your awesome roommates. Oh well, just remember Proverbs 31 and Rm 8:28. Making the rounds(BB, CC, AM) in Annapolis were timeless. Marines to subs, you finally get to enjoy sunny California and bobas for a year without driving for an hour. Thanks for being my roommate and faithful friend from plebe summer till graduation. Blessings and best of luck. John 15:4 –KI

Adam Reel provided a very necessary counterbalance to the general indifference of 28th Company. When 'Reel Deal' entered a room you could actually feel the level of professionalism rise exponentially. He showed me that you can never let the little stuff slide- NEVER!! Furthermore, he taught me handy ways to apply the honor concept at home. How could I forget all the times Adam demanded more from me when I was sure I couldn't go any further. Times when I was certain the bar just couldn't be raised—Adam found a way. Whether it be the time he demanded all of Room Ramrod show up for a self imposed Alpha inspection on a Saturday night, or the time he fried himself for thinking about giving less than his best in a urinalysis—Adam refused to settle for anything but two hundred and ten percent. He is the sausage on my bacon pizza, which is to say he doubles my pork.

No matter what happens, Adam, remember, I was into you back when you were still underground, before you done blew up.

You're the best roommate a tragic underachiever, like myself, could ever hope for. God bless and keep dancin', because you're the second best dancer I know.

Why do we run back and forth night after night? Running so hard we throw up. Late nights, early mornings, cold fields, sweat dripping, Saturday mornings, Saturday evenings, broken bones, tendonitis and bruises. We run through it all. We do it because the smell of fresh sweat is heavenly no matter how gross that seems, because we live off endorphins and adrenaline, because sometimes hitting people frees your spirit, because we can party on the field just fine, because your invincible once you step on that field, because a nice hit can make you smile all night, because bruises are battle wounds, because the rattle of bones and your blood on the grass is a rhythm to live by, because it's possible to play fast enough to leave life behind. It has been a long road traveled to get where I am today. When all else fails, rely the most on those you trust. You know who you are and for that I thank you.

Dan Daly's shouted challenge takes on its true meaning - if you lie in the trenches you may survive for now, but someday you will die and no one will care. If you charge the guns you may die in the next two minutes, but you will be one of the immortals. All Marines die; some in the red flash of battle, some in the white cold of the nursing home. In the vigor of youth or the infirmity of age, all will eventually die. But the Marine Corps lives on. Every Marine who ever lived is living still - in the Marines who claim the title today. It is that sense of belonging to something that will outlive your own mortality, which gives people a light to live by and a flame to mark their passing.

Passed on to a Marine from another Marine!

Sweat dries, blood clots, bones heal. Suck it up.

Be a MARINE. Semper Fi,

Albert Caluag. Filipino godfather, I'm the king of ma people. Sure, I'm down… recon? Does Alby have my car? G-unit. Scandalous. Notorious Nine. No one excluded…: I love everybody. Nothin' like a Guinness with Mara.The Asian connection/ sensation. Whoreable, whorendous, Yamamathoes. The chicken has flown the coop. Open mic night. Tabatha. Weightlifting, mortal kombat. 112. The closest of friends… ever. We're comprised of so diverse individuals that it's amazing how we all get along. But that's how it worked, we fit in with another, complimenting one another so well that ordinary conversations end up being just series of uncontrollable spurts of laughter and 'remember whens'. This brotherhood is built on a rock, a foundation consisting countless of unique and unforgettable memories. We shared it all . We owe it all to our families. To my parents Virgilio and Carmelita and my sisters Rachel and Sarah, thank you and I truly appreciate everything you do for me. To our extended families (Miss Laura, Ryan, and Lindsay) who without them, I could not for see this love and friendship possible. To my baby, I'll miss you. And may we never forget John Paul Vito Ruggiero, who lives on, in each of our souls.

With that English accent and the twinkle in his eye doth John woo his bait, never coming back without at least one date. Top of the class, avid sailor and a trader of jacks, this Zealander lay smitten by none other than his All Blacks. The Lord doth cringe day by day as his second creature he oft does slay. Is there but one who can resist this Aussie's charm? That's right, I said Aussie and you can't do anything about it. Says Stewie, "You want it bad and you don't care who you get it from because you have no self-respect and that gets you off, doesn't it!" Cancun is his playground, day by day, drink by drink, night's a blur I didn't do anything too stupid I don't think. Nothin' but Love to our playboy goombah.

I have my doubts that such a naturally mope person has ever walked the decks of Bancroft. From his first day on the green mile, were he looked like he was lost, to his last downtrodden look at the kind-of-waxed deck of eighth wing, he always had a sad "nobody loves me look". Fortunately he was able to drown his trouble in the non-stop production of musicals and organ concerts. For three years his unmatched leadership in the Music Department won the praise of the Administration. What the music department will do without him is unclear. Oh well, everyone must retire. –JDGYou tried to hate me plebe year, but then you found out that I just don't ever go away, so you were forced to be friends with me...plus, we had too much in common....both from Chicago, both in every choir imaginable, both in the musical, and both suffering from codependency... thanks for showing me that I will never be truly healthy without good psychological help. And no matter how many girls you go through, you should know that I am the only one that will love you always. ~CP

ANNAPOLIS, MD
NAVY PILOT

The Great Bob-O received his appointment to USNA 13 minutes before the swearing in ceremony on I-Day and he quickly proved himself worthy of his title as "The Most Bad-ass Drum Major Ever." Despite his "emotional detachment" from friends and family, Bob is always game for a Disney song and can make a room look like "God came down and licked the floor." Cheers to the only man who sings to his shoes and whose very presence repels dust. Good luck flying that bright, shiny aircraft and here's hoping that you always keep your head "in the bucket."- DW * Robert W. Anderson IV, the man who hikes like a machine and enjoys every minute of it. GoNADS: 4 years of great times!!! - "You know I just want to quit." May the performance enhancement program live on through you, Bobby. So how did you get back to your room last night? Big drinks and big times. How many places can we close in a night? Remember Tiki-night and the dancing? I will take another Long Island Ice Tea. "Hi I am Bobby Anderson, Navy sailing coach." So how fast were you driving when your wheel came off? The man who is always fashionable and making a statement ... great friend and ... by the way ... where are you going to park your dinghy tonight? Thanks for the memories and the great times spent together. Best of luck in P-cola, you are going to be missed... JBS (Wolf)

From the Halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli we fight our country's battles in the air on land and sea.
First to fight for right and freedom and to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to bear the title of United States Marines. Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun. In the snow of far-off Northern lands and in sunny tropic scenes; You will find us always on the job --The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps which we are proud to serve; In many a strife we've fought for life and never lost our nerve. If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's scenes, they will find the streets are guarded by United States Marines.

MCKEESPORT, PA
SPECIAL WARFARE

Marshall Thomas "PARKER" Boyd. Remember this face. If you are a female between the ages of 14 and 39 and happen to live in the Greater Annapolis Area, chances are you will never be able to forget. Enter Parker Boyd, hero to thousands, boyfriend to one, roommate to two, father to three, and Navy SEAL to the Corps. During his four years by the bay, "the ole' Parker" participated actively in the local SPCA chapter and improved relations with Annapolis Women's Correctional Facilities, in addition to being the Men's Swim Team Captain and service selecting Special Warfare. The Parker was at home in the water… the land, however, presented many obstacles, all of which had a potent combination of estrogen and psychosis coursing through their veins. They came from all walks of life, and his roommates never ceased to be amazed at "what the Parker dragged in." Greatest Quotes: "It can't be 0630… I have practice at 0530!" "I just blew! I wasn't even happy I was chill." "I'll nail 'em all! Race, Color, Gender… I don't discriminate." "Orrr.." "Once I break the seal, IT'S ON." La la la…that's the sound of Marshall chasing squirrels (they're worth a wall jump…yeah right!). Who woulda thought the innocent, scrawny boy from Pittsburgh would grow up to be a seal. Good luck …don't forget all the good times. Your spontaneous, random comments will be missed. Navy SEAL, Systems Engineer, Swim Team Captain, and quite possibly the greatest friend and roommate anyone could ever ask for.

SANTEE, CA
SUBMARINES

Not much is known about the origins of Midshipman 042622. It is believed that he was not born, but rather grown as a part of a top-secret government experiment in genetics. In the mid 1980's after several "incidents" the experiment was deemed too unstable to continue. Secondary protocol was implemented and all subjects involved were slated for termination. However, as it is with all government endeavors the mess was not completely cleaned. One of the subjects known as experiment 133+ was able to escape and avoid the government's attempt to destroy the horror that they created. Through sheer luck, 133+ stumbled upon a young man who looked to be his exact double. "Are you my evil twin," the unsuspecting youth asked, "Yes! I am," 133+ replied as he plunged a knife into the boy's chest. 133+ then assimilated himself into the young man's life, taking on the identity of Grant Kelly Graeber. The inherent nature of his genetics drives him toward one purpose and one purpose only: to take over the world. The most important piece in his puzzle of world domination is the mastery of military strategy and tactics, as well as "blood to oil the machines of my capitalist regime." This led him to become Midshipman 042622 at the United States Naval Academy. In his time here he has corrupted five roommates and created the most elaborate master control center ever conceived. While working at his plans for ruling the earth he constantly screams, "For teh Unification."

Almost every day he makes plans with Suriano to get stationed in Okinawa to finish the good work they've started during their leisure time for water polo related activities. Some assorted semblances of wisdom: That's not a hat bill, "I'm Joey", King of the DP, the savior of the USS Awful..."more dudes", Boiler/Bomber hunting in VA beach, drug deals and cat calls from the shady 8 motel, walking route 50 on your 21st, rally caps, Chew your food! Wreaking havoc on offensive squads, "Alchemy?" "Do you know the number to China?", Shot. Shot. Shot. Ber. Delaware (land of the taken) was sort of Deja-vu...I swear, that chick just leaves you no choice...fine, if it'll get you to shut up and leave, Swope a dope…making fun of everyone in the class… every day, Entertaining the pathetic and sad alike with IM profiles that dazzle and confuse, Delaware again...Bill dancing...1 second later, Bill leaving out the front door, In memoriam he hopes to join Huey Lewis's rock band, and is haunted everyday by the realization that time-traveling is just too dangerous and one should devote themselves to study the other great mystery of the universe: Women. Trump stole all my money. Nice Guys Finish Last. The Game is Cheating. Yeah, go ahead; date my baby sister. I like to wander, its what I do. How do we get rid of that smell? Ummm…11…at least. Well, it has been quite the adventure beginning with the Plebe summer room experience. "Sir, I know all the Laws of the Navy" claim which surprisingly he did, the Pinney closet explosion, Philadelphia Phillies trip, broken metro car, weird cab rides. Judging from the last 4 years I'm sure there will be more good stuff to come– MP-The famous Jared Patton- ran the Boston Marathon backwards, looked like an idiot in high school, will not pass gas in public places. Cheers to the most motivated pleber who never learned to drive– DCW-No pants time! Socks before pants– PLO-HOOT! Smallest guys on the Rugby team! Run Cheech Run! Haven't worked out in a year…gonna go max the PRT now… I'm broke. The all-American kid from Montana hoped for the rapture as he stared through the blinds of his plebe room. You thought that the world was ending four years ago, but, really, it was just beginning. "It only gets better from here." Think back to the days of eating the cows you raised and playing endless hours of basketball in your Hoosier-like gym. Those years will always be a part of you, and so will those at OOHSNA. Now, whose that an impression of? Jean Claude? "To inspire and be inspired." "Why don't you just flush this one down your toilet and see what comes back up"… yeah, you don't like anyone to say anything nice about you, so I won't, but… It's been said that "There's a fire in this young man that can set the world ablaze." Long live the dark side! Well gosh, I can't believe you've never had rocky mountain oysters! You've crushed every challenge you've ever faced, and, by God's grace, you will step out into the world… I mean… back-handspring into the world and show them how wonderful life can be! Come on monkey-boy, dance! "I…just wanna SING! [and dance,…sing and dance]" Man, my arches hurt. Well, stop prancing around for three hours after school! Kung Fu, tango, rock-climbing, Pajamas, feildball, and now tap???… diversity is the spice of life. Caleb, keep that smile and hope always, and you will continue to shine like the star that you are. And, oh yeah, "stay in the light!" We all love you and are so proud of you! –S, K, A, M, Zy, MC, and Pum. FM: my better judgement, competing music, angel on my shoulder

BRIAN PHILLIP STORJOHANN

SANTA MARIA, CA
NAVY PILOT

Surfer boy Brian opted to come to USNA instead of serving jail time for possession of illegal substances. A surfer dude without the board (It's all about the mentality right!?) From the sandy beaches of Santa Barbara. After shedding his drug habit, Storj spent his time trying to pick up chicks while playing the quasi-manly sport of volleyball trying to perfect his bumping, setting, and spiking. "Storjo.....Stop trying to hit!" Sipsip...don't say it. Higher score means someone owes me dinner. Storjo had to let a few of the local ladies down gently, and inflicted several fatal wounds with his sword. Why are you always hookin' up with my friends?!? Finally he found his true love just a few short steps away and wooed her with his patented dance move, the "double fisted bump n' grind." She loves him for his overkill of terrible punk rock; his Fragrance O' Feet, and never ending supply of hair gel. When all else fails you sure as hell know how to make a good urinal steam. CANCUN 2002!!! Brought balance into the shoebox we called a room. Corny jokes, websites, and more corny jokes....and websites. If we don't know where you are, we can always look in DTA! Six carbombs and half the night later, "Can you give me a ride to the airport?, YACK!!" "Is it bad that I wanna hook up with her?!?!?!" Here's hoping you finally become Maverick and many afternoons of playing shirtless volleyball.

BRIAN TRUONG

Chuck's best qualities...we'll start with the bad ones first (they're easier): First and foremost, not drawing the line between friends' houses and singles' clubs, PT at all hours of the night, "I like that song, who is this?" Paying homage to the puppet-master, "Have you been sleeping since I left...I thought so" Rice-powered match-making, Late night work for the Leprechaun, Inventing the greatest diet for two of the biggest narcissists EVER, "What's that smell?" "It's not 2 years, it's 3" Spacing out in class translates to roommate led re-lectures, Emulating Bill in every aspect, Immovable language barriers, When he drinks alone, he prefers to be by himself, Heart-to-hearts about underhanded womanizing, Driving through walls at 3 am in the Rice Rocket, Nights in AC with bottomless Tequila glasses, Sleeping in the corner of my room, Back-flips to get out of bed in the morning, Carrying your Focus everywhere you go...in your wallet, Combing the depths of York for lost friends, Being the only one that could spot the obvious, The fly on the wall...every wall...everywhere, Can't take a hint...leave!/ Someone up there doesn't want you to ever win, 5 foot nothing, one hundred and nothing, Loud as hell, No attention span, but never underestimate the guy. You want him on your side in a brawl. We'll always be there to stretch you out buddy.----MP, CM, WTM

Europe trips – Man they were fun; the GAB; Saving Spaniard from Doc Gordon; Happy Birthday for Bubbles; YO eleven pay the line; dinner dates; The House trip to Chicago; MYRTLE the TURTLE; Jim and the Pumpkin; Yeah that's an Ike jacket; Ring dance engagement; Here's to South America-JMM, HML To think it all started with a "Hey … do you have a roommate yet?" It must have been preordained. How else can you explain four years together without so much as a bad word between us (aside from the occasional misunderstanding- "If I was a princess I'd be huge and beautiful") and spontaneously bursting into song – there really is a song for everything. Mama Watkins, I owe you so many thank yous – for late night wake up calls, complimentary head holdings, and your attentiveness to my endless ramblings. What would I have done without you? And even though you started out with the drive towards Navy Pilot, once you became YP Dave, how could you go back? One day I'll fly to your ship and we'll go back to the good old times where "the seaweed is always greener." If you wife is a crappy cleaner tell her to call me, but you should have caught on by now anyway. "There are places I remember
All my life, though some have changed.
Some forever, not for better -
Some are gone, and some remain.
All these places have their meanings
With lovers and friends, I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living.
In my life, I've loved them all."

The Beatles

Sign on and Sail with me.
The stature of our homeland is no more than the measure of ourselves.
Our job is to keep her free.
Our will is to keep the torch of freedom burning for all.
To this solemn purpose we call on the young, the brave,
